Dear Mom and Pop,

I recieved another letter from you this morning. Your letters are coming in regularly now days. I guess the mail is all straightened out now. I hope that you'll get your letters, too.

How's everything back home? The way you describe Hana, she must be getting pretty fat. I think it's about time that she stopped acting like a little pup.

We're going to have a movie in camp tonight. We have about three movies a week here in camp. I'm getting to be pretty good at running the projector. Tomorrow night is no movies here so we're going into town and see a movie. It's "Adventure with Clark Gable and Greer Garson. Have you seen that one, yet?

I'm glad to hear that you had nice weather the other day. I guess you'll like the weather here now because we're having good weather now, too. I hope we got rid of the rainy season.

On April 6th, we're having a Army Day parade. The regiment has to participate in it but I don't have to go because I'm too busy? Anyway, I'm not crying. I have no love for marching around with a rifle on my shoulder.

The other day I went to a Special Service and Information & Education meeting. Boy, they sure can think of a lot of work for me. Since the I & E man of this company went home, I'm taking care of that too. I think I'm getting a assistant pretty soon to help me out.

Well, this is about all for today so more tomorrow,
