MARKETS

LOCAL JOBBING

Business Is Steady, With Few Changes.

Merchants Are Waiting for New Local Potatoes—Strawberries Are Firm.

SEATTLE—

Today there is little change on the markets. The volume of business continues good and the out of town merchants manage to keep the commission men busy filling orders. There seems to be an extraordinary business in the smaller towns around Seattle. Merchants in these places are willing to buy at the top prices as they seem to be confident of a good market. The out of town business has developed wonderfully in the past year or two and a number of the merchants on Western avenue are devoting their whole attention to making this trade a feature. Some of them will even go so far as to tufn down good city orders to fill demands from country customers.

The steamer is due today from California and she will bring a large consignment of peaches, apricots, lemons and other fruits which are in special demand just now. Prices on these commodities are good at the present time and the merchants are able to dispose of their stock at good figures.

Strawberries and the condition of the strawberry market is still perplexing to the merchants on Western avenue. None of them are sure what the market will be one day hence. They all say that it depends upon the size of the shipment. For instance a large shipment may arrive today and the price will drop. Again the consignment may be light and the price is bound to rise. As one commission man remarked this morning: "It all depends upon the weather. If it keeps bright and sunny there will be an astonshing drop in berries but if there is rainy weather it will keep us busy hunting for stock. At this time of the year the state of the weather is the chief factor in the berry market." Hood river berries were fairly plentiful this morning and sold for $3.50 per crate. Late in the day they sold at a lower figure. Natives were a little lower going at $3, although all day the merchants tried to get $3.50. Competition, however, was too strong.

A car of bananas arrived last night in first-class condition for a ready market. Prices remain the same, but there is a heavy demand. The cherry market is easier today owing to large consignments from the South. First-class stock this morning sold for $1 per box and Royal Annes were only 25c higher. It is expected that when the steamer arrives there will be a demoralization in the cherry market.

Apricots and peaches are not very much in demand. The fruit is either immature or the people of Seattle are not educated up to the season. Whatever the reason is both fruits are selling slowly and the commission men are reducing prices accordingly. A fresh shipment of peaches is expected today from California.

The vegetable market remains unchanged. Potatoes are still at quoted prices and there is a fair demand. The advent of new local potatoes on the market is being awaited with a good deal of interest. New parsnips from California are selling today for $1.50 per sack. The market is easy at these figures.

Eggs are still quoted at 17@18c per dozen with the prospect in sight of a rise before the end of the week. A good demand is reported for butter, especially for shipment north.

Grain and other markets remain the same. The demand is good for all kinds of feed and oats continue at the high price already quoted.

THE WORLD—

Wall Street.

By Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, Tuesday, June 4.—Prices were generally higher at the opening, but there were few exceptions among the internationals in sympathy with lower prices in London. Stocks which are not usually prominent in the dealings were advanced from one to three points, but meanwhile the prominent stocks were being sold heavily under cover of this strength. Large blocks of sugar were offered, forcing it down 5¼ to 147½. St. Paul lots 2⅝ and Amalgamated Copper, the Readings, Pacifics and Atchison dropped 1@2 points. Ontario & Western was conspicuous for strength, rising 2¼ on the reported acquisition of the Delaware & Hudson Canal. At 11 o'clock prices were about at the lowest, but speculation was nervous. Special stocks were lifted sharply, but without attracting any large demand for the general list. General Electric advanced thirteen points on light dealings. The Pacifics, Grangers and United States Steel stocks were unloaded on any rise. Union Pacific fell 3¼ under last night. The whole market gave way in sympathy.
Bonds were lower for the leading issues.
There were some new points of strength developed while realizing at other points made the market irregular. Pennsylvania was advanced three and the Wheeling & Lake Erie stocks from two to four. Rock Island rose 6½. United States Express, five; Peoria and Eastern, three; St. Joseph second preferred two and People's Gas, 1½. Where there was selling to take profits it induced some reactions of a point or more, but rallies set in again. Southern Pacific rallied to the best and very heavy buying of Erie was seen. Soft spots developed in the final dealings. The close was active and irregular.

Spokane Republicans Cry "Forger" at J. P. Judson.

The Times Special Service.
SPOKANE, Tuesday, June 4.—In an effort to prevent the confirmation of John Paul Judson as corporation counsel the Republicans have made the charge that years ago while a Tacoma lawyer Mr. Judson committed forgery. Mr. Judson promptly meets and refutes the charges so far as to any evil intent, thus disposing of the criminal phase of them.
He explains that many years ago an old soldier came to his office and desired to get a notarial acknowledgement and seal appended to pension papers. A notary public who had an office with Mr. Judson was out and the veteran prevailed upon Mr. Judson to take the acknowledgement, and affix the seal. It is claimed Mr. Judson took the precaution to write under the notary's name, "Per Judson."
Whether Judson will be confirmed or not remains to be seen. The term of the present corporation counsel has expired, but the new appointee needs confirmation by the council, a majority of which are hold over Republicans. The hold overs, or most of them are embittered for they were all candidates for re-election and given a sharp turn down by the voters.

Spokane Church Row.

The Times Special Service.
SPOKANE, Tuesday, June 4.—The row in the First Methodist church is the talk of the town. Where it will end no man can say. So far one trial has been completed and one member, Jess Buchholz, has been thrown out of the church. The trials of Mr. and Mrs. Ansell and of Attorneys Williams and Huncke, all charged with immoral conduct, are yet to come up. Buchholz was ousted at the trial late Saturday night by a vote of five to three.
The funniest of the cases is that of Attorney Williams, partner of State Senator Crow. He was of the counsel for Buchholz, and his undoing, or rather the matter which led to charges being made against him, was an interview given to a local paper in which he gave a strictly news and unbiased account of one of the secret trial sessions. The church board decided that giving interviews to a newspaper is "immoral conduct."
During the week the attorneys for the several defendants appealed to the state courts for a writ of prohibition to stop the trials but Superior Judge Belt declined to interfere with the "ecclesiastical courts."

His Friends Surprised.

The Times Special Service.
TACOMA, Tuesday, June 4.—The announcement yesterday afternoon that S. R. Rodgers, a young attorney of this city, was probably a forger, created a decided sensation among his friends and acquaintances. Rodgers came to Tacoma about a years ago from Louden, Tenn., where his father, S. A. Rodgers, at one time held a seat on the bench of the circuit court, and still resides there. Young Rodgers has been acting in a rather queer manner of late, and has been drinking heavily. He recently sued a prominent gambling house to recover money alleged to have been lost at gaming.
All the checks he passed here were drawn on Seattle banks under date of May 27, and all were drawn in favor of J. A. Hoke, probably a mythical person, as no one seems to know him. The maker was the same person on no two of the checks that have turned up, and five of them have appeared. Three were for $20, one for $25 and one for $10. They were drawn on the First National, the Boston National and the Puget Sound National banks, all of Seattle.
Young Rodgers is supposed to have gone to his former home in Tennessee.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Francisco Alasko Killed His Cousin and Then Shot Himself.

By Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, Tuesday, June 4. — Francisco Alasko, 32 years old, shot and killed his first cousin, Mrs. Angelina Faia, 27 years old, in the Woman's Home today and then committed suicide by shooting himself in the breast. The tragedy occurred in a tenement at 163 Elizabeth Street. Alasko was in love with the woman.
The police at first believed that the husband had killed his wife and Alasko in a fit of jealousy. Faia was held as a "suspicious person," but his innocence was apparently established by the straightforward story of the tragedy told by his little daughter, Carmelia, who said Alasko had done the shooting during her father's absence from the house.
