MAYOR DEALS HARD BLOW TO WORKS BOARD

reatens to Dismiss Mempers Unless They Can Bring Themselves to Realize Council is Highest City Power.

APPOINTIVE BODY MUST CLIMB OFF HIGH HORSE

Its Practice in Ordering Improvements Costing More Than Amounts Voted, Causes Ultimatum From Gill

of Works can reconcile them selves to the fact that the city council is the body of greatest authority in the municipal family; there will be six wacancies in that board which the mayor will proceed to fill without undue delay.

This was the prediction made at a cetting of the finance committee of the council this morning by Mayor Hram C. Gill, and at least two members of the board, Superintendent of Bulldings Francis W. Grant and Superintendent of Water L. B. Youngs, had no difficulty in realizing that the mayor mean every word he said and that in the future the cloth of the Board of Public Works must be cut according to the pattern of the city council or not cut; at all. The controversy between the council and the Board of Works developed by reason of the demand of Superintendent Grant for an additional appropriation to finish the shops and stables on a block owned by the city for a number of years at Lander Street. For this purpose in appropriation of $15,000 was made more than a year ago, and early this year an additional $10,000 was appropriated, but either at that time or shortly afterwards the $15,000 appropriation was repealed. Grant asserts, that the Board of the $10,000 appropriation was repealed. Grant asserts, that the Board of the $10,000 appropriation was expended before it was realized that there was not sufficient money to complete the work.

Grant Makes Propositions.

thing of a gensation when he declared that Commellman-at-Large Frank P. Mullen had advised him to go ahead with the work with the $10.000 available promising that he would get more money when it was needed, but in the absence of Mullen Grant's explanation was allowed to stand, and other members of the Board of Public Works were summoned before the committee to explain other appropriations, that explain other appropriations MILITIA TO KEEP PEACE

General Lee's Niece Seeking

MRS. MARGARET LEE ZELAYA, in niced of the famous Confederate general, Robert E. Lee, and wife of Alponso Robert Lee Zelaya, son of the former President of Nicaragua, who is suing for separation and the custody of her. 2-year-old son. Santos. Young Zelaya, whose father fied to Europe when the United States threatened to take action for the death of the Americans, Groce and Cannon, in Nicaragua a few months ago, came to West Point to study five years ago and met the girl who is now his wife at a social function there.

AGAIN ATTEMPT TO GET HAZZARD LICENSE REVOKED

State Medical Board Takes Action on Appeal to Supreme Court in Case of Woman Using Starvation Methods.

POWERLESS TO PROCEED IN ANY OTHER MANNER

Regular Practicioners, However, Fully Decided That They Will "Get Rival's Scalp" if It's Possible to Do So.

N an effort to deprive Dr. Linda B. Hazzard, advocate of the "starvation Hazzard, advocate of the "starvation cure," of a physician's license, the state medical board has taken an appeal from the decision of the superior court granting Dr. Hazzard a license to practice medicine.

It was the intention of Coroner James. Snyder, after the death of L.E. Rader, manager of the Sound Pacific Land Company, a patient of Mrs. Hazzard's, to hold a post-mortem examination this morning. The fact was revealed, however, that all Rader's internal organs had been removed; making a post-mortem impossible. Dr. Snyder stated today that he is powerless, to do anything in the matter, as Dr. Hazzard had taken action before him and made it impossible, for him to determine whether or not enough evidence could be procured to warrant an investigation by a coroner's jury.

"We are powerless to take any specific action in the matter of Dr. Hazzard," said Dr. E. Weldon Young, president of the state medical board, this morning.

"We have given notice of appeal in the case recently passed upon by the superior courf, and we will do all in our

E. L. RADER ONCE WELL KNOWN IN POLITICS

JAPANESE BRIDE CANNOT

Detained at Immigration Station Because of Eye Trouble.

Prevented by the laws of the land from entering this country, Mra. Okita Masu, a pretty little Japaness woman, who came to the United States to meet her "picture husband," to whom she was wedded by proxy, is, detained at the immigration station at Smith's Cove.

the immigration station at Smith's Cove.

Airs. Masu arrived April 27 on the Awa Maru from Kobe intending to proceed to Sacramento, Cal., to join a husband she has never seen who is a contractor in that city. On examination here it was discovered that she was afflicted with trachoma, a contagious disease of the eyes, and she has been detained pending an investigation of her case.

detained pending an investigation of her case.

