

TRUMAN HONORS NISEI HEROES
