is A.W. Meyer Going Out of 116 Piano Business?

Proof positive can be had by getting his prices and terms. No sane person who expects to do business in the future would quote such ridiculously low prices on the very best of standard make pianos and player pianos. Prices are actually onehalf of regular prices and terms as low as $5 per month.

COAST TO SUFFER BY SEAMEN'S LAW

Congressman Humphrey Declares That Within Few Months American Ships on Pacific Will Be Thing of Past

JAPANESE WILL BUY ALL THAT ARE LEFT

Emergency Marine Legislation Also Will Be Affected by Certain Increase in Cost of Operation.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Aug. 24.—
"Within a few months after the seaman's bill becomes a law American ships on the Pacific Coast engaged in foreign trade will be a thing of the jast," said Representative Humphrey today, in commenting on the House action antiorizing consideration of the seaman's bill tomorrow. "I suppose the bill will pass and that, eventually, it will become law.
"American vessels on the Pacific Coast will be bought by Japanese and they will dominate the Pacific trade.
The seaman's bill also will affect the emersency shipping legislation—Americans contemplating purchase of foreign ships for American registry will buy them in the face of probable increased cost of operation due to the new seaman's law.
"The only grain of comfort we can get out of this probable new law is that it will not affect the operation of the vessel lines on l'uget Sound."

FIGHTING DISEASE GERMS

There is a popular idea that most sickness is caused by a germ of the disease finding entrance to our bodies through the food we eat, the water or milk we drink or the air we breathe. This is true as far as it goes but it is also true that disease corrections our bodies.

as far 48 it goes but it is also true that disease germs are entering our bodies every day without causing disease.

The reason for this is that there are forces within the body that are constantly fighting these disease germs and it is only when this defence is weakened that the germs get the upper hand and we become ill. One of the most powerful of these forces that work for health ful of these forces that work for health is rich, red blood. Good, healthy blood increases the resistance of the body to the diseases that are always threatening. the diseases that are always threatening. It is easier to keep up this resistance by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pilk, eating proper food, avoiding articles of food that do not agree with us and getting plenty of fresh air day and night, than it is to cure disease after it gets a foothold. Keep up the resistance of your body to disease by these tonic pilk, which you can get at any drug store, and you will avoid much sickness.

ORILLIA CROSSING UNDER DISCUSSION

Port Commissioner Robert Bridges Tells Public Service Commission That Subway Should Be Built.

At the suggestion of Judge George T. Reid, of counsel for the Northern Pacific Italitway, the hearing begun this morning before the state public service commission as to what action, if any, shall be taken with regard to the grade crossing at Orillia, was postponed until such time as engineers, representing the state, county and the railroads, shall visit the scene and determine whether a separation of the grades at that point is feasible. Counsel for the Puget Sound Electric and the Milwaukee Railroad, the other lines concerned, concurred in the recommendation.

The hearing was postponed with the understanding that the engineers would investigate the crossing with a view to assertaining the practicability of constructing a subwiry under the tracks of the three railroad lines, the roads signifying their willingness to provide for such an improvement if it were deemed necessary by the commission following this investigation. At the completion of this study the commission will hold a final hearing on the matter, it was announced.

of this study the commission will hold a final hearing on the matter, it was announced.

C. E. Van Epps, the commission's engineer, and James R. Morrison, chief deputy county engineer, were the only two witnesses examined at this morning's hearing. Both testified that, in their opinion, the Orlilia crossing is dangerous. Morrison declared that the warning bells now used by the railroads at the crossing would be sufficient safeguard to traffic if they were always in working order, but expressed the opinion that absolute safety could be guaranteed only by an under crossing.

Robert Bridges, Seattle port commissioner, spoke in behalf of Orillia residents, urging that a subway, with a twelve-foot clearance, is practical and that the railroads lose no time in making such an improvement.

Theatres and Concert Halls Closed — Restaurants and Cafes Suspend at 8 o'Clock -Everybody in Bed Early.

