

A "Pin-Up" for a soldier

Among our lads overseas, who do you suppose is the favorite of them all? Not Millie Flicker, the screen star. Not Cutie Curves, the model. But the true sweetheart of every American—his own, his native land.

How do we know? Back in peace time, we distributed thou-sands of color prints of the West-its rocks and rills, its forest-templed hills. Some have found their way overseas, and letters have come back.

"I have not seen my home since I enlisted in December of 1941." (This one comes from a captain in Italy.) "Yet all the fondness I have for its sights and sounds, its people and constant remembrance.

"Now these sights that have been only memories are here... on the wall ... before me every day. Lake Chelan! Mt. Baker! Coeur d'Alene, where I spent part of almost every summer I can remember!

"Tonight, a flying officer, new to the squadron, recognized, them and asked if somebody wasn't from Washington. It led to an hour's reminiscence. The pictures, as he said, made the past closer and the future

"Maybe we're punchy or sentimental, but nothing in the world looks quite like the country you have grown up in and hope one day to come back to.'

So if, by chance, you have around home one of those prints that is not doing full duty, why not send it to somebody overseas? We'd like to do it ourselves - but we haven't got them. Person to person, though, it can be done. Why not send your soldier a picture that's already a "Pin-Up" in his
