nounced tha the March functing ures have been revised to creasing de mands upon the American Red Cross both from the European and Pacific the-

for the second consecutive year.

nformed of the change in quote Day reported that an additional request has been made of the Pacific area to supply at least 400 more persons to serve overseas with Red must be ready to anticipate these

Annual 'March

Of Dimes' Drive

paralysis will open today through families, E. G. Sick, state chairmar research and maintaining a staff of trained personnel and a stock of

J. E. Bowen Heads Drive The Seattle campaign is ir charge of Joe E. Bowen. Mrs. E

L. Blaine, Jr., is treasurer and women's division chairman.

A "Mile of Dimes" booth will be et up at Third Avenue and Pike Street. Lions Clubs in the city are in charge of "Wishing Well" coin collectors distributed in the outlying business districts. The Junior Chamber of Commerce is assisting in the campaign program in the central business district. Ortho-pedic and Junior Guilds will station members at "March of Dimes" tables in department stores.

P.- T. A. Groups to Help Others assisting are Parent-eacher Associations, unions, business firms, church groups, farm organizations, luncheon and service

lubs and lodges.

Mrs. Bertram Thomas is state women's division chairman. Frank L. Newman, Sr., heads the state heatre drive committee. Dean Mc-Lean is in charge of King County excluding Seattle. Mrs. A. Todd

Mathews is women's chairman for

Will Halt To Conserve Coal

epidemics arise.

atres of war.

2,248 NAMES ON

Casualties totaling 2,248 were announced yesterday, with the War Department listing 1,979 soldiers wounded in action in the Asiatic, Central Pacific and European areas and the Navy Department naming 19 dead, 219 wounded and 31 missing.

The War Department also announced 33 Washington men held prisoners of war by Germany. Six are from Seattle: 2nd Lieut. James M. Anastos, son of Peter Anastos, 5200 Roosevelt Way; 2nd Lieut. Louis J. Beckmann, husband of Louis J. Beckmann, husband of Mrs. Ruth J. Beckmann, 3400 W. 57th St.; 2nd Lieut. James H. Keeffe, 3237 Hunter Blyd.; Daniel Samardick, technicisn, fifth grade, brother of Mrs. Melba Roseta, 3238 Holly St.; Sergt. Glenn A. Wieder-strom, son of Haakan E. Wieder-strom, 3446 39th Ave. S. W., and 2nd Lieut. David F. Wolter, hus-band of Mrs. Julian E. Wolter, 933 N. 91st St. N. 91st St.

The Navy listings brought the total Marine Corps, Coast Guard and Navy casualties announced since December 7, 1941, to 82,700, composed of 31,577 dead, 37,234 wounded, 9,410 missing and 4,479

Barbara Aspman, 1020 Seneca St.; Pyt. Donald E. Newton, son of Eldon F. Newton, 8600 Bothell Way, both wounded in the Central Pacific area; Ptc. Donald H. Hochberg, son of Harry Y. Hochberg, 927 Tenth Ave. N.; Sergt. Jack E. Killitz, son of Earl Killitz, 510 Broadway, both wounded in the European area.

Other wounded men from Washington, all soldiers unless otherwise

Ington, an solders unless otherwise indicated, are:

Tacoma—Pfc. Jack M. Allen.
Sergt. Stanley J. Raczkowski, and Pfc. Harold L. Pentecost, U. S. M. C. R. Everett — Pvt. Ralph H. Meyer

and Pfc. William F. Weed.

Bremerton—Tech. Sergt. Dale E.
Wheeler. Sumner-Warren E. Query, tech nician, fifth grade.

Olympia—Pfc. George H. Sturde-Aberdeen—Chester Edward Peterson, electrician's mate, first class, Cordova, Alaska, before settling in ner.

U. S. N. R.
Orting—Pvt. Gordon B. Donner.

Centralia—Fvt. C...

Spokane—Pvt. Calvin V. Garry.

Wapsto—Pvt. Joe E. Maes.

Junction City—Grays Harbor
County—Staff Sergt. Clifford E.