A petition has been sent to the secretary of commerce and listor asking that he allow her to be placed in a hospital in this country for treatment. If this consent is given and a cure is affected she will be permitted to proceed on her interrupted journey.

According to a lapanese custom, Mrs. Main and the man who is now her husband, were married when thousands of miles separated them. Among the Japanese this is a picture marriage, and is similar to a marriage by proxy in this country. She and her husband will have to be married again, according to the laws of this country before she will be allowed to live in the United States.

FAULKNER MEANT TO KILL LEWIS, NOT WIFE

The theory of the sheriff's office is that Faulkner had become possessed of a conviction that Lewis was permitted by Mrs. Faulkner to show her attentions and that Faulkner meant to kill Lewis and would have done so had not Hart interfered. It is not believed at the courthouse that Faulkner meant to kill his wife.

"When I was taking Faulkner down to Judge Gordon's court to have his peace bonds arranged," said Deputy Sheriff Luther Mills this morning, "he told me that he know a Northern Pacific brakeman who was going with his wife's chum and that as soon as he got free he would find 'out who and make short work of the man who was calling on Mrs. Faulkner. "I don't know him now, but I'll get him as soon as I get out," declared Faulkner."

When Faulkner was released from the county isil yesterday afternoon he was so excited that he had neglected to place his suspenders upon his shoulders and had, his collar buttoned on with the back to the front. When his attention had been called to this irregularity of dress, he laughed and sheep-ishly corrected his attire.

TO CENSOR CIGARS

MANILA. Friday May 13.—At the request of the Manila Tobacco Association, unanimously expressed, the collector of internal revenue has undertaken to regulate the exportation of cigars to the United States in the quality ratio agreed upon by the tobacco interests. According to the understanding, each shipment must contain high grade tobacco to a proportion of not less than 35 per cent.

Children's Society Gets Homes for Unfortunates

Some of the beneficiaries of institution.

of sometimes drunken and in-competent parents, many ragged, sahed, improperly nourished chil-have been transformed by the hington Children's Home Society, happy, laughing youngsters, such e shown in the above half-tone. At an average rate of one child a day this work is carried on, and while the task is one of altruism, several years experience has taught L. J. Covington, superintendent of the institution, that it cannot be successfully executed without considerable money. The average cost of clothing tending and caring for each of these children until they are ready

MAYOR FAWCETT CLASHES WITH COMMISSIONER

Director of Public Safety informs Chief He Intends to Handle Street Railway Tangle Without Interference.

FERN HILL CITIZENS HOLD CONFERENCE

Outcome of First Squabble in Tacoma Under Commission Form of Government Seems to Be Considerably in Doubt

ACOMA, Friday, May 13.—The first real clash under the new commis-sion plan of government is on sion plan of government is on Commissioner of Public Safety Roys has notified Mayor A. V. Fawcett that if there is any disturbance on the Fern-Hill line he will throw into jail everyone participating in it.

Upon receiving this information over the phone Mayor Fawcett asked Commissioner Roys if he was not overstepping the bounds of his office by interfering in Fern-Hill matter.

Commissioner Roys claimed that, under the charter, that was his business, and he proposed to arrest all who took part in any future Fern-Hill street railway disturbances, and that he was going to settle the five-cent fare questook part in any future Fern Hill street, railway disturbances, and that he was going to settle the five-cent fare question himself.

Mayor Fawcett says it is not the duty of Commissioner Roys to take the initiative in this matter; that as mayor of the city he will strend to that himself. Commissioner Roys, explaining his position, declares that Chief of Police Maloney notified him that a riot was imminent. The chief declined to affirm or deny this statement. This morning came the sensational feature of the whole affair, when nearly 500 residents of Fern Hill went in a body to the city hall and had a heated conference with Commissioner of Public Safety Roys. The outcome of the trouble is yet in doubt.

FIREMEN TURN STATION INTO BUSINESS BLOCK

Georgetown Man Will Not Sell Site to Seattle at What They Consider Under Valuation

Georgetown firemen will convert their station into a business block in preference (o selling it to the city at what they believe is half, its value, according to a statement made by George M. Walsh, president of the firemen's association. The lower floor will be made suitable for stores and the upper floor converted into a hall suitable for public meetings and dances. The income from the property will be placed in the treasury of the organization and will be divided among members later. In the form of dividends.

City officials declare that $7,500 is all that will be offered for the station, on which a valuation of $11,500 was placed by a committee of real estate men chosen by the volunteer department. Plans for building a station for a branch of the city fire department at that point now are under way.

