Sunday
2:00 PM

Dear Mom and Pop,

I don 't know why, but I'm sure kept busy these days. I seem to finish my work all right but more seems to pop up the minute I finish the last. By the way, I told you about the inventory I took of the special service items the other day. Well, the captain told me that mine's was the best in the regiment. The officer at head quarters told him that.

Today is my working Sunday. You see, I have my working days just like you.

I went to the SPECIAL SERVICE last week and drew out a trumpet for myself. Since I'm the special service man for this company, I can things like that pretty easy. Pretty good, eh!

I had a letter from Ted Matsushima yesterday. He said that he was in Tokiyo for five weeks and now he's in Korea. From the way he writes he doesn't seem to like it out there.

The weather is getting funny again. The sun isn't out today and it'S kind of cloudy. I hope it doesn't rain.

Well, this about all for today so I'll write more tomorrow,

Tad
