

FOUR SUBMARINES TO STEAM TO HONOLULU

Navy Department Will Send Vessels of New K Pattern on Long Sea Voyage to Test Efficiency.

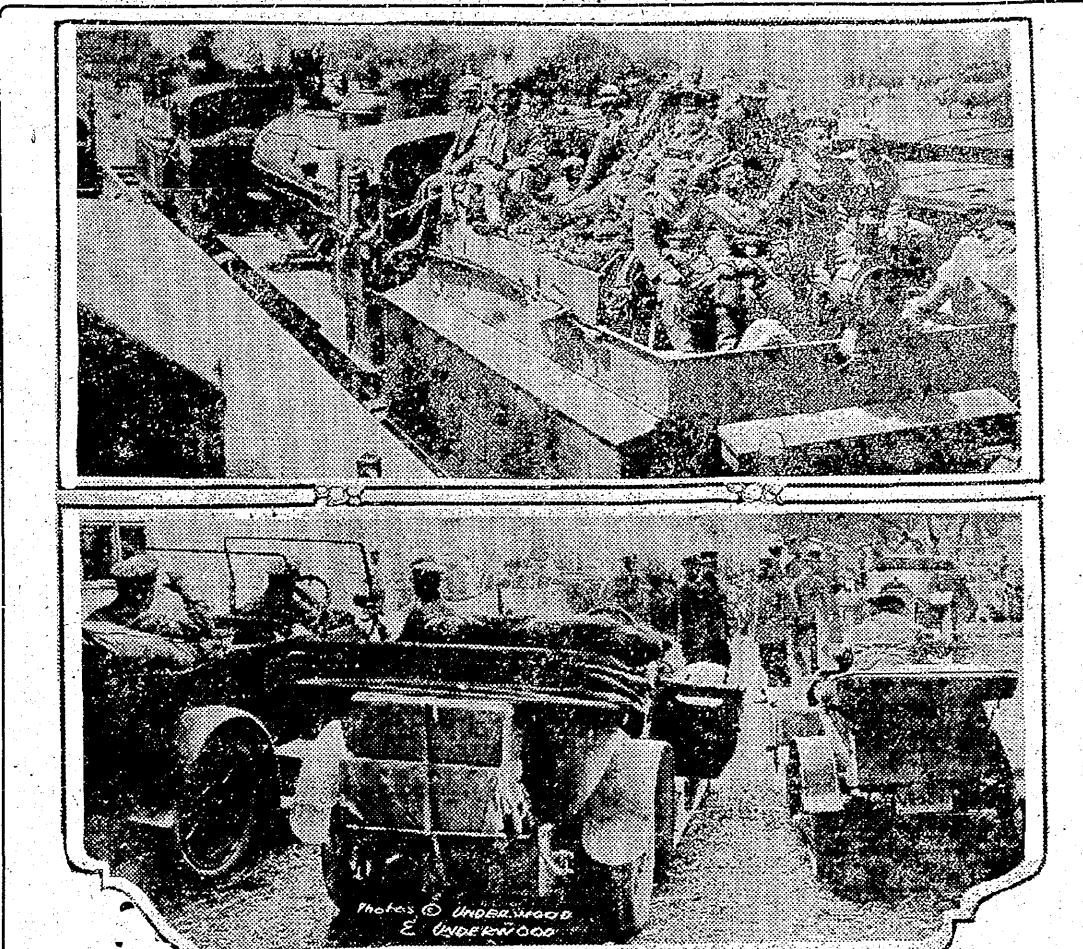

By W. W. JERMANE.
WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Aug. 10.—The navy department, as a test of submarine efficiency, is to send from San Francisco to Honolulu, under their own power, four vessels of the K type—K-3, K-4, K-5 and K-6. It will be the first time that vessels of that type ever have made such a trip without being towed. The four submarines of the type, it will be recalled, proceeded from the west coast to Hawaiian waters in that way. The submarines will be accompanied by a convoy.

The department is certain the submarines will be able to make the trip of 2,000 miles, since their radius of action would permit them to go to Honolulu and return on their fuel capacity. The problem, however, is said to be one of food rather than of fuel—not in ability to carry a sufficient quantity of provisions, but to have them at all times of a palatable type without calling on the reserve supplies of the convoy.

These K boats were built on the Pacific Coast by the Electric Boat Company, and have been undergoing tests in Western waters. They will be stationed at Honolulu as a new division, which will raise the submarine defenses of the islands to two divisions. The division already there consists of the F-1, F-2 and F-3. The K-4, which was attached to the division, sank in an accident some time ago.

The units of the K boats are designed for a continuous run of 3,500 miles on normal fuel, and by carrying extra fuel it is expected that they will be able to make 2,000 miles more.

GERMAN CHEMISTS TURN OUT NITRIFIED SUBSTANCE THAT IS EVEN MORE EFFECTIVE THAN CELLULOSE PRODUCT.

LONDON, Tuesday, Aug. 10.—Details of a new process developed by German chemists for the utilization of wood pulp as a substitute for cotton in the manufacture of explosives are given by The Chronicle, which says the substitute already is being used successfully at three large factories in Mannheim.

The great difficulty in using wood pulp, according to The Chronicle, was the necessity of removing all impurities such as resin and oxycellulose. The process in its early stages is the same as in the manufacture of paper. Wood is ground, cooked, changed to liquid form, then carefully cleaned by the new process and rolled into sheets. Then it is ready for the process of vitrification, which converts it into a high explosive.

The timber used is chiefly ash, pine and birch. For some purposes, says The Chronicle's informant, the new explosive is even more effective than that made of cotton.