A few members of the Georgetown in fire fighters company are in favor of donating the building and two lots to the city but they form a minority, and the plan advocated by Walsh probably will be carried out.

At the time the high price was set on the property the action was opposed by John Mueller. former mayor of Georgetown.

Wheat crop prospects in Washington.
Oregon and Idaho were never so bright as at present according to statements made by grain men and bankers who are constantly watching crop conditions in the Northwest

BALLINGER'S CLARK TRANSFERS COPPER PROPERTY TO AMALGAMATED

Papers in Deal to Be Signed Counsel for Gifford Pinchot Within Few Days-Butte Reduction Works and Mines Will Soon Change Hands.

MEANS END OF LONG MONTANA MINING WAR

Workings to Be Turned Over Once Cause of Most Bitter Court and Underground . Struggle in History of Industry.

day that the papers transferring former Senator W. A. Clark's copper properties to the Amalgamated Copper Company would be signed within a day two.

The properties which it is stated will be transferred consist of copper mines in Butte and the Butte Reduction Works, where the Clark ores have been treated. Part of the property included in the where the Clark ores have been treated.
Part of the property included in the deal has been the cause of one of the most bitter mining battles in the history of American mining. Senator. W. A. Clark of Montana, and F. Augustus Helinze, formerly of Butte and later of New York, were the heads of two opposing factions in the Butte mines. The struggle between Heinze and Clark in the courts was taken up and waged just as bitterly by their employes underground. A long list of deaths in the Butte mines, which at the time were attributed to "accident," are said to have really been due to the Clark-Heinze war. The ground under Butte is honey-combed by mines and when the bitter, fight was at its height scarcely a day passed when one of the opposing factions under ground did not break through the walls into the "enemy's" workings. This was the signal for a fight, it was an easy matter for one side or the other to drop a charge of dynamite down on the heads of their opponents.

"Accidents" in which from one to a half dozen men lost their lives were of daily occurrence.

New Way to Swear Off Taxes.

The best way of not paying taxes on your personal property is to swear them off. By "swearing off is meant going to the tax assessor and making a deposition that you really don't live where you seem to live, that you really don't have where you seem to live, that you really don't own what you seem to own, and that, while you appear to be very rich man, you are really overburdened with debts which you have hitherto successfully concealed. Since personal taxes began, so many ways of swearing off have been invented that the tax authorities had come to believe that there was no new tax dodge under the sun.

But the tax authorities were mistaken. A few days ago a man came to the New York tax commissioners and asked to be relieved of his personal taxes. "I have only $5,000." he said, "and that money is in city bonds and is being held in trut."

"For whom?" asked the tax commissioners. The quention was unexpected and at first there was no answer, but the tax commissioner insisted. Finally, in a stage whisper, the swearer-off explained: "The money is held in trust during his lifetime—for my dog."—Success.

EXAMINATION ENDS TODAY

Begins Series of Closing Questions in Testimony by Interior Secretary.

RESTORATION OF WATER POWER SITES AGAIN UP

Committee to Decide Whether Attorney-General Wicker-sham Shall Be Called in Per Cent Plan of Superinten-

With the prospect of being fine With the prospect of being finally excused from the witness stand during the day, Secretary Richard A. Ballinger again submitted to cross-examination by Attorney Pepper, counsel for Gifford Pinchot, at the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation today. for Gifford Pinchot, at the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation today. Pepper be-gan questioning the secretary about the restoration of water power sites with-drawn under the Garfield administration of the Interior Department. The committee will 'decide today whether Attorney General Wickersham shall be summoned to relate the conver-sation he had with Henry M. Hoyt, for-mer attorney general for Porto Rico, when the latter called the Glavis charges to his atention.

sation he had with Henry M. Hoyt, former attorney general for Porto Rico, when the latter called the Glavis charges to his atention.

Ballinger said yesterday that Hoyt had exaggerated greatly the circumstances of that interview, and Brandels, attorney for Glavis, insisted that the atorney general should be called as a witness.

In concluding his cross-examination of Secretary Ballinger, Attorney Pepper introduced a letter written by Don M. Carr, Ballinger's private secretary, and printed as an advartisement in The Montgomery Times, of Mount Ida, Ark, reading as follows:

"It is suggested that as Congress probably will make at an early date an examination of, the management of the forest service, you might with propriety procure such affidavits of the character referred to in your editorial and submit them to the committee having charge of the investigation, of which Hon. Knute Nelson, United States senator, will probably be chairman. Pepper also presented the following from the same paper:

"We would call the homesteaders' attention to the letter from the department of the interior published in the upper right hand corner of our editorial page. This letter is from an undersecretary. In addition, we have a personal letter, from Secretary Ballinger himself. You are requested to send us your affidavit in reference to irregularities charged against the forest service in our article on the first page. You need not fear that you will fail to make will guard your interests."

