

POINDEXTER MEETS REGULARS IN DEBATE

Insurgent Congressman to Join Opposing Members of Washington Delegation in Argument at Grand Opera House.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS TO STAGE BATTLE OF WORDS

Judge Thomas Burke Will Speak at Fremont Thursday or Friday Night—Wilson at Ballard Tomorrow Evening.

Congressman Miles Poinexter, insurgent candidate for senator, and the four "regular" members of the Washington delegation in Congress will meet tonight on the stage in the Grand Opera House in what is apt to be the only debate of the present campaign to all the members of the Washington delegation in Congress, has been arranged by the Young Men's Republican Club and Assistant Corporation Counsel King Dykeman, president of the club, will preside. The Young Men's club has arranged to make the meeting as impartial as possible and Thomas Burke, president of the local Poinexter Club, is a member of the committee which has the arrangements in hand.

Senators Philip Jones spoke yesterday before the Republican state convention as chairman of the temporary and permanent organizations. Congressmen Will D. Humphrey and W. W. McCredie also talked. But Poinexter was busy in another part of the state on his campaign tour and though some of his friends urged him to hurry to Tacoma in time for a convention speech, he did not do so.

Word has been conveyed to the Young Men's Club that Poinexter will keep his engagement here tonight and is expected that he will be prepared to defend himself against any criticism that may be made by the opposition members of the congressional delegation.

In all probability, Senator L. J. Jones of North Yakima will be the first to demand that a visitor should have precedence over a home senator who is a host tonight. Congressman Poinexter is expected to follow Senator Jones, and if Congressman W. W. McCredie comes to Seattle in time he will follow Mr. Poinexter. The speaker will be followed by S. H. Piles and Congressman Will D. Humphrey to close the meeting in the order named.

Wagner's band is to furnish music during the evening and probably will parade before the meeting. Many of the Young Men's Republican Club have been fearful that they would be unable to get a crowd, but the young men who have experienced in publicity work did not announce until today that the limited group had been asked to limit themselves to twenty. The arrangement is to be called to order at 8 p. m.

Officers of the Young Men's Republican Club in charge of the meeting are: Chairman, Frank B. Lippincott, Louis Sylvan, Vivian M. Carkeek, D. B. Trefethen, Thomas Murphy and James Wilson. Address a Ballard meeting of the North End Republican Club tomorrow night. Many of the speakers are to speak under the same auspices at Fremont on either Thursday or Friday of next week.

NEW INSURANCE PLAN ADOPTED FOR SCHOOLS

Board of Education Succeeds in Getting Material Reduction Over
Present Rates.

The school board yesterday decided to adopt an entirely different insurance policy for the next three years. As far as possible Seattle companies and general agencies in the city have been authorized to the insurance carried on school property, will hereafter be blanket policies, all of the policy having insurance on school properties sharing losses in case of fire. Material reductions have been made in the insurance rates covering the classes to which the school property belongs, so that the average rate for three years' school buildings will be but 97 cents. Building designated as class "B," brick structures with metal roofs, which are now at rate of $1.50, are now rated at 75 cents. Class "C," brick buildings with shingle roofs, which formerly were at $1.20 per annum, are now 85 cents. Class "D," frame structures, which were at $1.80 to $2.00, are now $1.25. The total amount of insurance that will be carried is $1,669,320, the value of the buildings being $2,792,500. The total amount of savings, valued at $1,123,180, or $200,760, making a total of $1,870,280 on local public school property.

MAYOR WANTS COUNCIL TO CUT THOMSON DOWN

Mayor Hiram C. Gill will appear before the finance committee of the city council tonight and ask that an item of $75,000 in the estimate of City Engineer R. H. Thomson be eliminated. The item is for the purchase of land and appropriations for local improvements, which the mayor says should not be included in the city estimate. Chairman Frederick Sawyer stated today that in his opinion the salaries paid heads of all departments should not exceed $300 a month, and that all should be uniform. This will mean a raise of salary for the chief of the fire department, the chief of the police department, and a reduction of $50 a month for L. B. Youngs, superintendent of the water department, and P. M. Arms, superintendent of the lighting department, now receiving $350 each.

