Dear Mom and Pop,

It looks like the packages are coming in. Yesterday, I got a package with a very nice scarf, magazines, and "take nore". Today I received another package with lots of magazines, a box of candy, a tin of candy and some more "take nore". Thanks very much. I appreciate them very much. The scarf is very nice. It's still pretty cold in the mornings and nights so it'll sure come in handy.

I received two letters from you today too. Yours post marked February 27 and 28th. I'm glad to hear that all the family will eventually move back to San Francisco. I don't like the idea of having them scattered all over the map.

I still like to know when I'm going home. Every time I meet some one, they ask me when we're going home. All I know is it won't be too long of a time, now. I hope!

You know, I just realized that I've been over seas one year and three days. We left New York around the 6th or the 7th of this month last year. Gee, time sure flies.

It was raining early this morning but it's all cleared up now. The sun is out and it looks like we're going to have a nice day after all. It sure has been raining all this past week. I hope this ends it.

Well, in another three weeks your tea set will be ready so I'll have to go down to Florence and pick them up. I hope you have enough patience to wait for them.

Well, this is a part all for today and I'll wait more tomorrow

Jack
