TRIO SEEKING OFFICE TO HEAD YOUNG MEN

James A. Dougan, Will T. Laube and D. B. Trefethen Candidates for Presidency of Republican Club.

ONE ONLY IN CONTEST FOR SECRETARY'S JOB

King Dykeman, Now on Superior Court Bench, Will Not Be Aspirant to Succeed Himself This Year.

James A. Dougan, of West Seattle, W. T. Laube, scenetary of the state Senate during the past three sessions and assistant secretary in 1905, and D. B. Trefethen, former chairman of the King County Republican committee, are caudidates for president of the King County Young Men's Republican Club, which will elect officers at a meeting to be held in Arcade Hall tonight. Thus far W. K. Sickles is the only candidate suggested for secretary and few contests have been reported for ward and district committeemen.

King Dykeman, whom Lieut-Gov. M. E. Hay appointed a superior court judge, is the retiring president of the club and is not an applicant to succeed himself. Dykeman, probably, would not have been an active candidate for president last year but for representations made to him that he was the only man that could harmonize different factions in the organization.

After Dykeman became a candidate for president last year but for representations in the organization.

After Dykeman became a candidate for president last year but for representations in the organization.

After Dykeman became a candidate for president last year members of the club conceived the plan of stirring up interest by making a Wilson-Burke campalary for the presidency. It was refethen would be a candidate to represent the Wilson interests and Dykeman would retire. Tennant that Dan Trefethen would be a candidate to represent the Wilson interests and Dykeman would retire. Tennant hailed the announcement with great glee, declaring he wanted to bounce a figurative brick off the Trefethen head, and entered into the contest with avidity and other spolls of war.

No Bricks for Trefethen.

After the Tennant boomlet had been reed loose it was discovered that no rangements had been made for with-awing Dykeman, the "harmony" can-late. So Trefethen did not come out to the opening for the brick-bouncing reformance.

into the opening for the brick-bouncing performance.

Tennant went into the last contest, held in the Rathskeller of the Washington Hotel, knowing that the Wilson forces had joined with those who wanted a nonpartisan president and that Dykeman represented every phase of opposition from the pro-Wilson and anti-Burke element to the harmony crowd. However, Tennant spurned the suggestion that the two candidates were without significance and announced that he had entered the fight as a Burke candidate; was still a Burke supporter and willing to be defeated on that score hecause of the unfair advantage taken in aligning opposition to him. Promptly thereafter, though, Tennant joined the "Never Again Club" and will not venture into the controversy tonight.

FENDERS INVESTIGATED IN DEATH OF INFANT

Searching Inquiry Made to Place Blame Where It Properly

TACOMA. Saturday. April S.—A searching inquiry into the type of fenders with which local street cars are equipped, marks the inquest this afternoon into the death of three-year-old June Geisert, who was killed yesterday by a Jefferson Avenue car as she was playing in the street in front of her father's home. State Labor Commissioner Hubbard, of Olympia, and the officials of the Tacoma Railway & Power Co., are in attendance in response to a summons from Coroner G. D. Shaver. Representatives of the prosecuting attorney's office are taking an active part, but until a verdict has been returned the question of whether the company shall be prosecuted will not be determined.

determined.

According to witnesses at the inquest the street car's fender instead of picking up the child, helped to roll her ornder the wheels to her death. The corner is seeking to determine if the fenders used by the company fulfill the law's requirements.

DIERINGER'S SALOON MAY FORFEIT LICENSE

Towns Likely to Lose Source of Liquor Supply-Tipplers

TACOMA, Saturday, April S.—The inhabitants of Sumuer, a "dry" town, who flock to Dieringer, two miles away, for the amelioration of parched throats, are panic-stricken because the county commissioners have ordered E. F. Brown, owner of the only saloon in Dieringer to appear and show cause why his license should not be revoked. Brown is charged with selling flouor to minors. Recently the commissioners received a long petition from Sumner and Dieringer residents asking that the license be canceled.

Brown's saloon came prominently into his bartender. Fred Barnett, was murdered by highwaymen. Though the county authorities have maintained a persistent search for the slayers, no clue has ever been obtained as to their movements after they left the saloon.

RAILROADS WIN RATE CASES IN MINNESOTA

Judge Walter H.-Sanborn, in United States Circuit Court, Sustains Action Against State Railway Commission.

MAGISTRATE HOLDS REDUCTION UNJUST

Also Maintains That They Burden and Regulate Interstate Commerce and Take Property Without Compensation.

ST. PAUL. Minn., Saturday, April 8.—
Judge Walter H. Sanborn in the United States circuit court, in an opinion handod down today, decided the Minnesota rate cases against the members of the Minnesota State Railway Commission.
Judge Sanborn held that the necessary effect of the reductions ordered substantially was to burden and directly to regulate interstate commerce, to create unjust discriminations between locally ties in Minnesota and those in adjoining states in violation of the commercial clause of the constitution and to take the properties of the railroad companies without just compensation in violation of the fourteenth amendment to the corstitution.

