EVERY ELEMENT FAVORS ELECTION OF JUDGE BURKE

J. E. Chilberg, Paying Tribute to King County Choice, Declares Him Friend of Laboring Class.

WIDE KNOWLEDGE OF FAR EAST BIG ASSET

Business Men Unite in Endorsing Jurist as Man Best Fitted to Represent State at Nation's Capital.

JUDGE THOMAS BURKE is the choice for senator of J. E. Chilberg, former president of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition.

"I have known Judge Burke for many years," says Mr. Chilberg, "and I felt when he consented to enter this contest that Seattle and the whole state of Washington were to be congratulated on having such a fair, capable and thoroughly posted man as a candidate.

"I consider it will be one of the greatest commercial errors in the history of the state of Washington if the voters fail to elect Judge Burke.

"There is no man, to my mind, better qualified to represent us. His long residence in Seattle has made him thoroughly familiar with our needs; his ability as an orator and his forceful, straightforward and honorable methods would be an influence towards bringing our city and state the many improvements they need and the position they deserve in the eyes of the world.

"It has been said by Judge Burke's opponents that he is not the proper candidate for the laboring man. I have talked to a great many laboring men and skilled mechanics about this election and they have practically all said they were in favor of Judge Burke and would vote for him.

"Some of these men have lived in Seattle a long time and cited instances where Judge Burke has shown how absolutely fair he was towards the laboring classes, and they said it was the best policy for the laboring man, as well as the business man, to trust their interests to a man like Judge Burke, whose career in Seattle and whose whole life have shown him on the side of the man who was right, no matter what class that man belonged to."

Edward I. Garrett.

"I am for Judge Burke. His long residence here has given him an exact knowledge of the needs of the city and state. Time and again he has demonstrated his ability in an executive capacity. He has the confidence of the larger portion of the community, and he possesses the qualifications that would make him by far the most efficient representative the state could select for Washington City."

Horace G. Hardy.

"People seldom have an opportunity to send to the United States Senate a man of Judge Burke's character and fitness. That is the reason I am supporting him."

Lester W. Lewis.

"In my opinion, Judge Burke is the most capable man for the position. He is a man whose conspicuous labors for Seattle, the state of Washington and the entire Pacific Coast entitle him to a reward such as we now have the opportunity to offer him. It seems to me that we would only be doing right to give him the senatorship; in brief, he deserves it, and we owe it to him. In particular, his thorough acquaintance with the situation in the Far East gives him an exact knowledge that would be helpful, and in my judgment would enable him to do more for us than any other man we might name."

Frank P. Allen, Jr.

"I know Judge Burke and I like him. Therefore I am supporting him for the United States Senate."

James Bothwell.

"I will vote for Judge Burke. I think he is the proper man."

E. B. Burwell.

"It is my belief that Judge Burke is the man who will stand for the interests of Seattle and the entire Northwest, based on the record he has made in the past. He is a clean, strong man—one whom we would be proud to have represent us."

E. C. Neufelder.

"I shall vote for Judge Burke."

Dr. E. Weldon Young.

"I will support Judge Burke because I think he is the best man for the place. He is experienced in the needs of the West Coast; and he has been in the Orient and has become acquainted with our needs over there. He possesses native ability, and in every respect is qualified for the senatorship."

Fred E. Sander.

"While I can subscribe to all of the splendid arguments advanced by The Times in the support of the candidacy of Judge Burke for the Senate, there is one reason which to my mind outweighs all others and should be conclusive to thinking voters.

"Without reflecting upon either of the two present senators from the state, I want to say that I think Washington deserves to have as her new senator a man who will advertise the state adequately to the East—a man who will combine business and professional success with a wide acquaintance, ripe learning, brilliant eloquence and broad, deep personality. Judge Burke fills these requirements better than any man I know. He is ideally fitted for the honor, deserves it at the hands of fellow citizens, and would soon rise to the national prominence of men like Nelson of Minnesota, Dolliver of Iowa, Beveridge of Indiana, Burton of Ohio, and La Follette of Wisconsin, who, whether we agree with their views or not, are undeniably men of national character.

"Personally, I take such a pride in the state of Washington that I want Eastern people to know what we have out here. A good speaker on the floor of the Senate, a man fitted by experience and temperament to become a national senator, would do the commonwealth a world of good."

HUSBAND'S AFFECTIONS GIVEN $750 VALUATION

Eloping Bride Sues Mother-in-Law for $25,000 for Alienation; Judge Thinks Damage Not So Great.

Mrs. Pearl McGovern was yesterday afternoon given a judgment for $750 against Mrs. Katherine McGovern by Judge Boyd J. Tallman in the superior court. She sued for $25,000, alleging that she had been deprived of the affections of her husband, John F. McGovern, Jr., by the actions of the young man's parents.

