Dear Mom and Pop,

I just finished eating lunch. It started to rain a few minutes ago. It isn't very much, though.

I showed a double feature last night for the gaps. The film was "Twice Blessed" and "Her Highness and Her Bellboy." Both were good pictures.

I hope I get some packages today. It should be coming in soon. Fear in the papers that ships coming over are carrying overload on ~~my~~ mail so mail and packages will be delayed.

The papers this morning said that the 45 is having a cold spell. I hope it isn't very cold in San Francisco although it must be raining a lot. The weather seems to be bad all over the world.

Say, did you see the Jetset's in Berkeley yet? They should be home by now.

This is about all for today so more tomorrow
Glad
