Dear Mom and Pop,

Not much doing today. I'm planning to go horse back riding again tomorrow at the remount. I hope the weather is good.

Speaking of weather, the days are really cold these days. In the mornings when I wake up the ice in the water puddles are thick enough to hold a dog up.

We had a movie in camp last night. We saw "Anchors Aweigh". It was technicolor and was very good.

When I went down to Florence the other day I bought some old Roman coins that were dug up in various places in Italy. They're all Roman coins so To-chan should be pretty interested. I'll send them when I have some other things to go with it. Maybe I'll just bring them home with me.

The way things stand now, I have a good chance to go home with the regiment in March. I hope so.

I guess you saw Bob all ready. How was he? So he's going to stay in San Francisco, eh!

I'm sending a request again.

I REQUEST YOU TO SEND ME SOME MAGAZINES AND SOCKS.

Well, this is about all for today so I'll write more tomorrow,

Jack
