

RESEMBLE FAMOUS GRANDFATHER

—Photograph Copyright by Underwood & Arnold.

Grace, Theodore, Jr., and Cornelius Roosevelt.

These three grandchildren of the late Theodore Roosevelt and children of Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt are the liveliest at Southampton Beach where this photograph was taken. Like their illustrious grandfather, they are full of "fun" and bear marked resemblance to him. Grace is in the rear, Theodore Jr., in front and Cornelius at the right.

EXPLAINS STAND ON GULICK PLAN

Japanese Publicist Replies to Charges Made by Senator Phelan of California.

By Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Wednesday, Sept. 3.—In an open letter received here yesterday from New York, K. K. Kawakami, Japanese publicist and author, replied to a statement made in Washington on August 17 by United States Senator James D. Phelan that he (Kawakami) and Dr. Sidney L. Gulick of New York collaborated in the preparation of an immigration bill introduced recently by Senator Dillingham of Vermont. Senator Phelan at the time made public the copy of a letter written by Kawakami to Dr. Gulick which, he said, proved his contention that "Gulick is simply a Japanese agent." The immigration bill in question provides that immigrants may enter the United States at the rate of five per cent each year of the total already in the country.

Kawakami, who is a resident of San Francisco, said in his reply that he regarded his letters on public questions as "public documents," and that he wanted Senator Phelan or anybody else to feel quite at liberty to examine them at any time. To be fair, however, "the honorable senator should have published Dr. Gulick's reply to my letter," Kawakami's reply in part says:

"My attention was first called to Dr. Gulick's immigration plan some five years ago. The plan seemed original, clever and interesting. Because I had written a book or two on Japanese immigration, I was asked to express my opinion on the plan. At that time I could not see my way to agree with Dr. Gulick, and I objected to the plan on these grounds:

"First—The Gulick plan is a camouflage for Japanese exclusion. It is very cleverly disguised, but no Japanese is unintelligent enough to see its real intention, which is less than total exclusion of the Japanese."

"Second—The plan is impracticable because it will be strenuously opposed by European immigrants and American citizens of European descent who have voting privileges and exercise tremendous political influence. These people will see heaven and earth to defeat the Gulick plan and because it proposes to reduce European immigration to a considerable extent."

"Third—Those who oppose the Gulick plan because it affects European immigration would, in their effort to defeat it, argue that it is designed to render favor to the Japanese, though in reality it does nothing of the sort. Thus the proposal, in addition to doing the Japanese injustice, would create an opportunity to start an anti-Japanese agitation on the part of those who would defeat this proposal from consideration of self-interest."

"Views of Gulick.
"Since I expressed the above view I have occasionally seen and corresponded with Dr. Gulick. He has emphatically disagreed with me, and insisted that the Pacific Coast is not satisfied with the gentlemen's agreement and that of practical exclusion would put an end to the anti-Japanese agitation there. Dr. Gulick has been confident that his proposal will have the effect of stopping this agitation because it will virtually stop Japanese immigration."

"Without, in the text, receding from my original stand that the plan implies an injustice to the Japanese, I have nevertheless come to reconcile myself to it in the hope that it will at least have the effect of terminating the personal agitation among peoples and tending to foster friendly relations among nations."

"As for the immigration bill introduced by Senator Dillingham, I know nothing about it."

DRYS FAVOR STIFF TAX
Prohibitionists Have Scheme to Stop Booze Sales.

CHICAGO, Wednesday, Sept. 3.—The executive committee of the National Prohibition party which was in session here yesterday, adopted a resolution favoring a tax of $10,000 a gallon on alcoholic beverages if the sale of intoxicants be permitted between the time of prohibition of the army and next January, when the constitutional amendment becomes effective.

Virgil G. Hinshaw, chairman, was instructed to communicate with Congressman Randall of California, informing him of the party's stand. He will also be told when the constitutional amendment does begin to function Congress should abolish all internal revenue legislation concerning intoxicating beverages. It was held by the committee it would be incompatible for the federal government to put a ban on liquor in one breath and extract revenue from the article under the ban in the next.

The committee will issue a call for a national convention in 1920 and the convention will decide whether candidates for president and vice president shall be named by the party.

ALANDS VOTE FOR SWEDEN
Islanders Decide They Want to Join Western Neighbor.

STOCKHOLM, Wednesday, Sept. 3.—An unofficial vote has been taken on the Aland Islands as a result of which 97.3 per cent of the voting population is in favor of union with Sweden. In earlier days the islands constituted a serious bone of contention between Russia and Sweden because of their strategic importance.

Germany during the war tried to bring Sweden into the war on her side upon a promise of securing the Aland Islands.

Centralia Increases Salaries.
CENTRALIA, Wednesday, Sept. 3.—The city commission at its weekly meeting yesterday passed final reading of an ordinance, granting an increase in salaries to all city employees. The increase is effective on salaries paid October 1. The commission yesterday gave a contract to the Salinas Valley Coal Company to furnish lump coal to the city during the coming winter. The company's bid was $5 per ton.
