Dear Mom and Pop,

I received three letters today and a package. The package had had magazines and hair oil and candy. Thanks very much. It seems that the letters are coming in regularly now days. I've been pretty busy today. I'm always busy these day. Just hope it won't be so busy next week. I thought I'd type my letter instead of writing it, but I found that I forgot most of my positions. I think you'll see quite a few mistakes.

The weather is getting colder and colder these past few day. I go after the movie films now too aside from my other duties. It gives me a chance to run around in the jeep so I don't mind. I think Bob should be home by now. Let me know when he does get home. The mail man just came in and I got another package. This one had box of candy and magazines. I have lots of candy now. It sounds like you have a pretty easy job since the boss went away. Too bad he doesn't stay away all the time. Today was the first chance I had since I came back to get a haircut. I feel much better.

I hope you received the postcard and the picture of Switzerland I sent you. I'll send the watch and the other things as soon as the Christmas rush is over. I hope you can wait that long. I don't want the watch to be broken.

I'm sending another request for some stuff again.

---I REQUEST YOU TO SEND ME SOME MAGAZINES AND SOCKS---

Well, there isn't much more to write about today so I'll write more tomorrow
