

JAPANESE WILL GIVE BIG CONCERT TONIGHT

In an effort to raise funds for Japanese mission work, which for the past few years has been conducted successfully in this city, local Japanese interested in the work will give a concert tonight in the First Presbyterian Church.

The program consists of music, both vocal and instrumental, together with addresses by prominent Japanese. The feature of the evening's entertainment will be a series of stories by Frank N. Ashizawa, a former sergeant in the Japanese army, who has prepared some very interesting tales concerning his experiences in Manchuria during the Japanese-Russian war. The program follows:

FIRST PART.

To preside.....	Mrs. T. Takahashi
Opening address....	Miss M. Shimanuki
Quartet.....	Japanese Girls
Recitation, "Kindness".....	Master T. Takahashi
.....	Miss M. Osawa
Plano solo	Miss M. Osawa
Song, "Shintai Shi" (True Love)....	R. Hagiwo
.....	Stephen Oishy
Recitation	Japanese Girls
Quartet	K. Ishii
Address	Frank N. Ashizawa
Story of Manchuria.....	Dr. Matthews
Remarks

SECOND PART.

To preside	E. S. Morton
Sambaso	Sagamiya
Quick Motion	S. Nakamura
Harmony..Plano, Koto, Violin, Samisen
National anthems of Japan and America	Children
Handshaking by Representatives of Both Nations (Sing Friendship of Both Nations.)
Tejina	Shoshinsai Shigeta
Shibabuye	M. Sugino
Tableau Vivant.....	"Nanko-Ribetsu"
(Sing a Patriotic Song.)
Harmony—Mesdames Uyematsu and Kondo, Messrs. Ikegami and Hikita
Fencing.....	Mr. Kajita and others