Dear Mom and Pop,

I'm going up to Cortina on Monday morning for a one week rest. Cortina is about 400 miles from here. It's near the Austrian border. We're taking a truck up. I'll help drive up a little ways. We'll have three drivers so it won't be too bad. The place I'm going to is a winter resort and I'll learn all the winter sports I can.

The weather is a little better these days, but it rained today. I hope it'll be better on Monday. I hear that the road up to there is good so I won't have trouble. I'll write from up there.

We're going to the movies tonight, the picture is "A Walk in the Sun": Tomorrow we're going again and the picture is "The Bells of St Mary". This is also a good picture.

I'm sending another request for some stuff.

I-REQUEST YOU TO SEND ME SOME MAGAZINES AND SOCKS.

Well, this is about all for today so I'll write more tomorrow,

Tad
