Dear Mom and Pop,

Pop and I returned from Venice this morning at 3:30 AM. We went and came back by train. We really had a nice time. We rode on gondolas and went to all the parts of the island.

I had four letters from you when I returned. You think I'm on my way back. Not yet. I'll be leaving about the first week of October and I'll be home in San Francisco at the end of the month.

I took a small box and put a lot of stuff in it and mailed it home so it should reach you sometime. Maybe I'll beat the package home.

Well, I spent all my money but had a lot of fun.

I'll see you soon —

Jack
