POPE PIUS TAKES SUDDEN RELAPSE; CONDITION WORSE

Attack Aggravates Cold From Which Pontiff Has Been Suffering and Is Accompanied by Gouty Pains.

CANNOT PARTICIPATE IN EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY

ROME, Monday, Aug. 7.—Pope Pius experienced a slight relapse today. The attack came suddenly, aggravating the cold with which he has suffered, and being accompanied by gouty pains. Dr. Giuseppe Petacci, private physician to his holiness, Dr. Marchisiani, consulting physician at the Vatican, being notified of the unexpected change in the pontiff's condition, visited him immediately and directed that he remain in his room. His holiness had appeared to be recovering normally from his recent indisposition, though the recent extreme heat had weakened him and prevented his daily celebration of mass. In the cooler hours of the day he has visited the gardens. Last evening he remained there until an hour after sunset. Up to last night he was determined to participate in the celebration of the eighth anniversary of his coronation. It had been planned that the pontiff should wear only the ordinary mitre and a light vestment instead of the triple crown and Haytian Revolutionary Leader Makes Triumphant Entry at Port au Prince and Goes to National Palace.

GENERAL FIRMIN NOT IN HARMONY WITH HIM

PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, Monday, Aug. 7.—Gen. Cincinnatus' Leconte, the revolutionary leader, made a triumphant entry into the capital yesterday, being acclaimed by the populace. Arrangements were made forthwith for a joint session of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, which are expected to elect Leconte president in succession to the deposed Simon. This was not in harmony with the program of Gen. Antenor Firmin, the rival revolutionary leader, who is expected here today from Porto Rico and who has already announced that he had been promised the presidency by Leconte. Immediately on his arrival General Leconte attended a te deum at the Cathedral, conducted by the archbishop. Later he made a tour of the city, finally entering the national palace to a salute of 100 guns from all the fortifications. Later a new ministry, wholly replacing that of the Simon administration, was tentatively agreed on as follows: War, M. Zamor; Interior, Judge Cauvin;

Col. Edward H. R., Heir of World's Richest Woman, Eagerly Awaits Day When Wedding Bells Ring for Him.

TWENTY-YEAR PACT WITH MOTHER SOON TO EXPIRE

NEW YORK, Monday, Aug. 7.—Col. Edward H. R. Greene, son of Hettie Greene, and owner of the Texas Midland Railroad, expects to marry within twelve months, although he does not yet know who the bride to be is. Colonel Greene has been in New York for some time, consolidating his mother's interests under the control of the Westminster Company. In announcing that he proposed soon to terminate his bachelorhood, Colonel Greene told his interviewers why he has so long lived a life of single blessedness. He promised his mother nineteen years ago, when she took him down to Texas to teach him railroading, that he would remain a bachelor for twenty years. He has kept his word, but when the time expires next year, he is going to take unto himself a wife.

ONLY ONE RECALL PETITION LACKS ENOUGH NAMES

Citizens' Association After Careful Checking Announces That More Signatures Are Needed on Steiner Lists.

ENOUGH PERSONS SIGN ONE AGAINST MAYOR

A SURPRISE was encountered by the Citizens' Recall Association today following a complete and careful checking of the petitions filed and deposited to date, which led to a slight change in the plans of the workers. The estimates made by the officials after a cursory examination of the petitions from day to day were verified so far as Mayor George W. Dilling and three of the four councilmen, Max Wardell, Edward Blaine and James Y. C. Kellogg are concerned; but F. S. Steiner, who was added to the list less than a month ago, on July 12, was found to be lacking by at least 1,000 signatures. The shortage in Steiner's case is attributed by the recallers to the fact that the campaign against him was begun three weeks after work had started on the others. In spite of this late start they declare that there is no difficulty in the way, the only delay being the lack of time. In order to place Steiner on a par with the mayor and councilmen, the recall association will carry on its work with renewed vigor this week, covering particularly the district in which Steiner is best known and where he drew his strongest support. At the same time the petitions for the others will be also kept in circulation, the association acting under the belief that the more names the more certain will be the recall in spite of those that are discarded. The checking done by the experts included the discarding of approximately 2,000 names which would have been thrown out by the city comptroller later if they had not done so themselves. This loss reduced the estimate of the officials, but at the same time made them confident that there would be little loss when the petitions went before the city authorities. Excuse of this 2,000, the petitions for the recall of Mayor George Dilling

CARELESS HUNTER SHOOTS PHYSICIAN TAKEN FOR COUGAR

Dr. Brayton Muscott Killed by Jack Rogstad Near Mountain Camp in Heart of Olympic Range.

SLAYER IN DOUBT WHEN HE FIRED FATAL SHOT

By CAPT. A. W. LEWIS. "I guess I'm done for." With these words Dr. Brayton Muscott expired at 5 o'clock Saturday evening in the lonely fastness of the Olympics, twenty-five miles back in the mountains near Brinnon. He died from a gunshot wound inflicted by Jack Rogstad, a prospector and logger who was camped in the vicinity of the cabin home of Dr. Muscott and his wife. It is the old story of error, of how the khaki-covered form of the man was mistaken in the dense green thicket for an animal, with a human life as the sacrifice. Last night a heart-broken widow kept lonely vigil by the body of her husband under the shadow of the towering Olympics, while his funeral dirge was sung by the rippling waters of the stream he loved. Today a sorrowing procession winds its way over the tortuous trail from the Muscott cabin to the wharf at Brinnon. Tragedy Follows Visit. On Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock Dr. Muscott visited the camp of Jack Rogstad and Ben Miller, who were camped a couple of miles below the Muscott cabin on the head waters of the Dosewallips. He was accompanied by Mr. Allen, a friend with whom he was camping. After a pleasant chat of three-quarters of an hour the two started to return to their camp. A few minutes afterward Rogstad picked up his rifle and started out hunting. "It was only about half way between our camp and Dr. Muscott's," said Rogstad yesterday, "when I saw something moving in the brush about seventy-five yards away. I felt sure it wasn't anybody because my dog growled and he doesn't growl at men. But to be sure I

Linda Burfield Hazzard, Fasting Specialist, Must Pass Night Behind Bars Unless Attorneys Raise $10,000.

