IF MOORE HAS IT, IT'S GENUINE

Your Diamond

Lawrence L. Moore personally visits Amsterdam, the diamond market of the world, and with every known resource for economy of buying and careful selection, obtains the most perfectly cut, polished and brilliant stones produced.

We call your particular attention to the fact that slight degrees of color and brilliancy affect the price of diamonde very materially and that the values we place upon precious gems are based absolutely upon exact knowledge, expert judgment and many years experience. We are also careful to grade our stones so that those who purchase of us know exactly what they pay for. Our quality and weights are beyond criticism and we always welcome a comparison of price.

ISISTER SUES FOR HALF OF BROTHER'S ESTATE

Mrs. Mary T. Stevens of Utah Did No. Learn of Relative's Death Until Wealth Had Been Distributed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Wednesday, Jan. 22.—Although her brother has been dead for nearly two years, Mrs. Mary T. Stevens of Salti Lake City, learned of it only a month ago; and at the same time she found out that her sister, Mrs. Kate E. Rieser of this city had claimed to be the only heir and had had the estate settled.

J. W. Gorman died in July, 1906, intestate, leaving no children or immediate relatives except the two sisters. In the later years of his life, he had collected an estate anounting to between $15,000 and $20,000, which was invested in real estate in different parts of the city.

William Ladd was granted letters of administration in August, 1906, and according to the complaint filed yesterday Mrs. Rieser, and Ladd, appeared before Judge Coffey lest April and swore that the former was the only heir at law. A decree of final distribution was entered on April 18, 1907. Mrs. Stevens who is 65 years old, had had no communication with either brother or sister for a long time and only learned of his death within a month. Now she has brought suit for an undivided half interest in the property.

JAPANESE LOOK AT A COAST DEFENSES

Two Subjects of Mikado Arrested by Sentry at Fort Stevens, Ore., for Loitering About Military Reservation.

No Incriminating Papers Are Found Upon Their Persons, but Their Actions Arouse Suspicion of Authorities,

PORTLAND, Wednesday, Jan. 25 special to the Oregonian from Fort Stev ens, Orc., says:

Much consternation was caused today Much consternation was caused today by the capture of two Japanese who were found 'loitering in the west battery of Fort Stevens.

The sentry while walking his post to the west battery suddenly came upon two Japanese who were walking upon the parapet of the battery. As this place is rarely visited except by special permission from the district artillery commander, the sentry hid behind a sentry box and watched their movements. Seeing them point to the different guns and emplacements and looking over the situation in general, the sentry took them into custody and marched them back to the main post.

Mo Satisfactory Explanation. No Satisfactory Explanation.

Mo Satisfactory Explanation.

They were then interviewed by the district adjutant-lieutenant, B. H. Kerfoot, who could obtain no satisfactory explanation for their trespassing.

Although nothing of an incriminating nature could be found upon their persons, indications are that they were at the post for the purpose of obtaining plans and sketches of the different fortifications and modes of defense.

The Japanese were very well dressed and seemed to be above the average in appearance and intelligence. The fact of their being in the west battery, probably the most important lattery at the river's month, makes the situation more serious than it would otherwise be. The battery consists of six ten-inch rifles and two six-inch rapid fire guns and is considered one of the most potent factors in the defense of this part of the coast.

Unofficial intelligence was received some time ago relative to surreptitious work of this nature, but practically nothing was thought of it until recently, when the various reports of the many instances of the Japanese obtaining plans, etc., of the different coast defenses of the United States were received. No action of an official nature has yet been taken, but an investigation will probably result and if the evidence tends to show that there is anything in the suspicions, complications are likely to arise.

> Heroine Sits on the Prostrate Form of the Criminal and Her Husband Runs for a Policeman.

NEW YORK, Wednesday, Jan. 22.—
Mrs. Hannah Jaeger, five feet tall and slender, captured a six-foot burglar all by herself last night. Mrs. Jaeger's husband is caretaker of an apartment building in Williamsburg, but of late has been ill and is barely able to get around. Last night, carrying a light, Mrs. Jaeger accompanied her husband to the fifth floor of the building. There they found that the brass water taps over a sink had been removed. Just as the discovery was made the burglar, armed with a heavy wrench, jumped out of a closet and tried to strike the light from Mrs. Jaeger's hand. Calling to her husband to run for a policeman Mrs. Jaeger selzed a heavy sash weight which lay on the floor and attacked the intruder. Jaeger ran down stairs as fast as he could and summonded a policeman. When the officer reached the room he found Mrs. Jaeger sitting on the prostrate form of the burglar, still pounding him with the iron weight.

INCREASE NOTED IN RAILROAD ACCIDENT

That Patalities and Casualties Are Becoming Larger.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Jan. 22.— Startling figures appear in the accident bulletin just issued by the interstate commerce commission covering the months of July, August and September, 1907.

The report shows that the number of casualties on railroads during that quarterly period were 23,063, including 1,332 killed and 21,724 injured. This is an increase of 157 in the number of killed and 3,056 in the number injured as compared with the corresponding period of 1906.

and 3,056 in the number of killed and 3,056 in the number injured as compared with the corresponding period of 1906.

Collisions and derailments in the quarter number 4,759, including 2,245 collisions and 2,034 derailments, of which 520 collisions and 222 derailments affected passengers trains. The damage to cars, engines, and roadway by these accidents amounted to 33,605,696. This shows an increase in the number of collisions and derailments of 607 over the corresponding period of 1906.

It is stated by the commission that the worst accident in the record which caused the death of twenty-six persons and the injury of thirty-three was the result of a collision between an east-bound passenger train and a westbound freight train and was due to an error in sending or repeating the number designating one of the trains in a dispatcher's order.

CAPITAL STATE BANK AT BOISE SUSPENDS

Street Rumors of Insolvency Lead to the Closing of the Doors of the Institution.

BOISE. Idaho, Wednesday, Jan. 22.—Capital State Bank, of Idaho (Ltd.), of this city, failed to open its doors for business yesterday morning. The directors of the bank at a meeting held last night, decided that a temporary suspension was necessary owing to recent heavy withdrawals of deposits.

W. S. Bruce, an expert accountant, who has been engaged in making a careful investigation into the affairs of the bank, advised the action. This morning he issued a statement in which he gave it as his opinion that the bank is solvent and that the assets are sufficient to pay the depositors every dollar that is due them. The Capital State Bank has capital stock of $290,000, reserve of $100,000 and deposits at the time of the last statement, December 23, of $1,076,792. Before the financial troubles began the deposits amounted to about $1,250,000. For the last two months reports have been in circulation reflecting on the stability of the institution, and this fact has much to do with bringing on the failure. George D. Ellis is president and H. E. Neal cashler Neal left Boise last week for Portland, Oregon, on account of illness. It is stated positively that his departure was not occasioned by the bank's condition. In connection with the institution a savings bank was conducted.

ARMY OFFICERS MAY AVOID RIDING TESTS

Military Men That Do Not Comply With Latest Regulation Cannot Expect Promotion.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Jan. 22.
—Secretary of War William H. Taft announced last night that the President inad decided to modify the riding test regulations by providing that all permanent staff officers engaged in purely civil duties who may be called on for field operations may at their own request be excused from the test.

This, however, is on condition that such requests shall be regarded by the appointing authorities as a conclusive reason for not promoting them to any position in connection with the line.

This decision will release Colonels Marshall and Adams and Lieut-Col. Russell of the engineer corps, who have requested to be excused, being in charge of important river and harbor improvements.
