FEDERAL RAILROADS IN ALASKA FAVORED

Delegate Wickersham Urges Senate Committee on Territories to Consider Plan for Naval Base There.

SHORT TRIP TO JAPAN; COAL SUPPLIES AMPLE

John E. Ballaine Asks That Perkins Be Summoned—Speaks of Guggenheim Plans for Territory.

TODAY IN CONGRESS

Senate. Not in session; meets Monday. Territories committee began hearing on Alaskan railway problem. House. Resumed reading of tariff bill under five-minute rule for amendment, agricultural schedule being completed.

WASHINGTON, Friday, May 2.—"Why not establish a naval base in Alaska?" Delegate Wickersham asked today of the Senate territories committee. "Then, if you want to go to the Orient you will have a route a thousand miles shorter, and it will build those Alaskan roads you will have millions of tons of coal near your naval base."

"We need government-built roads for purposes of defense if for no other, but there are ample resources in the territory to warrant their construction." The Alaskan delegate spoke for an hour in support of Senator Chamberlain's resolution for a government bond issue of $35,000,000 to build 733 miles of railroads from the interior Alaskan ports to the interior. John E. Ballaine, of Seattle, who opened the hearing, requested that George W. Perkins be called to testify and told how J. P. Morgan & Co. had decided to build the construction of a narrow gauge road along the route of the Alaska northern route through the Seward Valley to Tanana, because the Guggenheim brothers had refused their consent.

Speaks of Mysterious Telegram. He also spoke about a telegram that George W. Perkins sent to a certain broker in New York, instructing the broker to give certain information to a member of President Taft's cabinet. He said he would produce this telegram if Perkins consented. Ballaine said Perkins told him there would be no more railroad building in Alaska until the patents were issued for the coal claims. It was stated at the conclusion of the hearing that the territories committee will not permit any other roads to be built and that they intended to get into the Tanana by way of the Copper River road. The committee intends to hold daily hearings until everybody who wants to be heard has had an opportunity to be heard. Pittman, chairman of the committee, is still in New York and today's session was presided over by Senator Chamberlain of Oregon.

CALIFORNIA UNABLE TO PROTECT CITRUS FRUITS

WASHINGTON, Friday, May 2.—The fight over the proposed reduction of duties on citrus fruits opened today's debate on the tariff. In the Senate, despite the pressing of the bill as rapidly as possible by the Democratic leaders, the agricultural schedule has not been finished in last night's session. Alvin Hayes, of California, to raise the rates on figs, raisins and olives failed.

The citrus fruit paragraph brought a flood of amendments from the Republicans and Progressives in the California delegation. All were defeated. Representative Ray of Florida, opposed the amendment, declaring the lemon industry in California needed no protection and that the rates in the bill would not injure the California lemon growers. The reason for lowering the rates on lemons, he charged Mr. Hayes, "is to get the Italian vote in this country. It will have no effect on the price to the consumer." Representative Murdock, the Progressive leader, gave notice that when the administration provisions of the bill are reached, he will propose an amendment for the creation of a "real, not sham" tariff commission. "The people of the United States," declared Murdock, "believe that here is a battle, but it is a battle, but sham battle."

CITY TUBERCULARS TO TEST PURPORTED CURE

Health Commissioner Crichton and Dr. Damourrette Agree on Trials of Latter's Alleged Discovery.

Fifteen tubercular patients, five in each stage of the disease, will be treated by Dr. Martin Damourrette with his new serum under the supervision of Commissioner of Health James E. Crichton and a selected group of Seattle physicians, according to arrangements perfected yesterday afternoon between the health commissioner and Dr. Damourrette. The treatments will be in accordance with Damourrette's offer, published in The Times last week, and will include only such patients as are unable to pay for their treatments.

Possible arrangements of a similar nature may be made with Dr. Valdo Richardson of the King County Hospital, as the result of a reply received by Dr. Damourrette from that official today in response to an offer made by Dr. Damourrette last week. A conference with Dr. Richardson will be held immediately, and details of the treatment discussed. Both county and city officials profess a desire to cooperate with Dr. Damourrette in the way, in an effort to test the actual merits of the serum. Dr. Robert H. Smith, in charge of the city tubercular work, will select the patients to be treated tomorrow morning from those at the city sanitarium. Five of the second or intermediary stage and five from the advanced stage will be chosen. The approval of a representative group of physicians sought before the patients are finally treated, Dr. Damourrette. Five patients in the first stage who have personally sought the serum treatment from Dr. Crichton will be chosen instead of five from the city sanitarium, inasmuch as those in care of the city are to be progressing satisfactorily now. After the physicians named by the city have examined the cases selected, Dr. Damourrette will go to the sanitarium with his serum, and in the presence of representatives of the medical profession and city authorities, will begin the treatments. He will first use the serum on himself, and then on the patients. Dr. Damourrette signified his willingness to the city officials to have the tests made on the patients, and will leave the question of his serum, and will leave the ques-