It will take six months for specially chartered. American ships, under direction of the government, to get the tens of thousands of Americans now marconed in Paris and other cities of France away from the fighting republic. So writes William Martius, prominent merchant and pioneer resident of Scattle to Charles Englehard, his business associate in Martius Music House, The latter today received two letters from Martius dated Paris, August 3 and 8.

In the latter letter, Martius writes that all Americans are well caved for but many are short of funds. The Cook & Co. office closed and those tourists who were traveling under the direction of that firm were placed at a serious handicap for money.

"We are now buying our own provisions," wrote Martius, "but otherwise are not suffering hardships. The theatres and concert halls are closed—there is no muse—no opera—no theatres—and the restaurants and cafes are closed at 8 o'clock in the evening. Everybody goes to bed at 9 o'clock."

American checks are disconnted at 10 per cent. Martius wrote that he planned to find a way of sending or bringing goods required by the local house when he leaves France, the time of which he admits is indefinite.

FRANCE OBJECTS TO AMERICAN REQUEST

WASHINGTON. Monday. Aug. 24.—
France has replied unfavorably to the proposal of the United States that ships owned by belligerent countries but chartered by this government for the sole purpose of "repatriating" Americans be regarded as neutral.

Great Britain's response was that if such ships were manned by American officers and flew the American flag she would have no objection.

Germany was willing to permit the Hamburg-American liners to be used to bring Americans home, voluntarily offering to do so before the United States sounded the Berlin government on this point. Two German-owned steamships have been waiting in Genoa to take Americans home if all the powers agreed to neutralize such ships when chartered by the United States.

Officials did not say whether they would continue to regard foreignowined ships, chartered by the American government, as neutral carrying out to the better their construction of The Harue convention. It is not believed France or Great Britain would interfere with these ships if the United States had no other way of bringing Americans home, but as such facilities have appeared in the past week it is unlikely that the United States will press the request. ZEPPELINS THUS FAR HAVE NOT DONE MUCH

PARIS, Mouday, Aug. 24.—Zeppelin airships, of which the Germans expected great things, appear as yet to have been inoffensive, according to opinion in the French capital. Of the fifteen Zeppelin units, one is believed to have been disabled by the fire of the Liege forts on August 6, and another was demolished in a shed at Metz by the French aviator Finck. Two others have been seen by Belgian aviators, apparently wrecked by wind squalls in the forest between Metz and Aix-La-Chapelle. Another has been brought down at Badonviller, near Luneville.

Of the remainder, two are supposed to be on the Russian frontier, and the others at Cologne, Hamburg and Kiel, and on the French frontier.

"We hereby declare war against Germany and we command our army and may and we command our army and the subjects of the law of the proclamation to our loyal and brave subjects:

"We hereby declare war against Germany and we command our army and the subject of the law of the proclamation to our heart of the law of the present authorities to make every effort, to attain the national aim by all means within the limits of the law of nations. "Since the outbreak of the present war in Europe, the calamitous effect of which we view with grave concern, we on our part have entertained hopes of preserving the peace of the Far Last by the maintenance of strict neutrality, but the action of Germany has at length compelled Great Britain, our ally, to open hostillities against that country, and Germany is at Klauchau, its leased territory in China, busied with warlike preparations, while its armed vessels, cruising the seas of Eastern Asia, are threatening our commerce and that of our ally. The peace of the Far East is thus in jeopardy. "Accordingly, our government and that of his Britannic majesty, after full and frank communication with each other, agreed to take such measures as may be necessary for the protection of the general interests, contemplated in the agreement of alliance, and we on our part, being desirous to obtain that object by peaceful means, commanded our government to offer with sincerity an advice to the imperial government of Germany. ARRIVES IN LONDON

LONDON, Monday, Aug. 24.—Archer M. Huntington, president of the American Geographical society, and Mrs. Huntington, who have arrived in London from the continent, today confirmed the story of their arrest as Russian spies in Germany.

