

The Daily Times Times Printing Company of Seattle Alden J. Blethen, President and Editor-in-Chief JOSEPH BLETHEN, Vice-President and Manager...

POINDEXTER FAVORS ORIENTAL LABOR. ALL THE EMPLOYEES in the shingle mills of Washington ought to keep their eyes on the Senatorial election...

JOHN F. MURPHY FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.

THE BANNER OF JOHN F. MURPHY in the race for the Republican nomination for Prosecuting Attorney of King County is apparently the logical one...

SECOND CHOICE FOR CONGRESS.

AN IMPORTANT CONSIDERATION under the direct primary law is that the second-choice provision applied to candidates for the nomination of Congressmen...

AN IDEAL CANDIDATE.

THE ABSENCE of clearly defined national issues makes this campaign one of the strangest of an off year since the settlement of the war.

'Mother' in New York.

The Times Bureau, Herald Square, New York, Sept. 10. WITH mother love, as a theme and "Mother" as the title, a new play by Julia Robert Goldman...

Roland to Wed Princess.

Paris, Saturday, Sept. 10. Edmond Roland's eldest son, Maurice, is to be married to the Princess Geraldine de Rohan, whose family is among the most exclusive of the French aristocracy.

The Great John Canton.

Final rehearsals for "The Great John Canton" will be held at the University Theatre at 10:30 p. m. this evening.

Old Play at Alhambra.

Reveries of good old plays that were written many years ago are popular in the theatre and many of them are being revived...

Ladies Day at Washington.

Ladies' day at the Washington Theatre at First and Columbia is the latest to be sprung by the management...

Dramatic Film at Bahbit.

Name of Cannon is subject to change, according to the program, which will be a feature picture picture which will head the exhibit...

'Imp' Drama at Dream.

The best bet at the Dream Theatre next Monday, when the program consists of two laughers, is the "Imp" drama which will get straight to the heart and bring a mixture of tears and smiles...

New Soprano for Lyceum.

A story that has the right tone aptly described the new soprano who will be added to the Lyceum Theatre...

Circuit's Top Program.

There's an all-star bill of motion pictures and musical acts booked for the Circuit Theatre tomorrow. Each picture will be shown on the screen in its entirety...

Daily Magazine Features

BRIGHTSIDE AND HIS BOY "How to Stop Girls Flirting," Their Latest Tabloid Sketch

SEEMS strange that any employer should advertise for an ugly cashier," mused Brightside, when his boy had just finished the sketch...

COMIC COMMENTS

By BEAU BROADWAY

COUMBERS are being cut down in the bloom of their youth by a new and mysterious malady. Formerly they were cut up in their youth or left to become dull pickles in their advanced years...

JUST IMAGINE THIS

By WILLIAM F. KIRK

ONCE in a while Ella Wheeler Wilcox comes to town. She writes only for you readers and the "Edith Thought" when she comes to town the editor will tell him of the mistakes he has made...

LITTLE BOBBIE'S PA

By WILLIAM F. KIRK

IF I got up a baseball team the other day, he was going to play a team which was got up by Billy Wood of the Broadway theater...

Population of Seattle 311,593. (Folk's Directory Estimate for 1910.) THE WEATHER. Clear tonight and Sunday; light westerly winds.

TIDES AT SEATTLE TOMORROW. First low water, 4:01 a. m., 3.4 ft. First high water, 12:23 p. m., 11.7 ft.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT. Orpheum-Advanced Vaudeville. Maestri-Vaudeville.

Among the judges of election chosen by the County Commissioners are the names of ten men who months ago were called to their last reward.

"There did you get it?" demanded Warden Meyer at Atlanta penitentiary of Banker Charles W. Morse, who had $11,000 for which he declined to answer.

According to the school census, the State of Washington now has a population slightly in excess of "1,000,000."

If Henry George were in Seattle to apply the principles underlying his "Progress and Poverty," he probably would offer no objection to the unimproved land in the city paying its proportion of a tax for the removal of garbage.

The "platform" adopted by the Conservation Congress in St. Paul reads very much like those which they adopt at the conventions of the national political parties.

A recent editorial in The Portland Oregonian on the Senatorial situation in Washington gives high praise to John L. Wilson for his action in withdrawing in favor of Judge Burke.

American tourists from Europe, anxious to escape the customs official at New York, have hit upon the dodge of returning home by way of Montreal and Quebec.

For the sake of argument, assume that Poindexter has been elected to the Senate. What would he do? There is a Republican majority that will remain unchanged for four years.

The Consul of the United States at Havre, France, is unwilling to believe that the reports of the French government upon the increased cost of living are really true.

It is pleasant also for the women of Washington to remember that Mrs. Burke is a leader among women and prominent in social and benevolent work.

THE young doctor had just completed his calls for the day. "And has my little wife been lonely?" he asked, entering his newly-made home.

To-Day's Best Story. THE young doctor had just completed his calls for the day. "And has my little wife been lonely?" he asked, entering his newly-made home.