OPIUM SMUGGLER NABBED WHEN NOTE GOES ASTRAY

San Francisco's Federal Authorities Ur-Under Arrest for His Work.

SAN FRANCISCO, Saturday, April 8.

—By seizing a note which a member of the Chinese crew of the British steam ship Persia was attempting to hand to a fellow countryman on the dock, the customs authorities learned today that $5.000 worth of opium had been landed since the vessel has been in this harbor. The note, translated from Chinese, complained that Leung Ah Chong, a local Chinese merchant, had failed to pay the writer, Lo Sl, his commission on ninety-five tael cans of opium which the latter had landed during the past week.

Lo Si was placed under arrest and arralgned today on a charge of smuggiling opium. The custom inspectors are now looking for Leung Ah Chong and two other Chinese, said to be implicated in the landing of the contraband drug.

Found on Couch at Home With Bullet Buried in Arm Near Shoulder, R. W. Morris Goes to Hospital.

TOLD CONFLICTING STORIES TO MOTHER

First Said He Was Wounded by Friend, Then Changes Tune—Finally Decides to Clear Up Mystery.

Found wounded in the left arm, near the shoulder, where a bullet had buried itself. R. W. Morris, 22 years old, told his mother, who found him early lest evening lying on a couch at home, 1376. Thirty-first Avenue South, that he had been accidentally wounded by a friend. Under police examination today the youth acknowledged that he had accidentally shot himself at home while toying with a gun, the action of which lie knew nothing about, and that he had told other stories to keep his mother toying with a gun, the action of, which is knew nothing about, and that he had told other stories to keep his mother from believing that he had attempted to take his life.

In fact, Morris told a number of conflicting stories to his mother, an uncle and the police before he finally decided at Providence Hospital this morning to tell the whole truth and save further notoriety. His wound is not serious and he will be discharged from the hospital in a few days.

Morris was formerly an usher at the Orpheum Theatre; where his size earned for him the sobriquet of "Jumbo." According to his statement this morning, he and another; young man have been conducting a moving picture show at Ellensburg and when he came home for a visit his partner asked him to get him a revolver. This was done yesterday, and while experimenting with the weapon Morris shot himself. But for the jump of the revolver he would have shot himself, through the heart, as the muzzle was pointed toward his body when he snapped the hammer.

3 MILLION ORANGES HERE

Another Big "SUNKIST" Sale Lasting All FRFF! See the Beautiful Rogers Next Week, Begins Monday, Apr.10

The biggest lot of oranges that ever came to this city has just arrived—THREE MILLION of them. They arrived by special Fast Freight direct from the big "Sunkist" fruit groves of California. They are the "Sunkist" brand, famed for their delicious flavor and health-giving properties. Each local fruit dealer is laying in a liberal supply of "Sunkists" and on next Monday morning all dealers will put on a Special "Sunkist" Orange Sale, lasting throughout the week.

California's Finest Oranges

"Sunkists" are California's most luscious orangesthe choicest of each of 5,000 California Orange Farmers. They pack all their perfect oranges under the one name, "Sunkist," and ship them by special fast freight the day they are picked.

The "Sunkist" is a tree-ripened orange, seedless and fibreless-never pithy-every "Sunkist" is firm, solid and sound. It is picked by a gloved hand. No orange that falls to the ground or becomes bruised or damaged in any way, ever bears the name.

How to Serve Them

Oranges are the most appetizing and nourishing food you can serve—at breakfast—in the sick-room—between meals—in salads, ices, sherbets and puddings.

There is no limit to the number of excellent dishes of which "Sunkist" oranges form the basis.

Buy a box of "Sunkist" oranges and your fruit dealer will make you a special price. You will find no trouble in keeping them as long as you want to, because "Sunkists" reach you in excellent condition.

Physicians Advise Them

Leading physicians say that to counteract the effect of meat and other heavy foods we eat, one should eat oranges liberally. It is a universally known fact that orange juice is an excellent food for the brain cells and a tonic for run down nerves. No better laxative than sound, ripe "Sunkist" oranges can be found.

Cost No More Than Common Oranges

"Sunkist" oranges are cheapest to buy because they are thinskinned, fibreless and seedless. They are nearly all food and no waste. You lose money if you buy pithy, seedy, thick-skinned oranges.

Free Premiums for "Sunkist" Wrappers

The "Sunkist" orange always comes in a "Sunkist" tissue paper wrapper that protects the oranges and retains all their tree ripened This name on the wrapper means you are buying, at a rea-