Uses Alcohol to Run Ships.

come to believe that there was no new tax dodge under the sun.

But the tax authorities were mistaken. A few days ago a man came to the New York tax commissioners and asked to he relieved of his personal taxes. 'I have only $5,000.' he said, 'and that money is in city bonds and is being held in trut.'

"For whom?" asked the tax commissioner asked the tax commissioner insisted. Finally, in a stage whisper, the swearer-off explained. "The money is held in trust during his lifetime—for my dog."—Success.

Of the 1,467 foreigners at the colleges of the United States, 460 hail from North America, 455 from Asia 313, from Europe, only 154 from South America, 467 foreigners at the colleges of the United States, 460 hail from North America, 455 from Asia 313, from Europe, only 154 from South America, 467 dairy cows than any other country, in the world; more horses, 23,000.

The United States has more (22,244,466) dairy cows than any other country, in the world; more horses, 23,000.

The United States has more (22,244,466) dairy cows than any other country, in the world; more horses, 23,000.

The United States has more (22,244,466) dairy cows than any other country, in the world; more horses, 23,000.

The United States has more (22,244,466) dairy cows than any other country, in the world; more horses, 23,000.

The united States has more (22,244,466) dairy cows than any other country, in the world; more horses, 23,000.

The united States has more (22,244,466) dairy cows than any other country, in the world; more horses, 23,000.

The united States has more (22,244,466) dairy cows than any other country, in the world; more horses, 23,000.

The united States has more (22,244,466) dairy cows than any other country, in the world; more horses, 23,000.

The united States has more of the important features of the function of the future of grain alcohol, will released for foreign the world in the manufacturing channels rather than to the elechol makers.

The present consumption of alcohol value of this output is about $165,000.

ST. BERNARD'S PARISH LOSES OPENING FIGHT

O'Brien Catholic Church Denied Temporary Injunction Restraining William Cochrane From Cutting Off Water

WEALTHY PIONEER SAID TO BE MOVED BY SPITE

Defendant Says Scalding Liquid Was Thrown on Him at Priest's House-Latter Faces Long Drought.

THE Rev. John Powers, priest, and the congregation of St. Bernard's Catholic parish in O'Brien, lost the preliminary skirmish this morning in their fight with William Cochrane, the wealthiest ploneer of the White River Valley, for a continuance of water service to the church and priest house, when Judge A. W. Frater in the superior court denied their application for a temporary restraining order.

Incidentally it developed that Cochrane was scalded severely about the face and neck when he attempted forcibly to enter the priest house on April 5, and further that the whole parish is in a turmoil over the issue raised by Cochrane. The break in the friendly relations with the White River rancher came, according to statements of counsel, when Cochrane attempted to fence in ground that for, a generation had been used at the church for tethering horses, thus forcing the churchogers to their teams in the open roadway. Cochrane insisted that his property was being injured, and the church contended that he had no right to deprive the congregation of its hitching place.

SCHOOL BOARD TO INCREASE SALARIES

Regard to Hoyt Incident, dent Cooper Rejected and Advances Will Be Made on Flat Basis Instead.

HIGH SCHOOL TUTORS WILL BENEFIT MOST

The amended report of Superintendent of City Schools Frank B. Cooper in regard to a schedule of salary increases for Seattle teachers, was adopted at a special meeting of the School Board yesterday afternoon, and the new schedule will take place next year.

Instead of a 'per cent increase being given, as was at first considered, and which was the basis of the first report submitted by Superintendent Cooper, the salaries will be increased on a flat basis. The first report submitted by the superintendent was sent back by the board, the reason given for this action being that present high school salaries in Seattle do not as nearly approach salaries paid in other cities where conditions are alike, as do grade teachers' salaries.

Poorly Paid Teachers Benefit.

Poorly-Paid Teachers Benefit.

Poorly-Fald Teachers Benefit.

The teachers at present who are drawing the lowest scalaries will get a larger increase than they would have if the increase had been computed on the basis of 10 per cent, but others will get less.