NEW CALIFORNIA LAW LETS JAPANESE LEASE

Amendment to Webb Measure Will Permit Them to Contract for Farms for Period of Three Years.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Friday, May 2.—An amendment to the Webb re-draft of the anti-land law will permit ineligible aliens to lease agricultural property for a period of not exceeding three years was adopted by the Senate at noon by a nonpartisan vote, and the bill was sent to the printer with emergency rush orders. Under ordinary circumstances, the amended bill could not be ready for final action next week, but the majority leaders had arranged in advance for quick action, and it was expected that the new copy would be back from the printing office at 2 o'clock this afternoon, in order that a final vote might be taken today. A sharp debate preceded the adoption of the Boynton amendment. Several senators declared it weakened the bill to such an extent that Japanese colonies could exist on virtually the same basis as present. Senator Caminetti, Democrat, asked Boynton if this was not the case. "It is not the case," replied Boynton, "or I would not be offering this amendment."

DEMOCRATS POSTPONE JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY

Celebration Will Not Be Held Until Maj. J. F. A. Strong, New Governor of Alaska, Arrives in Seattle.

By M. M. MATTISON. Thomas Jefferson can't have any birthday party in Seattle until Maj. J. F. A. Strong, the new governor of Alaska, arrives. That's final, and the shade of T. Jefferson, the officious gentleman at the head of the Democratic club organization, and all others who may have some interest in the anniversary might just as well begin understanding now as later on that the hands of the clock have been stopped and that time his death has paused to await the coming of Major Strong. The King County Democratic Club has its neck bowed inasmuch as T. Jefferson isn't around to protest in person, that birthday celebration will have to go over. Whenever Maj. J. F. A. Strong recently confirmed by the United States Senate, gets through talking things over with Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, and President Woodrow Wilson, he will start Alaskaward. On his way North Major Strong must pass through Seattle, and the King County Democratic Club wants to tender him a reception. Moreover it wants him to make a speech. The club has tried, ineffectually, to attract a number of Eastern orators here for a Jefferson Day celebration and it procured a special dispensation under which it was authorized to celebrate any day in April as Jefferson's birthday. The President, the Senate, Major Strong and a lot of other people conspired for delay, and the month of April slipped by without any shipment of oratory to this Coast. Not to let the effete East have anything on the erstwhile wild and woolly West, the King County Democratic Club has turned back the clock and will keep it turned back until Major Strong arrives with a trunkful of oratory.

NO COMPROMISE FAVORED

"My constituents have a law with the specific words 'ineligible to citizenship' in it and that is what I want. Senator Boynton is perpetrating the original anti-land bill in the Senate, declared the amendment was not to his liking and he asked to be excused from voting on it. Senator Cobb, Democrat, said he had been persuaded by men who represented 200,000 acres of land now leased by Japanese, that the exemption of three-year leases should be made. The vote was 25 ayes, 13 noes.

BRYAN INTENDS TO STAY AT SACRAMENTO

WASHINGTON, Friday, May 2.—Secretary Bryan telegraphed today that he had reconsidered his purpose to start at once for Washington and would remain in Sacramento until the alien land legislation is concluded. Caring for Birds. With a fortune of $50,000,000 at her disposal and a sincere desire to use it for the benefit of humanity, Mrs. Russell Sage, even in her eighty-fifth year, is hardly to be classed among "the idle rich." She has lately purchased Marsh Island, off the coast of Louisiana, to be her side in perpetuity as a shelter and inviolable sanctuary for all the birds of the air that may seek its hospitable shores. This island, eighteen miles long, with an area of 115 square miles and a total coast line of about sixty-five miles, is a natural refuge and breeding place for many kinds of aquatic birds and a port of call for great flocks on their spring and autumn migrations. Mrs. Sage purchased the island for $150,000, vesting the title in Edward McHenry as trustee until such time as it shall be decided to turn over the property to either the state of Louisiana or the Federal government.—Woman's Home Companion for May.

GRAND JURY TO TAKE UP MAIL FRAUD CHARGE

Mrs. Dolly Carroll and Al Young, Alias Davis, Will Be Held Pending Action of Inquisitorial Body.

Dolly Carroll, former wife of Dr. James Carroll, Tacoma, and Al Young, alias Davis, will be held for action by the federal grand jury meeting in this city Monday, according to a decision reached today by officials of the department of justice, following an extended investigation into the charges alleging use of the mails to defraud. In the presence of United States Attorney Charles F. Riddell, Special Agent W. R. Bryon and several other officials, the Carroll woman made a statement yesterday afternoon, the nature of which is being kept secret by the government. That sensational disclosures may result following the meeting of the grand jury, is intimated. Possible prosecutions involving the Mann act were hinted at this morning, but would not be discussed by any of the officials in charge of the case. Mrs. Carroll and Young were arrested Wednesday evening by government officials on complaint of J. H. Tucker, who asserted that they had bled him out of various sums of money with the understanding that he was to marry the woman. Tucker has a wife and three children in Tacoma. Sheriff Howard Shattuck, of Kitsap County, returned to his home last night after an investigation in this city as to possible connection between the two prisoners and the murder of Carl Axel Westman. No clues were obtained that might throw any light on the mysterious murder, which took place 100 yards from the hotel where the Carroll woman and Young were stopping.
