bank called on Gill and demanded that he close three gambling houses operating near the Japanese quarter. Shinku declared that he had failed to get any satisfaction. He insisted that the Japanese were squandering their earnings in the gambling halls, and he wanted the places closed.

"I am not mayor and I have no moral right to interfere with Mayor Miller's administration," Gill said, in effect, protesting against taking any action, and merely here to sign ordinances and perform the routine work of the mayor's office during his absence. He attempted to take any radical action I will disarrange Mayor Miller's whole policy and may cause a split.

Gambling House Closed. Attorney Shank declared that he had talked with Miller and that unless Gill acted he would appear in the newspapers for aid. Gill asked a witness to delay until Miller returned or to get him by telegraph.

A few days later Shank returned with a diagram of the Japanese quarter with the open gambling houses carefully marked. He served an ultimatum on Gill that unless the places were closed he would expose Miller through the newspapers. Then Gill carried the ultimatum to Capt. John Sullivan, acting chief, and ordered him to close the houses at once. Sullivan demurred, but obeyed. Later it was reported that Miller's return the games were reopened.

GILL'S ENEMY TRIES TO PREVENT REGISTRATION

Another instance of bulldozing methods employed by registration clerks in the precincts of King County during the precinct registrations came to light today when Francis A. Colton, a property owner, and a well known and skilled cooper, told of efforts made by Lee Morgan, in charge of precinct registration in that district, to prevent Colton and his wife from qualifying as voters in the election to be held next Tuesday.

LADIES OF G. A. R. NOT DELIVERED TO DILLING

"Mrs. J. D. Houghton has no authority whatever to represent the ladies of the G. A. R. on the Dilling committee. She may vote for Mr. Dilling if she prefers, but in no sense is she to be regarded as representing the Ladies of the G. A. R., Department of Washington Territory, in any way."

DECISIONS AFFIRMED

OLYMPIA, Tuesday, Jan. 31.—The supreme court today confirmed two decisions of the Pierce County Board of Supervisors. One was the case wherein Ida M. Pease and her husband were given judgment to dissolve their marriage and the other approval was a court decree in the case of A. Z. Smith against J. D. Houghton to represent the members of the organization.

CITY LIGHTING PLANT SHOWS GOOD PROFIT

That Richard M. Arms has not departed the city lighting department nor turned its business over to the Seattle Electric Company, as charged by the recall petitioners, was made known by an announcement from the city treasurer today. The city lighting plant for the month of January, 1911, shows a profit of 23.51 per cent for the month of January. This does not include a charge of $14,400 against the city for the cost of lighting which should be included in the total receipts of the department.

DILLING SUPPORTERS SHOCK DECENT WOMEN

Imbued with all the instincts of the arrant blackguard and none of the qualifications of gentlemen, three men on a Green Lake car yesterday afternoon caused the embarrassment of a party of decent women who were riding with them.

Nichols Bill Secures Favorable Consideration in Senate With Majority Report to Become Law.

FINAL PASSAGE INVITES ATTACK

Bassett Declares Proposed Law Step Backward and Points Out Insurance Department as Instance.

Senator Bassett Protests

Senator Bassett declared the proposed law a step backward, that modern life was toward the future and that it would combine harmonious work into offices already charged with much of the work of the present. He pointed out the plan to make the insurance department a branch of the city chamber of commerce, which has been tried out for years and has proved satisfactory and had been changed to a department of the city government.

MILLER'S BILL GIVES KING ONE CONGRESSMAN. OLYMPIA, Tuesday, Jan. 31.—Miller's bill, which would give King County one congressional apportionment bill in the House yesterday, which is designed to take the place of the bill introduced by Senator King several days ago. Practically the only difference of any importance is that the Miller bill gives King County one representative in Congress instead of giving the city of Seattle one member and placing the remainder of King County in the district with the Northwest, as it provided in the measure proposed by the King County representative.

COMPROMISE EFFECTED ON WENATCHEE BRIDGE. OLYMPIA, Tuesday, Jan. 31.—The House has passed the resolution authorizing the highway commission to make a compromise on the purchase of the Wenatchee bridge, which the state will pay $55,000 on the price fixed in the original bill passed two years ago. This ends the controversy over this matter. The Senate passed the resolution several days ago as it is known.

SEIZED BEEF SHOWS FORMALDEHYDE USED. Five Japanese Restaurant Keepers Placed Under Arrest by Pure Food Commissioners. Forty carcasses of beef, or a total of 15,250 pounds, on cold storage since the purchase of the beef, were analyzed by Deputy State Pure Food Commissioners W. H. Adams and George S. Miller. The analysis showed that formaldehyde had been used in its preservation. This disclosure was followed by complaints issued by the Seattle body for its efforts recently in behalf of the high line irrigation canal in Kittitas County.

INVESTIGATION ASKED. BREMERTON, Tuesday, Jan. 31.—The Navy Yard Bay Commercial Club has invited Lieut.-Gov. M. E. Hay, other state officials and members of the Legislature to make an investigation of the Washington Veterans' Home at Port Orchard next Saturday. SAVED FROM AN OPERATION. By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies have done for me. For two years I suffered. The doctor said I had typhoid, and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation, and your Sanative Wash relieved me. Your Liver Pills have no equal as a cathartic. Any one wishing proof of what your medicines have done for me can get it from any drug store or by writing to me. You can read my testimonial in any way you wish and I will be glad to answer letters."—MRS. CHRISTINA REED, 105 Mount St., Peoria, Ill.

Another Operation Avoided. New Orleans, La.—"For years I suffered from severe female troubles. Finally I was confined to my bed and the doctor said an operation was necessary. I gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial first, and was saved from an operation."—Mrs. L. E. PERRY, 1111 Kerleree St., New Orleans, La.
