Dear Mom and Pop,

Ryo and I just returned from a trip. It was the first time we went out together. We left Monday. The area we covered was the place where I was up on the front during the war. It was good to see some of the places where I had to walk up. We found three policies.

When I came back I found five letters and a package. The package had magazines, a can of cody, and cigarettes and a bag of o-sei-fee. Thanks very much.

If you shall have my diary I keep in Italy see if you can find the date when I was in PULICA.
Rys took some pictures of me
there.

Well, this is about all for today so more tomorrow

Jack
