Boers Are as Busy as Roberts Is Idle.

London Eagerly Watching the Commander's Enveloping Movements.

By Cable and Leased Wire.

LONDON, Wednesday, June 27.—Telegrams from South Africa indicate that the renewed Boer activity is in proportion to Lord Roberts' quiescence, and so the completion of the commander-in-chief's enveloping movement, supposed to be in progress, is anxiously awaited. The news this morning supports the belief that the Boers succeeded in piercing General Rundie's lines and proceeded southward. It appears that the failure of the British to properly guard their line of communication north of Kroonstadt involved disaster to a body of Basutos working on

This has had a decidedly bad effect on the native mind, and a recrudescence of unrest is reported in Basutoland.

A good deal of feeling has been engendered between Astoria and Portland. According to W. W. Whipple of Astoria, who is now in the city, the trouble grew out of the O. R. & N. Company and President Mohler of the O. R. & N. Company and President Hammond of the Astoria & Columbia River Railway. It is said that in the negotiations between the two with reference to the purchase of the little road Hammond set his price bigher than Mohler thought the facts warranted. Spicy correspondence followed, and finally the O. R. & N. cut its passenger rate from $3.80 to 50 cents. The A. & C. meeting this rate, still another cut followed, this time to 25 cents. For a time this low rate appeared to threaten death to Astoria merchants, since it enabled residents of that town to go to Portland for even the smallest shopping. In turn, however, it has helped Astoria in a way, for Portland people are now taking advantage of the low fare to run down to Astoria for the sea breezes and sait water, and incidentally, of course, they are spending some money there.

The changes are an advance on all soda biscults, with the exception of the high grades, of half a cent a pound. A similar increase is made on a few lines of sweet grades, into the manufacture of which flour and lard enter largely. On the other lines of sweet goods the box price is increased to the tin price, which is equal to one-half to one cent a pound.

The Japanese Tidal Wave.

The Japunese Tidal Wave.

Special Dispatch.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Wednesday, June 27.—M. Shimezu, Japanese Consul for Canada, in speaking of the approximate number of Japanese immigrants which would be permitted by the government to migrate to America, puts the figures at 7128 per year: or 3588 for the United States and 3540 for Canada. The laws governing immigration to the United States are different from those applying to Canada. In the case of Canada there are five immigrants allowed to migrate to Canada and the forty-seven prefectures or provinces of Japan, and besides this regulation each of the twelve immigration companies of Japan are allowed five passports per month, or in other words, the immigration companies are permitted to take 295 Japanese per month to Canada, or 3540 during the year. It is not required, however, that a stated number be taken each month. If it were desired, or if it were possible to do so, the whole number allowed for the year would be shipped in one month, but no more emigrants would be allowed to leave Japan for the rest of the year. Mr. Shimeau says that his government for the winter months. that his government for the winter months of this year will place all the restrictions possible on emigration from Japan. The law as applied to the United States is as possible on emigration from Japan. The law as applied to the United States is as follows: In nine prefectures ten per month are permitted to migrate, in eleven prefectures eight per month, in thirteen prefectures five per month, and there are no extra passports allowed the immigration companies; this makes a total of 299 per month, or 3588 for the year. Mr. Shimezu, says that many inland prefectures do not contribute any immigrants, but the total number permitted to leave the country seems to have been reached by taking more from other prefectures to make up for the provinces that do not send any, of their people into the new world. Mr. Shimezu says there is no destitution among the Japanese here and that they are rapidly disappearing to somewhere. One month ago he had to provide for twelve destitute Japanese, but none since then.

Wesleyan Against "Co-eds."

y Leased Wire. MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Wednesday, June

Ry Leased Wire.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Wednesday, June 27.—The trustees of Wesleyan University have adopted regulations by which women students are limited to a number neverexceeding 20 per cent of the whole number of students; barred from all privileges that may interfere in any way with their educational interests and developments; barred from receiving degrees at commencement with male students; barred from holding class exercises in conjunction with male students; limited to assparate place in the catalogue.

Advocates of the co-educational system were all older members of the alumni, the younger members protesting against the increase of female students.

When opinions were demanded from the alumni, 3 per cent answered in favor of abolishing or minimizing the presence of women at the university. The association was then asked to produce some plan or a series of regulations. This was handed in and voted upon last night.

The chief contention of the opponents was that co-education was weakening the resources of the university. It was shown that prospective students in preparatory schools refused, as a majority, to enter a college where women were accepted in common with men. This argument was the strongest produced and had the most effect. It was pointed out that a large number of men that went to other universities and colleges would have entered Wesleyan University but for the disdain of co-education.

As the matter now stands, co-education at Wesleyan University is reduced to a much lower level than at either Columbia or Harvard University.

The regulations put into force by last night's meeting will permit about twenty and the most night's meeting will permit about twenty and the content of the order regulations put into force we never the content of the presence of the content of the produced on the produced on the content of the content of the content of the disdain of co-education.

The regulations put into force by last night's meeting will permit about twenty young women to enter next fall.
