Dear Mom and Pop,

I received a package from you yesterday. It had a can of candy, cans of fruit, and lots of magazines. Thanks very, very much. I'm receiving your letters regularly too.

I was surprised to learn that Pa is planning to buy a car for me. I sure can use one when I get back.

Pa's been pretty busy these past few days. A lot of work come in unexpectedly.

When his letter reaches you, you should be a foot moved to the new place. I hope everything goes OK.

As far as jobs go, I don't think you'll have to worry too much about it.

I saw John the other day his company moved near our place. I went to see him and the other night he came over to see a movie
at our place. Guess what!
His sister got married the latter part of April and do you know

To who. To Henry Fujita Jr.
Yea, it sure was a big surprise to me.

I'm writing a request for some things again.

I REQUEST YOU TO SEND ME
SOME MAGAZINES & CIGARETTES.

I have a picture from back of me
in Japan. I'll send it too.

More sincerely
Yours

Fujita