Hensley.

Buf Frank H.

is dead." Mrs. Snow sam.

"The wire I received said the body had not been recovered and I'm praying he may be somewhere on the beach."

With Mrs. Snow here is their saughter, Mary Lynn, 12.

Longview—Pfc. James H. Price. Garfield—Pfc. Ora F. Tissue. Concrete — Sergt. Charles C.

Bruland.

Hanford—Pfc. Albert Buehring.

Spokane—2nd Lieut. Donald I. Cooke, Staff Sergt. Roy R. Pease, Pvt. Harold L. Young, 2nd Lieut. Arthur L. Goss, Pvt. Harry E. Hayford and 2nd Lieut. Edward E. Peanew.

Sumner-Pyt. Donald J. Cyrus. Aigona—Sergt. Charles J. Ducatt.
Pasco—Pvt. Walter Fox. Anacortes-2nd Lieut, Robert O.

Omak—Pfc. Fred L. Hallams. Concrete—Staff Sergt. Leonard I. Hornbeck.

Creston, Lincoln County - Pvt. James L. Houston.

Dishman - 2nd Lieut. John F. Uniontown, Whitman County -

Uniontown, Whitman County —
Pfc. Xaxier M. Kinzer.
Pinehurst, Snohomish County —
Tech. Sergt. Edward J. Lafferty.
Olympia — Sergt. Arthur D.

Oakes.

Malaga—2nd Lieut, Howard E. Richardson.

Longview—Staff Sergt, John W. Sweren.

First Japs Return Machinery Lag May

sections of the country, except output disclosed as the latest threat Sato, who had been working in a war plant in Cleveland. The three were the first to return here under the recent order by the Western of the War Food Administration.

Military Training Urged Ernesta Barlow, chairman of the Women's National Committee for Universal Military Training of Young Men, warned today that if America is to be safe from aggressors the nation's women must take the lead in urging passage of universal military-training legistation. Woman on Press Committee WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Capital correspondents today broke a 69-year-old precedent by electing all

Battery Case
Sattery Corés
Bulky Batteries
Battery Garment
Battery Cord Noisa
Battery Cord Expense

Just one compact case. Modestly priced. Light weight — less than II ex complete. Fully guaranteed.

SEATTLE PARAVOX CO. 106 Palomar Bidg., Seattle. MAin 7322 FIRST PICTURES INSIDE B-29

First photographs made public of the interior of the Boeing B-29 Superfortress show provisions made for comfort of the crew on long missions. Here is the crew compartment, just aft of the gunners' section in the center of the plane, where bunks afford an opportunity for rest and relaxation. In the background is the pressure bulkhead and hatch which separate the crew compartment from an unpressured section between it and the tail gunner's counters. pressurized section between it and the tail gunner's quarters.

Twenty-two Washington men are among those reported by both departments as wounded. Four of the soldiers are from Seattle: Pvt. Robert G. Matthies, brother of Mrs. Barbara Aspman, 1020 Seneca St. Pvt. Donald F. 1020 Seneca St.

Herbert Morton Snow, stroyer Hul was sunk in Western Pa cific with two his wife. Ethel 1817 Third Ave N., has been in formed by the Navy Department.

Snow, 42 Neb., lived

Seattle. He entered the Naval Re-Orting—Pyt. Gordon B. Donner. Serve in 1923, and was called to Centralia—Pyt. Clyde A. Faulk-active duty last April.

Dave Cullinane Other Washington men announced as prisoners of war of Accident Victim

Seattle Prepar-atory School. At CULLINANE atory.school. At the time of his chilistment in the Army March 19, 1941, he was attending Seattle College. He received basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., and went overseas CULLINANE

School

and

last January.
Surviving besides his parents are two brothers, Edwin Cullinane, United States Navy, and John Culli-nane, Seattle: two sisters, Mary Elizabeth Cullinane and Mrs. Howard Picht, both of Seattle; his grand-mother. Mrs. A. H. Long, San Fran-Hood River Quiet As cisco, and grandfather, Edward Baldwin, Seattle.

arrived by train from undesignated tion, with a lag in farm machinery men.

