Toronto Convention Will Assemble Five Thousand Livest Wires From All Parts of North American Continent.

UNLIMITED PUBLICITY HERALDS GREAT EVENT

Work Will Be Distinctive, Since Delegates Insist That "Men Must Not Lie About What They Are Trying to Sell."

TORONTO, Saturday, June 6.—Toronto, Ont., June 6.—The date will be the scene of the most important convention in American history, during a half century, whose dates will witness the gathering of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America.

Edwin C. Hill has written of the forthcoming convention that in those five days the Associated Advertising Clubs will thunder around the world their triumphant slogan, "Honest Advertising Wins."

These are a few of the reasons why the forthcoming convention, which will assemble delegates from over 100 cities in the United States and Canada, will be the most important event in the advertising industry.

DR. TEMPLE'S MESSAGE TO THE SHUT-INS THE STORY OF A ROSE

JUNE is called the Queen of Months because it is adorned by nature with the Queen of Flowers, James Russell Lowell sang, "What a rare as a day in June!"

I want to bring you a message from a rose in this column today. The incident was related to me by an attorney, the founder of the Door of Hope mission in Tremont Temple twenty-five years ago.

After watching her for some time, Mrs. Whittemore selected a moment when she was alone and placed her arm around her shoulder with her hand on her forehead, and taking a pure white rose from her own bosom she placed it on the breast of the unfortunate girl.
