

BIG "B" EXTRA

Volume 1

Ballard High School March 4, 1939

Number 1

BREAKFAST PROVES TO BE HOWLING SUCCESS

Through the combined efforts of Jane Lasater, Miss Cornish and every Big "B" member, the all-city breakfast went over big. Middies prevailed and when you come, to think of it--they looked pretty good, didn't you think so?

MRS. BLACK AND CREW DESERVE PRAISE

Mrs. Black and her score of efficient helpers were on hand at 7 o'clock getting those little pig sausages nice and brown for all of us --and boy weren't they good! The brown spuds and toast umm-m-n, I wish I had some right now!

VISITORS MADE TO FEEL AT HOME

Maxine Fite and her hostesses Barbara Peterson, June Miller, Ruth Williams, Juanita Hull, Mary Bright, Norma Bergquist, June Backlund, and Bernice Robertson certainly did a grand job of ushering all our guests around the building. Every visitor was made to feel right at home. I'll bet they wished Ballard was their home school.

MR. DE VILBISS said he was very pleased with the way the breakfast was carried out.

DOLORES TAYLOR MAKES A NAME FOR HERSELF

Our program chairman, Dolores Taylor sure made a big hit, and talking about hits, we can't forget the conversation that Dorothy Houck and Erma Knapp had with one of the noted celebrities. They sure do get around. Jane Lilleland and other members of the committee did a good job of ushering in the guest speakers. Too bad Shirley Tuggle had to be so clumsy and let those BIG feet of hers almost get her down.

NEVER AGAIN

Carolyn Davies, Maxine Cody, and Gloria Dethman will probably never suggest the burning of 300 place cards again. They sure were cute though, girls.

CREDIT WHERE CREDIT IS DUE

Florence Lunde certainly will get an "A" in office training by the efficient manner in which she turned out the stencils.

FROM NOW ON we shall call our friend Dolores Taylor by her new name COLORES.

DON'T YOU THINK Dorothy Donovan makes quite a yell leader?

FINANCIAL END HANDLED WELL

Twenty-five, thirty, forty, fifty, thank you. Helen Wallen surely did a good job of keeping the books, even though Betty Linnane was able to mix her up when she had it almost all counted. Mary Ann Parish and Shirley Hanson were just too smart. We couldn't mix them up.

WE WISH TO THANK Mr. Lewis of the Lewis Lumber Company for supplying us with all the shingles.

PEGGY WATSON DOES THE DECORATING

Don't you think the decorating committee did a swell job? We used to think Peggy Watson was an artist, but now we know. And weren't those trees cute that June Kumakura with the help of Margaret McKechnie who is now earning her Big "B" made? Peggy has been ill the last few days and June and the other girls certainly went ahead with things in a grand manner. Jerry Stevens, Carol Robinson, Marie Gallop and Beverly Dye helped to fix up the lunchroom so we hardly recognized it.

CHECKERS DO CHECKING

Doing some pretty close checking took part of the time of Norma Savage, and her helpers Betty Thornton, Pat Periard, Betty Edmonds, Dorothy Donovan, and Florence Lunde. I wonder how many coats they got mixed up.

UNKNOWN ARTIST REVEALED

By the way things turned out it looks as if Lillian Krahn and Florence Johnson weren't just playing around, moving the lunchroom tables last week, and drawing great masterpieces, anyway, the tables were arranged very nicely. When it came to setting the tables, Evelyn Malvick, Norma Sampi, Marion Larson, and Dorothy Royce were right there to help.

MASAKA TADA certainly went to town getting her name plates all finished ahead of time.

BOY, THOSE SONG BOOKLETS that Elvina Frederickson and Florence Hopf put out were sure pretty smooth don't you think?

WE SINCERELY WISH to thank Mr. McConnell and the stage crew for being so helpful in arranging the tables for us.

EVERYONE WAS SUPPLIED with their food on time due to the efficient work of Elsie Gunderson and her crew of girls who acted as waitresses. Everyone was served promptly, and incidently, no one got a shower of soup, gravy, or what have you.

THANK TO Virginia Sibon and Dorothy Sturgeon for staying after Basketball practice to help tie place cards.

BETTY TIMM HAS been most faithful when she hasn't been feeling as well as she might.

EVERYONE ACTED as a committee of one, helped clean up although Mary Bright was general chairman.

LETS NOT FORGET to thank Florence Johnson who edited this sheet. She had lots of fun.

WE SINCERELY HOPE we haven't omitted any girls name who helped make this breakfast a success. If we have, we are very sorry.