They left Carlshad two hours before the receipt of the new of the declaration of war with Russia, traveling by motorear to Nuremburg. When they reached Nuremburg they were arrested and taken to the police station where they were detained from 8 o'clock in the morning until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Both Mr. and Mrs. Huntington were obliged to remove their clothes, which were searched. Their papers also were ransacked, and their car, which was of French make, was commandeered. The Huntingtons were then set at liberty and allowed to remain in Nuremburg under police surveillance. Later their French chauffeur and their valet, an Englishman, were made prisoners of war.

The Huntingtons remained in Nuremburg until August 18 when they took a special train to Amsterdam. From Amsterdam the journey to London was completed without further trouble. "So far as I could see," Huntington said today, "all Germany is enthusiasite over the war, The people clearly wanted it and they had no doust whatever of its immediate success. I saw these: "William, Emperor of Furope'; William, King of Russia," and 'On to Paris."

FALCONER ON HIS WAY TO SEATTLE

Everett Congressman, Candidate for Progressive Nomination for Senator, Will Reach State Saturday.

By M. M. MATTISON.

Congressman J. A. Falconer, of Everett, candidate for the Bull Moose sengiorial nomination. Left Washington today and will reach Spokane Saturday, to plunge into a brisk fight immediately. He will have less than tendays of time to make a complete canvass of the state, while his principal opponent, Ole Hanson, has spoken at least once in every important town and before many crossroads setherings.

Before he left the national capital. Falconer filed a statement showing thus far he has expended $1,230 in his senatorial campaign, $250 of this representing campaign contributions and $380 necessary printing.

This statement will furnish a surprise to some of the politicians who thought themselves close to Falconer. There has been a general disposition in Bull Moose circles to insist that Falconer had even been delinquent in his letter-writing and that his activities headquarters here there is a record of an important letter that has gone unanswered for two weeks or more though the headquarters force is resarded as extremely friendly toward falconer. Stories drifting in to headquarters are to the effect that he has been careless in handling all his correspondence and was not making a fight.

The $380 printing bill is another surprise to the Bull Moose leaders, and so well fortified now that he did not care whether the Everett congressman came home or not.

Congressman Falconer is in a hard position. It generally was admitted carly in the year that he could have the Second District congressional nomination for the asking, but after a long series of embarrassing waits and contradictory reports he finally filed for sonator. Then ensued the long delay in adjournment by Congress. While Eastern and Southern representatives spent much of their time at home building up defenses, the Washington members clung to their posts.

Possibly Falconer's home-coming for a brief campaign, coupled with his action in clinging to his post, will help him, but whether it does the fact remains that in the shuffle of politics he gave up a certainty to what has developed into a precarious chance. There are rumors in political circles that Congressman W. E. Humphrey, Republican, and Congressman J. W. "Popcorn" Bryan, Eull Moose, may be home prior to the primaries; Inasmuch as Bryan's opponent, Austin E. Griffiths also is absent from the district, there is no excuse for his home-coming. Humphrey's friends are making a good fight for him against a field of three other lesser known candidates.

A call for the King County Progressive convention will be issued this week, the date being fixed for as soon after the primaries as is possible. If it is found the Press Club Theatre can accommodate the crowd, that hall will be chosen for the meeting. The state call provides that the newly elected precinct committeemen, together with the candidates running second and third, shall constitute the delegates, In King this provides for a convention of approximately 1.140 delegates, but this is a far greater number than could reasonably be expected to attend any convention.

nespondence and was not making a light.

The $380 printing bill is another surprise to the Buil Moose leaders, and especially to his friends who have worked about the absence of printed material productions. The Fulconer leaders have even claimed that he has not even used the frunking privilege as industriously as the Buil Moose platform declaration against that form of free campaigning would permit.

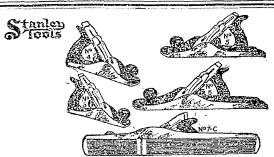

Falconer, however, has shown signs for several weeks that he was worried and recent letters indicate that he has been growing impatient over conditions that kept him in Washington while Hanson had the field practically to himself in this state. Hanson has not been embarrassed in any way by Falconer's tardiness in reporting and recently has declared that he considered himself.
