

Shell jewelry and artwork created by Misao Takabatake Kitagawa while incarcerated at Topaz, and living in barrack 36 – 4 – C

Pictured: bouquet of yellow and purple pansies bouquet of violets with greenery and tied with a ribbon pin – painted wood bluebird on a branch pin – gamboling dark wood bear cub with white eye pin – painted basket holding shell flowers pin – heart surrounded by painted, crosshatched white shells with shell “rose” on a bed of shells and other shell flowers pin – light blue oval pin covered with tiny shells, featuring three large flowers with greenery flat backed pink camillia surrounded by painted green wood leaves screw-backed shell rose earrings many of the collected shells used in her creations leaves, wire, accessories used in the creation of jewelry and other creations blue ribbon, wooden forms used as pin backs, and paper pattern shapes for use in art creations a tiny string of shells