JURY LIST MADE UP

The jury lists for 1910-1911, completed last night by Chief Clerk Oscar Springer and filed this morning with County Clerk D. K. Slicks, contain ninety-nine more names than those of the preceding year. In all, there are 8,407 citizens amenable to jury service during the next year. Compiling of new lists was rendered slow by a new law, which makes only taxpayers eligible to be called for jury duty.

Clark Springer and his assistants had to refer to the county treasurer's books before each name was entered. The next legislature will be asked to amend the present jury law by providing that a citizen must swear on registering whether he is a taxpayer.

BOTHWELL YET AFTER STATE'S FISCAL AGENT

Will Take Up Matter of Change
at New York With Acting and
Lieutenant Governor Hay
During Visit to Olympia.

CLAIMS TRUST COMPANY REFUSED TO ASSIST HIM

Concern Asks Opportunity for Hearing Before Change Is Made—Comptroller's Letter
Answering Request.

On Monday, when City Comptroller William J. Bothwell delivers $500,000 of bonds to the state of Washington, he will take up with Acting and Lieutenant Governor M. E. Hay his recommendation that the Trust Company of America be removed as fiscal agent in New York for the state of Washington.

Bothwell claims that he was not given proper consideration by this company when he went to New York to deliver $550,000 of bonds, and has asked the acting governor to contest the question of a change, which he has promised to do.

Bothwell's first complaint against the Trust Company of America was printed in The Times, and today he received a letter asking that the corporation be given a hearing before any change is made by the governor.

"If you will remember, my complaint to you after Blair & Co. had demanded the actual cash deposited, you absolutely refused to have anything to do with the matter. After talking it over with you for some time and referring to telegrams by experts to the city treasurer in regard to a certain ordinance of which you had a copy, if you will remember, I made a check against you that I would find someone else to attend to the matter, and immediately proceeded to do so."

"After making arrangements with Blodgett & Company to furnish the cash with which to make the change, you were instructed by myself to deposit with Blair & Co. $550,000 of the amount deposited with you. This you refused and neglected to do until I had bought the new issue of bonds in your office. This, in itself, would not mean much, but it seemed to me that you were trying to embarrass me and put as many obstacles in my way as it was possible to do. It was also a matter of diplomacy on my part to treat you as nicely as possible in the action while there. In my opinion, you were acting a trust, whether there is any compensation or not, is morally obligated to assist in any transaction connected with that trust."

"I enclose a letter addressed by myself to the governor of this state; also a copy of a letter which I have written in my mind, if you wish to retain the fiscal agency for the state of Washington, I am ready to have a fair hearing by the proper authorities."

ROOSEVELT RETURNS FROM WILKESBARRE

NEW YORK, Thursday, Aug. 4.—Former President Roosevelt returned to New York early today from his trip to the Adirondack region of Pennsylvania. He said he was going on to Oyster Bay. His midnight reception at the rectory was rather a quiet affair. In Wilkesbarre, which was attended by several thousand persons, was an enthusiastic affair. The president was jammed in a block car from the parish house and when Col. Roosevelt arrived he found it almost impossible to escape from the press.

Father Curran threw his arms around the colonel and hugged him and a policeman pushed him back and forth. In this fashion he at last reached the house.

DELIVERED IN NEW TELEPHONE CONTRACTS

Chamber of Commerce Advises
Subscribers Not to Accept Advance on Flat Rates Until Pending Suit Ends.

DOES NOT APPLY TO MEASURED SERVICE

Pay as You Go Plan Commended

Saver in Long Run for Business Houses.

Telephone subscribers in the city of Seattle have been advised by the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, through its committee on city affairs, to enter into any new contracts for flat rate service at advanced rates until a final hearing can be had of the suit now before the State Railway Commission for an equalization of telephone rates in the city of Seattle.