PROSECUTION CLAIMS DAMAGING EVIDENCE

By ABRAM W. SMITH. At 1 o'clock today the $10,000 bail required by Judge John B. Yakey of the Kitsap County superior court for the liberty of Dr. Linda Burfield Hazzard, under arrest on the charge of first degree murder, for starving to death Miss Claire Williamson in order to obtain her money and jewelry, had not been obtained, though Karr & Gregory, of this city, whom Dr. Hazzard yesterday engaged as counsel, have been making vigorous efforts to get a surety company at the bond. Dr. Hazzard is in charge of Mrs. W. A. Breed, an officer of the Kitsap County court. The fasting specialist was detained at Mrs. Breed's house last night and was here yesterday and this morning on the streets and docks of Port Orchard and Bremerton. Bail or Jail. Unless Dr. Hazzard obtains bail today she will be brought to the King County jail on the boat leaving Port Orchard at 6:45 this evening in custody of Sheriff H. B. Howe or Deputy Sheriff George Posse. She has been in Port Orchard since Posse arrested her Saturday afternoon at her sanitarium on "Starvation Heights," Olalla, Kitsap County. ### TOGO WILL COME TO SEATTLE AND SAIL FROM HERE

Famous Japanese Sea Fighter Changes His Plans in Response to Invitation by Chamber of Commerce.

WILL BE ENTERTAINED HERE ON AUGUST 28

ADMIRAL COUNT HEIACHIRO TOGO, one of the greatest sea fighters in history, this morning notified the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, through the medium of the embassy at Washington, D. C., and the local Japanese consulate, that he had determined to accept Seattle's invitation to be its guest en route home from attendance at the coronation ceremonies in London, at which he was one of the official representatives of the Japanese emperor. Admiral To-go's original plan contemplated returning to Japan by way of Vancouver but the Chamber of Commerce made insistent representations, through the Japanese consul-general at New York and the embassy at Washington, with the result that he has altered his itinerary in response thereto and will arrive in Seattle at 8:30 a. m. on August 28, remaining during the whole of the day and evening and sailing on the Tanba Maru the following morning at 10 o'clock from this port for Japan. The invitation was first extended by cablegram through the Japanese embassy in London. The acquaintance and friendship of President J. D. Lowman of the chamber with members of the embassy and Japanese government officials, were largely responsible for the admiral's alteration of his plan. Will Be Entertained. Admiral To-go will be fittingly entertained by Seattle business interests during his stay in the city. The program, however, has not as yet been definitely determined upon. The Chamber of Commerce has extended an invitation to the admiral to be its guest at some function while in the city, but, due to his limited stay, it has been determined to combine all efforts in one program of entertainment. The officers of the two bodies will confer tomorrow with this end in view and shortly announce a program, the Admiral Togo is upmost in the minds of all civilized people as the commander in chief of the Japanese fleet during the Russo-Japanese War in 1904 and 1905.

Throughout his returning tour of the United States, his presence in various Eastern cities is creating a sensation.

Admiral Togo was born in 1851. From his youth his life has been devoted exclusively to the study and practice of the art of national defense.

Admiral Togo is, however, said to be very far from being a fighting man pure and simple. He has spent most of his life in the study and practice of the art of national defense.

ONE TIME RECALL PETITION LACKS ENOUGH NAMES

Citizens' Association After Careful Checking Announces That More Signatures Are Needed on Steiner Lists.

ENOUGH PERSONS SIGN ONE AGAINST MAYOR

Committee Confident That Re-check by City Comptroller Will Not Alter Its Count Materially.

(Continued.) were found to contain 12,400 names, all of which are believed to be bona fide by the workers.

While the figures on the countenances would not be given out by the association, they were declared to come very near the estimates previously made and published in The Times last week, with the exception of Steiner.

The recallers have great faith in the signatures deposited by the union men. From the lists those which could not be deciphered, those which gave no address, and those which in other ways were defective, were being eliminated by the comptroller have been practically eliminated, thereby rendering them clean for the recall.

Women's Names Discarded. The largest number of the 2,000 thrown out by the workers, said, were those of women who signed their names with that of their husband rather than as it was registered on the election books.

At that time the voters of the city will receive the labor of completing the work, nominating candidates for mayor and city council, and electing or defeating them. The association said today that it has no intention of mingling in the fight that will follow their work.

The one thing that will be done is to do the best possible for the city. The recallers will be kept busy throughout this week for signers, and no attempt will be made to shut off the workers until the petition for Steiner is complete as the association does not care to deposit its lists separately with the comptroller, preferring to turn them all in together.

DILLING LEARNS ABOUT PETITION FOR RECALL Mayor George W. Dilling did not find out until yesterday morning that enough names had been signed to petitions calling upon the council to fix a date for an election to recall Mayor Dilling.
