Dear Tom and Peg,

I'm leaving for a trip again tomorrow morning. I'm going down to Grosseto. That's where Peg went last couple of weeks ago. I'll be back Friday or Saturday.

Peg and I haven't done very much the past week. We just loaf around all day. We went to Leghorn the other day with a jeep and stayed there all day. We went to the film.

Not much to write about these days. I'll be home September with all the other boys that come overseas with me. They're sending the fathers home next month before us.

I saw John Miyasaki the other day. I was in Florence. He said he doesn't know any more than I do when we go home.

I think Perry should be at our house now. Tell him when the TIME got that comfat correspond<sup>t</sup> business.

Well, I have to get up early tomorrow so now when I get back,