Judge Tallman ruled that McGovern, Sr., had nothing to do with the separation of the young people and directed that the judgment should be entered against Mrs. Katherine McGovern alone. The McGoverns eloped to Tacoma and were married in October, 1905. After living together in this city for some time young McGovern returned to his parents and the wife went to hers. McGovern claimed that he was not of age when the ceremony was performed and his mother sought to have the marriage annulled; but her request was refused by Judge John F. Main.

MORE BOYS THAN GIRLS ENTER BROADWAY HIGH

Males Enrolling From Grammar Schools Outnumber Females First Time in Many Years.

According to the enrollment statistics at Broadway High School, fewer girls than boys, for the first time in some years, entered high school from the grammar schools yesterday. In previous years the girls continuing their education and entering from grammar schools have outnumbered the boys, but this year at Broadway 127 boys entered as against ninety-seven girls. Principal Geiger cannot assign any reason for the unusual incident at his school.

Last year 1,387 pupils enrolled on opening day, while yesterday the enrollment figures were boosted by exactly ninety-eight, 1,485 pupils enrolling.

JAP "SLAVERS" HELD

Charged with violations of the interstate commerce act in bringing into this state Japanese women from San Francisco and Portland, Katsugora Asaba and Kennesuke Nakano were committed to the county jail in bonds of $5,000 each by United States Commissioner W. D. Totten yesterday. The charges were preferred by the local branch of the immigration department and the prosecution is the first in this district since the passage of the new amendment to the interstate commerce act.

There Are Reasons

Why so many people have ready-at-hand a package of

Post Toasties

The DISTINCTIVE FLAVOUR delights the palate.

The quick, easy serving, right from the package—requiring only the addition of cream or good milk is an important consideration when breakfast must be ready "on time."

The sweet, crisp food is universally liked by children, and is a great help to Mothers who must give to the youngsters something wholesome that they relish.

The economical feature appeals to every one—particularly those who wish to keep living expenses within a limit.

Post Toasties are especially pleasing served with fresh sliced peaches.

COAST DELEGATES, BOUND TO ORIENT, REACH HONOLULU

E. F. Blaine, One of Seattle's Representatives, Writes The Times Regarding Organization of Commission.

QUEEN CITY HONORED IN COMMITTEE PLACES

Voyage Out From San Francisco Over Peaceful Seas—Members of Party Studying Up on Chinese Lore.

By E. F. BLAINE.

IT is probable that when Balboa first saw the ocean—which it pleased him to call Pacific—it was as calm as it has been since we entered it at the bar of the Golden Gate.

"Perfect weather," is the expression that falls from the lips of the visitors and their attractive and congenial wives. The personnel of the delegates of the Pacific Coast Chambers of Commerce is par excellence; not that any of the commissioners are brilliant men, but by reason of the fact that each of the members stands for something of merit.

Ranged along the decks of the good ship Korea, in comfortable steamer chairs—which a bland son of the Flowery Kingdom has rented at one dollar per—are the commissioners, books in hand. Upon the covers of these books one can plainly read such titles as: "Village Life in China," "Chinese Characteristics," "One Hundred Years of Oriental Diplomacy," "The Chinese," "The Sayings of Confucius," "Railway Enterprise in China," "The Transformation of China," and last, but not least, "Indiscreet Letters From Peking."

I see no way of the commissioners, ten days hence, escaping the conclusion that they are full-fledged scholars of all that appertains to the Chinese empire; and the advice they will be able to give the literati of China will be valuable indeed.

Nearing Honolulu.

I am deeply impressed with the earnestness of the commissioners, and it is probable that this factor will make itself effective in China, just as it made the commissioners effective in their different lines at home.

We expect to arrive in beautiful Honolulu tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock. The wireless has acquainted us with the program of entertainment there to be accorded us.

We take automobiles to the Pali Aquarium, and in all probability to the picnic grove in the direction of Pearl Harbor. We will visit Bishop's Museum and there see the feather robes which at one time adorned the nobility of the Hawaiian Islands, the regalia of the funeral procession, and many other things bespeaking the former characteristics of a decadent and fast disappearing race; teaching us that civilization in some of its features is cruel.

Here is the plan under which the commissioners have been organized and the list of officers and committees that have been selected:

President, Willis H. Booth, Los Angeles; vice-president, William L. Gerstle, San Francisco; second vice-president, C. Herbert Moore, Spokane; treasurer, O. M. Clark, Portland; secretary, Charles V. Bennett; assistant secretary, C. H. Tribe; historians, Charles K. Field, chairman; L. R. Freeman, San Diego; W. H. Dickson, Tacoma.

List of Committees.