Defense Command permitting such reported tonight that production his department and that he berehabilitation.

Military Training Urged to 20 to 25 per cent behind to work with."

Military Training Urged to work with."

The war Production to work with."

The new fisheries head is a dropped 20 to 25 per cent behind schedule. The war Production Board is expected to forward within correspondents today broke a 69- ing game." year-old precedent by electing a woman—Mrs. Elisabeth May Craig, four conse

ENGRAVING AND JEWELRY

REPAIRING Prompt Reliable Service We Close Saturdays

HOLMAN-HAUGE 815 Green Bldg. EL. 6406 4th and Pike St.

A member of the crew of a B-29, shown crawling through the 35-foot tunnel which overpasses the unpressurized bomb bays to connect the pressurized control cabin with the pressurized gunners'

67-lb. King Salmon Turned Milo Moore to Fish Career

10 years his father

When Milo Moore, 40-year-old 'Mayor of La Conner," who has been named by Gov. Mon C. Wall-p h o t o graphed him with a 67-pound King salmon taken from his fathr's nets in the Skagit River

C. L. ANDERSON decided to make fish his lifelong business. In one way or another, with the exception of a few years, Moore has stuck to that decision. Yesterday in the department's headquarters in the Smith Tower, Moore, who succeeds Fred J. Fos-ter as head of one of the most outstanding fisheries departments in the United States, was concerned with fish more than ever before it his life, and was well aware of it

"The State Fisheries Department for years has been recognized as an outstanding authority on the scicutific propagation of fish and has scientists of national reputation, bersel, he said. "Mr. Foster has had a lot "I was fitting some ribs to an

HOOD RIVER, Or., Jan. 13.—
Little notice was apparent today in the Hood River Valley at the return of three Japanese Americans to their former homes, in spite of American Legion efforts to organize a "citizens' committee"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Government officials predicted tonight that only a miracle can enable farmers to maintain in 1945 the Ray Sato, Sat Noji and Min Asai agrived by train from undesignated tion, with a lag in farm machinery men.

No Changes in Personnel "I was glad to know that C. L. Anderson, his administrative assistant, will be with me. We hope to maintain the high standard set by Mr. Foster and it will be our aim to increase fish in fresh and salt water to the best interests of both sport and commercial fishermen.

Stettinius to Attend Parley of Republic pipe-smoking man, who speaks slowly and deliberately, said he expects no extensive changes either in the personnel or the policy of native of Seattle but for the past 35 years has resided in Skagit County. He attended grade school in Mount Vernon and high school in La Conner. For many years he was a commercial fisherman, and, he said has "used about every kind WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Capital of gear there is to use in this fish-year-old precedent by electing a woman—Mrs. Elisabeth May Craig, representative of a group of Maine newpapers—to their standing committee in charge of Senate and House press galleries.

He was mayor of La Conner for four consecutive two-year terms, resigning in 1933 however after serving only two years, "to give somebody else a chance."

Operating Shippard

During that time he had operated a fish buying company with his father and brother, reselling to many of Seattle's large wholesale

Acid Indigestion

MILO MOORE

"I was fitting some ribs to an French Trains of experience with this department solution in the Fish & Wildlife Service and has done an excellent job.

Twas fitting some ribs to an excellent solution when the governor's office was trying to get me last ice and has done an excellent job. No Changes in Personnel

"I was glad to know that C. L.
Anderson, his administrative assistant, will be with me. We hope to maintain the high standard set

PARIS. Jan. 13. — (UP)—In a drastic crackdown to meet the critical coal situation, government of ficials announced that electric current will be cut off in Paris effective Monday from 8:30 a. m. to 5

Parley of Republics

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., will head the United States delegation to next month's conference of American republics in Mexico City, and it was believed here tonight that the Argentine government—now excluded from the parley—may be invited later to present its view of circumstances to present its view of circumstances. The transportation ordered coverage trains except to present its view of circumstances. The transportation ordered coverage trains except to present its view of circumstances. The transportation ordered coverage trains except to present its view of circumstances. The transportation ordered coverage trains except to present its view of circumstances. The transportation ordered coverage trains except to present its view of circumstances. The transportation ordered coverage trains except to present its view of circumstances. The transportation ordered coverage trains except trains except trains except trains except trains except to present trains except trains except delegate; Avra Warren, chief of the department's Office of Amercan Republics, and 40 to 50 other Belgium Acts To He was mayor of La Conner for diplomatic, economic and technical experts.

