WARM ROAST FROM PULLMAN

Faculty and Students of University of Washington Put on Griddle for Cutting Off Athletic Relations.

Claims Contract Was Reputated—Bad Faith Charged—Official Paper of State College Uses Harsh Words.

The Times Special Service. SPOKANE, Saturday, Jan. 30.—The members of the Washington sportsmen and legislators are bitterly attacked and called poor sportsmen in the official paper of the Washington State College at Pullman, which issued a concluding paragraph of an arraignment says: "And now to the faculty of our sister institution, and dependent on the public purse, and responsible for the moral as well as the mental development and growth of the state, permit such a course of repudiation and unfairness and unkindness? Oh, shame! Hide your faces!"

PACKY McFARLAND.

Those who claim to know say that McFarland is no longer able to make the lightweight limit, 135 pounds. BEWARE OF PIRATES SAYS TINKER

Scrappy Shortstop of Chicago Cubs Thinks Race for Pennant in National League Will Be Warm This Year.

He Expects Ham Hyatt to Help Pittsburg by His Slugging—Philadelphia Club Will Also Be Contender.

"We've got to beat New York, Pittsburg and Philadelphia again, and I can't think of anything else to say. All of them show signs of so much improvement that it is hard to say which is the best of the three. We will have a lovely time of it with any of them, especially if Evers stays out till June 15."

"Pittsburg will be better than last season simply because the team will work together much better, and the pitching staff is better. Philadelphia and Pittsburg are likely to come through faster than New York, for the one great reason, they have a catcher who is stronger than ever in pitching, better than any long enough to work them in and outside the diamond, but the backbone of the whole works is likely to be the pitching staff. Philadelphia is no catcher like Bresnahan to steady up the crowd. If it comes to a close fight of anything, New York will probably slip a cog just on this account."

"I can't see any team but ourselves winning the pennant. I think we have a great chance to win it. We are coming back, and all the way to the wire the race will be full of explosions and surprises."

It is said that almost all the managers have asked to hold for number one, and that while they all admit he is a great player, none of them want to take a chance on his position.

Baltimore would like to get Joe Mc Ginty. He would be a great catch in the city where he used to pitch so long ago.

Mike Doolan, Jimmy Casey, and Harry White are the Jimmy-Hydes of baseball. They put in half the year giving people pleasure and the other half giving them pain. How long? Because they play half the time and are dentists the rest of the year.

Danny Green, who used to belong to the Chicago White Sox, continues to bump the bumps. He has been released by Billy Hogan of St. Louis City and will try his hand with Topeka.

Tom Daly will be the scout of the Brooklyn club. He ought to make good, and surely needs the money.

Detroit appears to be pinning faith on a battling lemon, even though a good catcher—Stange. He hit only .197 in the Eastern League. Funny line of reasoning when Thomas, who smote .301 in last company, is turned loose and his job filled by a raw recruit who could smite only .197 in the minors.

Big Chief and Firestone, Both Owned by Tom Williams, Are Favorites for Classic.

Forsythe, and King James, from an ill-fated barn. Following is a list of the starters, weights, jockeys and probable odds:

THE Asiatic Exclusion League, at a meeting in the Labor Temple, made plans for a mass meeting to be held Sunday, February 7, at which measures will be taken to call effective public attention to the influx of Japanese into this country because of what the schoolmasters say is the lack of industry and energy among the immigrants.

ENTERING WEDGE FOR SWEEPING CHANGE.

Maj. Case has another amendment that most of the guardsmen are fighting. The amendment would give the military organizations of secret societies made a second reserve of the state and subject to the military in the event of a war.

Guardsmen declare that this is merely an attempt to give the military more changes in the guard. They claim that if Case's program was carried out the military would be able to control the state's free use of the state armories and then, soon, to bring the secret societies into the guard.
