Dear Mom and Pop,

I forgot something very important on May 12. It was my Mother's Day. I'm a little late for it I want to wish all the goodness and Happiness to you, Mom.

Well, today is the day that you're moving over. I hope you don't have trouble moving the stuff over.

It's my day to watch the phone today so I'm sitting here at the switchboard writing this letter.

Not much of a day today. It's windy and I think it'll rain pretty soon.

My favorite dish was served today
for lunch. We had Lam burger.

I had my sun tan uniform pressed yesterday and had the stripes and shoulder patch sewed on. We start wearing them from tomorrow. My pants was made a little shorter but the rest fit perfectly. I hope that hat
I asked for comes quick by. The sock you sent by first class come in 8
days.

Well, this is about all for today so
fare tomorrow —

Jad