Brooklyn G.I. Wins

many of Seattle's large wholesare list firms. He has been an active member of the State Firemen's Association and served on the state heard of directors.

Lad been that Fv. Association and prize of a list of the list of the last of th

Sisters, Grandmothers, Meet, [[[[]] After Separation of Lifetime

MRS. MARY FORBES (left) and MRS. L. L. SPILLUM Sisters, reunited, reminisce over family album

Mrs. L. L. Spillum, 3121 Juneau gan their search for their sister, ox yoke and other relics of the St., sat excitedly at a table in a Seattle restaurant and waited for meeting was arranged by televille. The Chambers party, all loaned by the Washington State Historical Sophone. "The greatly increasing demands the armed forces go. Casuatties sister.

on the war fronts, and the aspect of prolonged war, mean that this year will see Red Cross meeting instantly Mrs. Spillum was on her Moore, it didn't n many unexpected emergencies. We feet.

in the war fronts, and the aspect of prolonged war, mean that this rear will see Red Cross meeting instantly Mrs. Spillum was on he ready to anticipate these needs."

Annual 'March of Dimes' Drive Begins Today

The 12th annual "March of Dimes' campaign to raise funds for the prevention and cure of infantile baralysis will open today through-parties and the nation.

County chapters of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will retain half the money they collect to care for local victims, train tures and technicians in treatment methods, purchase equipment and supplies used in the treatment and supplies used in the treatment and supplies used in the treatment and pointed out.

The other half will be turned for the first time or to the national foundation for Infantile Paralysis will open today through-partied out.

The other half will be turned for the first first pointed and their and supplies used in the treatment apointed out.

The other half will be turned for the first hand the provent to the national foundation for Infantile paralysis will open today through-partied to accompanie to the national foundation for Infantile Paralysis will open today through-partied to accompanie to accompani Dimes" campaign to raise funds for the prevention and cure of infantile County chapters of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will retain half the money they collect to care for local victims, train nurses and technicians in treatment methods, purchase equipment and supplies used in the treatment and give relief to victims and their

The other half will be turned over to the national foundation for emergency equipment and sup-plies to be rushed to areas where

I didn't talk to her. She was very happy, and didn't know she was Grand Forks, N. D.
Adopted, and it was my duty to keep the secret. That was when I decided I should try to forget her."

After Mrs. Spillum and Moore were reunited in Seattle, they be-grandchildren.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The Jan. 13.—The Mrs. George F. H. Taylor operators today issued a joint call for a national bituminous wage conference here in March to negotiate a contract to replace the agreement which expires the mines and a 10-months con-troversy before the War Labor Board. The miners won travel-time pay and a paid lunch period in lieu of a general $2-a-week increase demanded by John L.

Curb Coal Thefts

Only 15 of her pigs are left. Sixing Paw's pen.

Only 15 of her pigs are left. Sixing Paw's pen.

"Never think that was all woods at one time," she said. "Paw roots a place bare in no time. Better than any buildozer I ever saw." Army Essay Contest shortage, the cabinet today signed the next day Thomas had to call a drastic emergency measure which "Doc" Livingston at Renton. In the calls for the use of the 1941 militia meantime, Mrs. Thomas had to district emergency measure which calls for the use of the 1941 militia in mines and authorizes permanent warmed guards along transportation routes. Soldiers will be directed into mines through voluntary entistments, by a lottery draft or through wheel in the Mediterranean theatre. Rubin, whose essay was selected from among more than 18,000, wrote: "With victory we stand on the threshold of inventions and comforts. We possess the resources to extend our horizons in every field of endeavor and every aspect of human relations."

a drastic emergency measure which calls for the use of the 1941 militia in mines and authorizes permanent take care of Maw's family. "Just couldn't keep up with the job," Mrs. Thomas explained yesterday in the basement of her home, where she was busy feeding the squealing, scrambling litter of Maw's prodigious family, using a long row of nippled bottles Thomas had rigged up as sort of an automatic feeding machine. Mrs. Thomas shock her head the power of the production of human relations."