The high school teachers, including the heads of departments and head instructors, by the report adopted yesterday, will be given a flat increase of $10 per month. The principals of the grade schools also will get an increase of $10 per month, while grade teachers will be given $7.50 more per month than in the past. This increase will take effect next year, and the matter was settled at this time as the new teachers for the coming year are elected the latter part of this month.

Grade Teachers Dissatisfied.

Grade Teachers Dissatisfied.

Grade Teachers Dissatisfied.

Though they will say but little, there appears to be some dissatisfaction among grade school teachers on account of $2.50 more per month being allowed high school teachers by the new schedule.

"Though I am not ungrateful for what the board has done for us, I am a little disappointed." says Miss Jennette O'Rourke of the Cascade School, who was a member of the grade school teachers on the work of the salary problem and in preparing the report to be submitted to the board. "If that is all the board feels that they can give us, why that is all right, but I think we should have been given the same increase as the high school teachers, as we have to work just as hard."

75 PER CENT OF SHINGLE MILLS IN STATE CLOSED

EVERETT. Friday, May 13.—That 75 per cent of the shingle mills throughout the State of Washington are closed and promise to remain idle for an indefinite period is the report given out by B. A. Ford, secretary of the Washington State Shingle Grading Association, who returned last night from a visit through the red ceder shingle zone.

Already an appreciable stiffening in prices is reoprided as a result of the shut-down.

OLD ALASKANS ASKED TO BURY PENNILESS FOE

Los Angeles Undertakers Send Subscription List Here in Hope of Raising Capt, J. J. Healy's Funeral Expenses.

HATRED FOR PIONEER TRADER STILL STRONG

Mining Men Whose Enmity He Gained in Early Days of Klondike Hesitate to Forgive

APT. JOHN J. HEALY, an Alaska pioneer and once a well known steamboat man, must be buried, if his body ever lies in the vault selected for it at Los Angeles, by the men whom he made his enemies in Klondike rush for it at Los Angeles, by the men whom he made his enemies in Klondike rush days, and by residents of Seattle, a city that he held up to scorn in those times. Since his death, not long ago. Capt. Healy's body has lain in a Los Angeles undertaker's morgue pending efforts, so far unsuccessful, to raise £600 needed to pay burlal expenses. Subscription lists have been in circulation in Seattle, for several days, but comparatively little has been subscribed. One paper in the Arctic Club, where old-time Alaskans who knew Capt. Healy congregated, shows only a little more than $100, and it is said that comparatively little money has been raised elsewhere in, Seattle.

That Alaskans will-forget if they cannot forgive, their grievances against. Capt. Healy, and that the money for his burlal will be subscribed here, is generally believed, now that he is dead, but the old-timers want a few days in which to swallow their resentment.

Was Enemy of Seattle.

Was Enemy of Seattle.
Capt. Healy was a consistent "knocker" of Seattle during his reign as manager of the North American Trading & Transportation Company's stores in the Yukon basin. He became unpopular with thesis.

sponsible for a reign of high prices that followed.

Thought Him Bich.

Healy left the North American Trading & Transportation Company after a sensational company meeting, in Chicago, in which there was a general shake-up. He was then believed to be financially independent, and Northerner believed he had money enough to last him to the end of his life. The news that came later to the effect that Healy was a bankrupt was a shock even to Alaskans who were his enemies.

Even by Capt. Healy's enemies it is now acknowledged that he did a vast amount of work for the development of Alaska and that a tribute to his memory is owed by men who have made fortunes in the North since his time. Some of the Alaskans who refused at first to contribute to the burial fund, declare now that if necessary they will. "Chip in."

ply of gold could not have been in excess of six and one-half billion dollars.
The last thirty years has doubled this supply, and if the present production is maintained for another generation it will double again. As gold has long been the world-wide standard of value, these statistics certainly suggest that the increase in the production of this precious metal may indeed vitally affect prices.
Our dollar can never have greater purchasing power than the exchangeable value of the gold that is in it. The statement that we see everywhere in the papers that all prices are going up its a truth that could as well be expressed in these words, "the exchangeable value of gold bullion is shrinking."

National Magazine.

Early to bed and early to rise makes man healthy and wealthy and wise.

Abbey Pictures Score Success

EDWIN AUSTIN ABBEY, the artist whose two pictures, "Penn's Treaty With the Indians." and "The American Army at Valley Forge," painted for the Pennsylvania State capitol, are features of the one hundred and forty-second exhibition of the Royal Academy which is soon to open in London. The pictures have received special mention by favored artists who have been allowed to visit the exhibition before the formal opening.