TEACHERS STILL MEET AT QUEEN ANNE HIGH

Thirty-Second Annual Session of King County Institute Entertained by Lectures of H. A. Adrian.

DISCOURSES ON BURBANK AT AFTERNOON SESSION

Talk on Horticultural Wizard and Wonderful Work One of Best Addresses Ever Heard in Seattle.

Contrary to the notice given out yesterday that the thirty-second annual meeting of the King County Teachers'. Institute would be held in the First Presbyterian Church instead of the Queen Anne High School, the announcement was made this morning that the institute-will continue to hold its meetings in the high school.

The feature of the session has been the lectures by H. A.; Adrian, superintendent of schools in Santa Barbara, Cal., who is reputed to be the best fécturer on the Pacific Coast. Mr. Adrian has the faculty of putting his lectures before the feachers in an instructive and at the same time humorous manner, which makes his talks very entertaining and interesting. His lecture this afternoon on "Burbank and His Wonderful Work" was one of the best lectures ever heard in this city on the famous Callfornia garden wizard.

Meetings Well Attended.

Meetings Weil Attended.
Superintendent of Schools A. S. Burrows, who has worked hard to make the thirty-second session of the institute a success, has been highly complimented on his efforts, as the meetings have been attended each day by nearly 400 teachers, all displaying a great deal of enthusiasm. Yesterday's program proved highly interesting, especially the short talk by Mr. Adrian on 'New Educational Movements' and 'Language and Composition.'

talk by Mr. Adrian on "New Educational Movements" and "Tanguage and Composition."

This morning's session was opened with an invocation by Rev. De Witt Franklin. An illustrated lecture on Hawaii by Mrs. Headlee was the feature of the morning session. L. R. Trayer, superintendent of the Brighton schools, gave an interesting lecture on "The Organization of the Rural School."

A femporary organization of principals of all county schools consisting of two or more rooms was formed this morning with A. R. Terpenning president and H. M. Wallace secretary. A cumitize on by-laws and constitution consisting of A. W. Bush. H. H. Broad and W. D. Simonds was appointed, with A. S. Burrows an ex-officio member. A meeting will be held on the last Saturday in September to complete the organization and take up matters pertaining to grammar schools. The session will conclude tomorrow with the following program.

INSURGENTS DENY SPLIT The published account of a split in the insurgent ranks brought about through the refusal of Miles Poindexter, insurgent candidate for United States Senator to introduce Thomas P. Revelle, insurgent candidate for Congress from the First District, at the graduation exercises of the Acme Business College, brings, forth, statements, from Thomas Murphine, secretary of the Poindexter Club. U. S. Elkenberry, president of, the business college, and Revelle himself. Murphine states that while Poindexter is backing no particular insurgent candidate, for Congress from the First District, he has the highest regard for, and confidence in Revelle. Elkenberry says that in view of the fact that the school demonstration at its exercises, he thought it best to introduce both Poindexter and Revelle, himself, although, he adds, Poindexter did not refuse to introduce Reveile. Revelle says there has been no split between Poindexter, State Senator James W. Bryan, nor any other party concerning his candidacy.

Harry Lewis Hackett waived his pre-liminary hearing this afternoon and was bound over in $2,000 bonds to the September federal grand jury. Frank B. Wiestling appeared as his attorney.

Wiestling appeared as his attorney.

Harry Lewis Hackett, a John L. Wilson worker, and campaign manager for Frank Weistling, candidate for prosecuting attorney, who was arrested last Saturday charged with impersonating asceret service officer, is on trial this afternoon before United States Commissioner W. D. Totten in the federal court building.

The government admits a strong case against Hackett and letters which are in the possession of Secret Service Agent Thomas B. Foster written by Hackett to Washington, D. C., relative to the political campaign of Wilson and Weistling, will be introduced in evidence at the trial today.

Weistling has been spreading the report about the city that the prisoner is unsound of mind and not responsible. Weistling took a physician to the county sail after the fake detective was arrested. In an effort to have the medico test the sanity of Hackett. Billy Mehegan, who was victimized with a number of other persons about the city by Hackett and his gang, will appear as witnesses against the prisoner this afternoon.

MAYOR FINDS ERROR IN ENGROSSED BILL

Municipal Light Plant" Substituted for "Water Supply System"-To Be . Corrected.

Mayor Hiram C. Gill yesterday discovered that a blunder had been made by the council in passing a bill at the adjourned meeting of the city council Tuesday night, submitting to the electors on November 8 the issuance of 31,400,000 bonds for the construction of a dam on Cédar River and for the extension of the municipal light plant. The bill was introduced on August 22, by title, calling for the specifications and adoption of a system or plan for enlarging and extending the existing water supply system. When the bill was filled out, passed by the council and properly engrossed it was discovered that the words "municipal light plant" had been substituted for "water supply system." In the opinion of Mayor Gill, as well as Corporation Counsel Scott Calboun, this change might endanger the validity of the bond issue if authorized, and it was decided today to introduce a new bill Monday night, incorporating both the water and light extensions in the proposal. Inasmuch as this issue comes under the head of publication, there is sufficient time to pass and approve the new measure between now and the general election on November 8.

POLICE BREAK RECORDS IN NUMBER OF ARRESTS

Mames Grace Station Registers for Month August.