Tust couldn't keep up with the job," Mrs. Thomas explained yesterday in the basement of her home, where she was busy feeding the squealing, scrambling litter of Maw's prodigious family, using a long row of nippled bottles. Thomas had rigged up as sort of an automatic feeding machine. Mrs. Thomas shock her head the power matic feeding machine. Mrs. Thomas shock her head the power matic feeding machine. Mrs. Thomas shock her head the power matic feeding machine. Mrs. Thomas shock her head the power matic feeding machine. Mrs. Thomas shock her head the power matic feeding machine. Mrs. Thomas shock her head the power matic feeding machine. Mrs. Thomas shock her head the power machine matic feeding machine. Mrs. Thomas shock her head the power machine matic feeding machine. Mrs. Thomas shock her head the power machine machine, mrs. Thomas shock her head the power machine machine, mrs. Thomas shock her head the power machine. Thomas shock her head the power machine machine machine, mrs. Thomas shock her house

Hundreds of old-time Alaskans and descendants of early white settlers in Washington State will gather Saturday evening in the Masonic Temple, Harvard Avenue and Pine Street; to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the arrival in Oregon Tetritory of the Judge Thomas Chambers party, as well as to renew memories of experiences during the Yukon gold rush.

The affair, under the auspices of the Seattle Sourdough Club, will start with a banguet at 6:30 o'clock. Chairman is W. O. Peterson, Alaskan pioneer and a grandson of Judge Chambers.

Special Lighting The Chambers party, which came overland in a wagon train, settled near Stellacoom. Member of the group, including the grown sons of leader, became important facthe leader, became important fac-tors in the early business and pro-fessional activities of Western Washington communities. City Light officials have donated special lighting equipment to create a vari-colored Northern Lights effect on snow-decked trees on the stage.

Wettrick to Preside

Fred J. Wettrick, Seattle attorney and president of the Sour-dough Club, will be master of ceremonies at the dinner, which will be followed by entertainment and dancing.

To be exhibited at the affair will be a table used by Judge Chambers while crossing the plains, an "The Red Cross must go wherever the armed forces go. Casualties on the war fronts, and the aspect of prolonged war, mean that this color relations and the same time was met and the same time, and the same time, many and down the armed forces go. Casualties on the war fronts, and the aspect of prolonged war, mean that this color relations and the same time, meeting was arranged by telephone.

"Just the thought of having a displays will include articles salester was thrilling," said Mrs. Spillum yesterday, "and when we actually found her and I knew she asiles looking for her brother and was right there on the other end of the telephone line—well, I just of the telephone line—well, I just was raised after she had been submerged for more than 30 years.

Maw Believes in 'Whole Hog March 31.

The sessions will begin about 10 days earlier than those in 1943 which resulted in four strikes, government selzure twice of all the mines and a 10-months con-

Second and Cheery MAin 4356

Henry Broderick MC.

Loosen Asthma Mucus Sleep Fine

gle litter. It is, Normal "complement" of pigs for a solution of pigs is about eight.

But Maw is no ordinary hog. In the first place, she weighs 600 pounds, about twice as big as the average sow.

The record Believue litter was sired by a hog named Paw, also owned by the Thomases. Mrs. The first place, she weighs 600 pounds, about twice as big as the average sow.

Say Thousands of Sufferers it choking, gasping, whereing, recurring attacks of Birchial Astima rob your of seep pounds, about twice as big as the average sow.

Falling over, and the barren ground losses and remove thick straigling mucus, and the barren ground losses and remove thick straigling mucus, and the barren ground losses are the straigling mucus.