This recommendation is based upon a fact agreement between Corporation Counsel Scott Calloun, George H. Walker, counsel for the Chamber of Commerce, and the Pacific Telephone Company to the effect that the company will not insist upon a renewal of contracts at advanced flat rates, pending a final hearing of the suit before the railway commission.

This final hearing has been continued until the first of September. The committee to give counsel for both sides plenty of opportunity to familiarize themselves with reports of the physical value of the plants of the Pacific and independent telephone companies made by the engineer for the commission, and the reports to be made by experts to be employed by the city of Seattle to make an independent report on the same conditions, to be given at the final hearing of the commission's experts.

The agreement between the Pacific Telephone Company and counsel for the city and the Chamber of Commerce has the effect that the company will not insist upon a renewal of contracts on the measured rate basis which the company is endeavoring to make a contract with business firms for the flat rate service with the assurance that the measured rate service will be continued. The company will over the cost under the flat rate service.

The measured rate service has been highly commended by experts employed by Eastern cities as being the best and most economical in the long run for business houses.

YELLOW PERIL ON WANE THROUGHOUT COUNTRY

Immigration of Orientals Decreases and
United States Actually Losing Japanese.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Aug. 4.—The "yellow peril" is on the wane. The country is actually losing Japanese. The Japanese government has observed the exodus of Japanese from home. The Chinese entering during the last year have been but slightly less than the figure of the previous year, and not a third of the number which entered in 1904. But the story can best be told in figures.

The loss of Japanese has been even more pronounced. For the entire year ending with April 1, 1910, the number of Japanese immigrants was 30,824. The fact is that the United States is losing Japanese. In the ten months ending with April 1, 1910, the number of Japanese who left the country was 2,926. The loss was both in that class which comes here to work and in that class which comes here to live.

KILLS TWO BEARS WITH SHOTS FROM TOY RIFLE

Treed Camper Brings Down Mother
Bear and Cub With Bullets From Little Target Gun.

WATERVILLE, Thursday, July 4.—Tom Walling, a barber of this place, who is camping with his family on the island of the town of Waterville, has killed two bears with a toy rifle. He began to climb a tree to investigate the noise and heard a roar. A huge black bear made a rush for the tree and Walling's legs were pulled up another notch, and just as the bear began to climb, Walling let fly a bullet at the old bear, his little gun carrying only a 22-shot cartridge.

The bear ran a few yards and keeled over dead. The bullet hit her just below the shoulder and she fell on her side. A shot killed one. Later he wounded the other.

ZEPPELIN ARCTIC PARTY TO STUDY CONDITIONS

BERLIN, Thursday, Aug. 4.—Prince Henry of Prussia, who is a member of the Zeppelin preliminary Arctic expedition party now headed for Spitzbergen, has been told by the German government that the intention of the promoters to attempt to reach the pole before a full preliminary investigation has been made of the nature of the polar air currents, the possibilities of landing on the ice fields, etc., has been assembled.

It may be said the Prince, five, ten or fifteen years before the aim of the expedition is to reach the pole by the air route—will be reached. Then, too, the main object of the enterprise is scientific—not a mere pole hunt.

BURKE TO ADDRESS WHATCOM CHAUTAUQUA

Popular Choice of King County for United States Senator to Leave Friday Morning for Bellingham.

MAY DEVOTE WEEK TO NORTHWEST COUNTIES

Candidate and Friends Return
From Republican State Convention Well Pleased Over
Result of Trip.

Judge Thomas Burke, popular choice of King County for United States senator, leaves tomorrow morning for Bellingham, where he will speak before the Whatcom County Chautauqua now in session at Birch Bay. While Judge Burke plans following the Chautauqua assembly have not been completed it is probable he will devote the next week to work in the Northwest counties.

