Dear Mom and Pop,

Well, how's things going Jack home? Me, I'm fine. I'm resting right now. We're finished with our work here because we're going home so Pop and I are thinking of going to Venice for a few days vacation. I don't know if we're going yet. We didn't decide. As for the captain goes, he said it was OK with him.

I'm having a hard time with my new name. I'm so used to being called Corp. or Corporal, that when some one yells "Hey Sarg" or "Sergeant", I just keep walking on.

Not too much to write about today. I slept all morning and this afternoon

I just stayed in my room and read stories.

I saw some old pictures that were taken in Service Company so I'll send them to you with this letter.

Well, more tomorrow =