Executive committee, C. H. Hyde, Tacoma, chairman; Robert Dollar, San Francisco; Jacob Furth, Seattle; C. Herbert Moore, Spokane; O. M. Clark, Portland; W. H. Weilbye, Oakland; E. S. Moulton, Los Angeles; George Burnham, San Diego; E. C. Brown, Honolulu. Program and entertainment, Richard M. Hotaling, San Francisco, chairman; C. Herbert Moore, Spokane; George Burnham, San Diego. Finance, Jacob Furth, Seattle, chairman; L. R. Manning, Tacoma; E. S. Moulton, Los Angeles. Publicity and censorship, E. F. Blaine, Seattle, chairman; Robert Dollar, San Francisco; W. H. Weilbye, Oakland; William F. Knight, San Diego; Fred L. Waldron, Honolulu. Resolutions and reports, E. P. Bosbyshell, Los Angeles, chairman; William Pigott, Seattle; William L. Gerstle, San Francisco. Trade and commerce, S. R. Stern, Spokane, chairman; George Burnham, San Diego; E. S. Moulton, Los Angeles; Robert Dollar, San Francisco; William Pigott, Seattle; O. M. Clark, Portland. Educational and civic affairs, W. H. Dickson, Tacoma, chairman; William F. Knight, San Diego; John H. Shaw, Spokane. Hotel accommodations and travel, E. A. Young, Oakland, chairman; E. P. Bosbyshell, Los Angeles; O. M. Clark, Portland.

The places that have been allotted the commissioners chosen by the Seattle Chamber of Commerce are satisfactory to them, for they will have an opportunity for earnest work, and that is the kind of work that always receives its reward.

BURKE URGES NEED OF WEST SIDE SENATOR

Tells Big Audience in Georgetown How Local Interests Can Best Be Served by Man From This Section.

CITES DUWAMISH RIVER AS STRIKING EXAMPLE

Speaking at Georgetown last night to an audience that filled Ward's Hall, Judge Thomas Burke declared that the election of a Western Washington candidate for United States senator is essential to the development of this part of the state.

Judge Burke applied his argument to the Duwamish River project, insisting that a senator familiar with that enterprise and earnestly favoring that work would accomplish far more than an Eastern Washington man whose interests were as far removed from local harbor improvements as those of a senator from the Middle West.

Judge Burke declared he had consistently favored every project intended to develop Seattle harbor and warmly indorsed the Duwamish plans. He insisted that it was necessary to elect representatives having at heart the interests of Western Washington and familiar with the improvement projects of the Coast.

Judge Burke called attention to the fact that the Panama canal would be completed within the term of the senator to be elected this fall and declared that a representative of the district most vitally concerned in the new traffic conditions was essential to the state's future welfare.

Attention was called by Judge Burke to the fact that Antwerp had increased its waterfront mileage from thirteen to thirty-seven miles and now ranked first in the world's list of maritime ports. Judge Burke declared that Seattle by similar measures could take first rank on the Pacific Coast and that congressional aid, intelligently given, would be the most important step in that direction.

Speaking of the charges that he favored Oriental immigration to this country, Judge Burke declared that there was no foundation for these claims. He insisted that China and Japan needed or should need their own labor at home, and Judge Burek pointed out districts in China where greater development possibilities existed than could exist for Chinese in this country.

Judge Burke strongly advocated close commercial relations with Asiatic countries for the enlargement of American trade. He declared that America could find a foreign market for its products without being compelled to give an entrance to foreign labor. As a development plan for Seattle he urged that better trade relations be established and maintained, but that the doors be locked against any influx of cheap labor.

Judge Burke detailed the circumstances of his connection with railroad corporations and showed that most of his life in Seattle had been devoted to fighting one railroad corporation that threatened to wipe out the city commercially. Judge Burke declared that throughout his career he had always insisted upon taking the side of the city in all railroad affairs.

AUTO TURNS TURTLE

OGDEN, Utah., Wednesday, Sept. 7.—William S. Lockhead of this city received injuries yesterday afternoon in an automobile accident which resulted in his death. The car turned turtle when a front wheel broke, burying Lockhead beneath it. W. E. Sanderson was thrown twenty feet and escaped with slight injuries. J. G. Jensen, who was driving, was not injured.

RULING ON HOLIDAYS

SAN FRANCISCO, Wednesday, Sept. 7.—Under a ruling by the state supreme court made yesterday it is illegal to hold a meeting of the board of directors of a corporation on the day following a holiday when the regular meeting day of the board, according to the by-laws, should occur on the holiday. The decision was made in the case of B. P. Cheney against the Mexican Petroleum Company involving the sale of 41,666 shares of stock in the corporation.

GRAFT IN COCAINE

BALTIMORE, Md., Wednesday, Sept. 7.—Governor Crothers, who is making a personal investigation of the Baltimore police department, created a sensation at yesterday's hearing when he declared that he would prove "graft" in connection with the sale of cocaine, running in one case to $10,000. The governor declared that he expected to prove that one drug store in the city did a cocaine business amounting to $900 a week while another did at least twice that much.