Both the senatorial candidate and his friends who attended the Republican state convention at Tacoma yesterday, returned to Seattle today well pleased over the result of Judge Burke's trip. Former Gov. Henry McGowan, Agnew, William Dudley and a number of Judge Burke's friends were in Tacoma from one to two days in advance of the convention and yesterday they were joined by nearly 400 business men of Seattle. The showing of sentiment of King County through the presence of the business men's delegation had a pronounced effect upon the convention visitors.

There is a general impression throughout the state that Judge Burke is a favorite in King County. Many of the Seattle Washington delegates have been demanding for several weeks that an elimination primary be held in King County to unite upon a single candidate. Among the convention delegates it was pretty generally understood that Judge Burke had made an offer to submit to them an offer to withdraw if he did not poll as many votes as both Wilson and Humphrey combined.

Wilson's Stand Resented.

A strong undercurrent of resentment against Wilson because of his failure to seem to make an effort to stand out through the delegations, that attended the state convention. If Wilson had anything to say for himself, he would have to stand out. He has been a strong County, that he claims away from home. The delegates argued, he could not have felt any fear about the election and had no excuse for a refusal to accept Judge Burke's challenge.

Among the delegates attending the convention Judge Burke developed an unexpected strength. All the other senatorial candidates were Judge Burke's friends. He was a question as to whether or not they will abide by the result of the September primary. Judge Burke's friends were a strong element that he will recognize the result of the primary and if defeated will not be a candidate before the Legislature.

Poinexter followers recognized Judge Burke's position as the fairest taken by any senatorial candidate, and they showed a spirit of friendliness that no one expected.

The break between Wilson and the delegates from Chehalis and Lewis Counties was generally known among those who visited the Tacoma convention. It was a question as to whether or not they will abide by the result of the September primary. Judge Burke's friends were a strong element that he will recognize the result of the primary and if defeated will not be a candidate before the Legislature.

There are a number of prominent Republicans who are opposed to Poinexter because of his insurgent leanings. Many of these lined up with Wilson because they believed him to be a strong candidate. Thrown together at the Tacoma convention these delegates compared notes freely and discovered that the Wilson movement was a failure. Positive assurance of a switch in support was given by influential delegates. All parts of the state and a big change in sentiment is expected within the next week.

Both the insurgent and regular delegates who have had any previous experience in Washington politics are realizing and admitting that the fight lies between Burke and Poinexter. The discovery that the state generally supports Burke has factored in the minds of Burke and his followers, and they will inaugurate a more vigorous campaign at home and in the Northwest immediately.

INDICTMENT FOR BRIBERY AGAINST BROWNE STANDS

Judge Kersten, Sitting in Chicago, Declines to Quash Case Against Democratic Leader.

CHICAGO, Thursday, Aug. 4.—Judge Kersten refused today to quash the indictments against Lee O'Neill Browne, Democratic minority leader of the Illinois Legislature, charging him with bribery in connection with his work for United States senator. The court deferred judgment on the testimony of Browne's counsel, that the testimony of Representative Link Meyers and Secretary of the Illinois State Board of Education, that they had voted for Lorimer, be barred from this, the second trial, of Browne. The first trial ending in a mistrial after the jury had been out 115 hours.

Judge Kersten later announced that his decision regarding the testimony of the other legislators would be rendered when the prosecution sought to put on the stand on the second trial. The first 100 veniremen appeared in court today.

ABERDEEN AND HOQUIAM MAY BUY WATER PLANT

Business Men's Committee Recommends
That Cities Join to Obtain
Supply From Mountains.

HOQUIAM, Thursday, Aug. 4.—Declaring that the construction and installation of a joint water system to be built by Hoquiam and Aberdeen, a committee of business men appointed to investigate the matter returned its report today, recommending that the two cities join in making a purchase of water from the mountains.

The committee met with a similar committee from Aberdeen.

Harry C. Heermans, who owns the Hoquiam Water Company, today refused to be interviewed and said that he had not been the one to start the holding.

The city council considers the supply of the Hoquiam Water Company inadequate and that the two cities must have mountain water at the earliest date possible.
