

D. S. C. FOR JAP FAMILY

IN SANTA ANA, CALIF.—Gen. Joseph Stilwell pins the Distinguished Service Cross to the dress of Mary Masuda December 8, in honor of her brother, Staff Sergt. Kazuo Masuda, a Japanese-American, who won the posthumous award for his single-handed attack on a Nazi position at Casino, Italy, in 1944. Other members of the family (rear row, left to right) are: Pfc. Masao Masuda, a brother; the hero's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gensuke Masuda; and Mitsuo Masuda, recently discharged from the armed forces.—A. P. Wirephoto.
