

To Press Japanese Claims to Citizenship

HONOLULU, T. H., Thursday, May 16.—Former Attorney-General Wickersham has been retained by Japanese associations of the mainland to take the Ozawa naturalization case to the United States Supreme Court. He will be assisted by D. L. Withington of Honolulu. Japanese associations in the United States have pledged their support to this fight which is to press the right of Japanese to American citizenship. Ozawa is now a Honolulu resident.