The month of August 1910, establishes a record for the number of arrests by the police department of the city of Seattle, a total of 1,542 names having been listed on the book of prisoners received at headquarters. The largest month's record previous to; August was that of May of this year, when 1,540 arrests were made. The ball money of the prisoners, too, went far ahead of any month's record. It showed a total of 314,150 handled by the desk sergeants as compared to $10,960 during the month of May.

YOUNG ALPHA HAYES TO LEAVE NEBRASKA JAIL

Eighteen-Year-Old Rusband of Helen Swanson Hayes to Stand Trial Here for Deserting Wife.

Alpha Hayes, the 18-year-old husband of Helen Swanson Hayes, will be released today by the Ord, Neb. authorities at the request of Prosecuting Attorney George F. Vanderveer and will voluntarily return to Seattle for trial on the charge of wife desertion. J. C. Hayes, father of the young man, put up a personal bond for the appearance of his son in the King County court. Young Hayes and Miss Swanson, then 17 years old eloped to British Columbia last September: and were married, over the objection of the parents of each. Upon the return of the couple to Seattle, Hayes' father set him up in a Third Avenue restaurant but; it is alleged by the elder Hayes, bitter quarrels between the two rendered the young man-unfit for business and Hayes, on his father's advice went back to Nebraska. Mrs. Hayes' relatives immediately began a criminal action for wife desertion and Hayes was arrested.

A divorce suit, coupled with a property settlement, is expected this fall to end further controversy and to causa abandonment of the criminal prosecution.

politics discounts the Poindexter sentiment and is disgusted with the direct primary.

Mr. Hezzard, who is a resident of Tacoma and has been during all the turbulent political times of the state was in Seattle today. There never was a time since he cern to Washington when George Hazzard was not busy touring the state, picking up political information and talking of political prospects. And in those years of close study Hazzard has picked up a better fund of information than almost any other man who has followed political events here during the past twenty-five years.

"The Republican senatorial contest lies between Judge Thomas Burke and Gen. J. M. Ashton, of Tacoma, declared-Mr. Hazzard loyally this morning. This Poindexter strength is vastily overestimated. I have talked with hundreds of men who tell me that Poindexter is going to win, but when I ask them if they are going to vote for Poindexter they say they are not—it is always the other fellow who will do the voting.

"Every Democratic organization in the state is making an effort to keep Democrats within their own party and the percentage of Democrats who take part in the Republican primaries will be comparatively small. A Democrat has no business anywhere but in the Democratic party and most of the Democratic party and most of the Democrat realize this.

"I believe that the next President will be a Democrat, probably Judson Harmon, of Ohlo. We are on the eve of a return to sanity in this country. The people are tired of wild-cyed agitation and its consequent demoralization of business man and laboring man.

Predicts Boosevelv's Doom.

Predicts Boosevelt's Doom.

Theodore Roosevelt in ally has gone to ridiculous extremes and is wilder in his attacks on the supreme court and some of his new doctrines than the Populists ever were. Roosevelt's nomination, if made by the Republicans, would mean a big Democratic victory. But the Democrats are going to win anyway, for the country, as a whole wants to escape from this continuous agitation that leads nowhere. We want an era of constructive statesmanship.

"It is my belief that the direct primary, at least insofar as it refers to the election of United States senators, is doomed. It is indefensible and unpopular. It puts too high a premium upon newspaper publicity and the use of money. Within a short time we will begin in this state to follow the constitution again."

MIXED MARRIAGES OPPOSED BY JUDGE

Wilson R. Gay Emphatically Declares He Would Not Perform Ceremony Uniting White Girl to Jap.

EXPERIENCE SHOWS FOLLY OF MATCHES

"White girls should not marry Orientals: I would not perform such a ceremony, and it seems to me that the experiences our young women have had with Chinese and Japanese should be a warning, which evidently it is not."

With these remarks, Judge Wilson R. Gay, in the superior court this morning, granted Marle Tanisaki, a gardener on Mercer Island. The sirt complained that the Japanese treated her cruelly. A decree was also granted Belle, Atkinson from Fred Atkinson. Mrs. Lillian Rook asked the court to review the proceedings by which James A. Rook obtained a decree of divorce from her January 25, 1909. She alleges that they were married in Kansas City, July '14, 1904, and that he forced her to go to her mother in Los Angeles. October, 5, 1908, where she later, was summoned to appear in a divorce action. She answered that she would contest and says Rook told her that the proceedings had, been dropped. The complaint alleges that Mrs. Rook -returned to Seattle and lived with Rook two days, when she was told the decree had been entered and that he married another womar Aprill 15, 1909.

PRIEST ORDAINED

In the presence of many friends and co-workers, the Rev. Sidney Thomas James was ordained a priest of the Protestant Episcopal denomination by the Rt. Rev. F. W. Keator. bishop of Olympla, in St. Merk's Church this morning. Bishop Keator preached an impressive ordination sermon. The Rev. Dr. Ernest Vincent Shayler, rector of St. Mark's, acted as master of ceremonies and the Rev. Rodney J. Arney, of Kent, as presenter. Ten other clergymen assisted Bishop Keator in the laying on of hands. After the ordination the women of the parish served luncheon to the newly ordained priest and the other clergy. Mr. James is a Scattle boy and a graduate of the state university.

WEDDING SECRET LEAKS

The friends of Arthur Ziegner and Mrs. Arthur Ziegner, who, until Monday afternoon was Mrs. Tyrone M. Hower, both conducting popular booths in the public market, are preparing two little surprises for the newly-weds. The bride and groom have lived appliy these three days in the belief that nobody knows "anything about it."
