PARTIAL STRIKE IN BOMBAY AS SLAP AT BRITISH

Nationalists Celebrate 'Victory' in Observance of 'Dharsana Day'. Salt Raids Postponed.

DELHI, Saturday, May 24.—Mrs. Satyawada, leader of the "Lary Volunteers," was arrested today by the police. She is the fourth woman to be arrested by the government from among the active leaders of the civil disobedience campaign.

BOMBAY, India, Saturday, May 24.—Indian nationalists today observed "Dharsana Day," making it an occasion to celebrate "victory" over British police and armed forces, and of mourning for those arrested in the course of the raids against the salt pans.

A partial strike, or stoppage of work, was in effect in most of the native city. The usual daily raids against the Wadala salt pans were not carried out.

Yesterday's parade, in which an estimated 200,000 persons participated, was regarded here as not a spontaneous mass manifestation but as a carefully organized demonstration of civil disobedience in its strictly non-violent character, sponsored by twenty-eight commercial corporations.

These corporations represented wealthy merchants, mill owners, cotton brokers and professional men who had arranged that it should be kept peaceful through control by the National Congress volunteers. These were said to have checked isolated attempts at disorder which might have led to rioting.

WARNING TO DRY AGENTS ON SEIZURES

Doran Points Out Apparatus Must Be Intended for Making Alcohol.

WASHINGTON, Saturday, May 24.—Prohibition Commissioner Doran has issued instructions to the government dry forces warning them that care must be used in making seizures under the recent Supreme Court decision upholding the government's authority to confiscate liquor-making paraphernalia.

"There appears to be a widespread popular misunderstanding of the effect of the Supreme Court decision in this case," Doran said. "It is assumed this decision authorizes seizure of empty containers, bottles and other apparatus that may be used to manufacture intoxicating liquor merely because they are assembled and displayed for sale."

Doran said that although the decision construed the Volstead Act loosely to embrace all articles used in manufacture of liquor there must be proof that the articles are intended for use in violation of the prohibition law.

Checks Cashed By Fake Road Officer

WALLA WALLA, Saturday, May 24.—A check forger who wears the uniform of the Washington State Highway Patrol and poses as a member of the traffic police, is reported to have passed several worthless checks in Walla Walla and in other towns in the county. The man who wears the names H. A. and G. W. Harvey was seen riding a new Indian motorcycle, bearing Oregon license plates.

A factory is under construction near Rosario, Argentina, in which paper will be produced from wheat and unused straw.

JAPANESE BAN SURGED REVISED BY TRADE GROUP

National Council Makes Bid for Justice and Fair Play, Declaring Against Total Oriental Exclusion.

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Saturday, May 24.—Declaring "the only enduring basis for world trade is founded upon the principle of justice and fair play between nations," delegates to the seventeenth annual convention of the National Foreign Trade Council in their closing session yesterday went on record as strongly favoring a revision of the Immigration Act of 1924—an act that excludes Japanese from the United States.

Approval also was given the efforts being made to strengthen friendly relations with Mexico and other Latin-American countries. Unhindered intercourse was urged as necessary to the broadening of trade horizons on the south.

The provision of the Immigration Act of 1924 which bars Japanese was declared "unhappy," its modification justified and approval was given to any "concerted effort made by the Pacific Coast states, and particularly California, to modify this unfair clause."

Optimistic Outlook.
The convention expressed an optimistic outlook on American foreign trade, endorsed all efforts that make for international peace and prosperity, signified its satisfaction with the progress in the enlargement of the American merchant marine and gave approval of the inter-American high seas plan.

A declaration of sentiment, including recommendations on all matters discussed during the three days of conferences, was read and approved in lieu of separate resolutions covering separate subjects.

Selection of a 1931 convention city and the election of officers was postponed until the semiannual council meeting to be held in New York City next October. Pittsburgh and New York City were leading contenders for next year's gathering. Honolulu has placed an official bid for the 1932 convention.

Various Subjects Are Discussed in Latest Books Found on Library Shelves

New books at the Seattle Public Library include the following titles: "Son of China," by Tcheng Cheng—The Cheng family, who are of the Chinese, have written his autobiography at thirty. He gives an intimate picture of his people and of the changes which have made the East.

"Soviet Russia: A Living Record and a History," by W. H. Chamberlain—For nearly a decade the Russian Soviet republic has been the center of world attention. Mr. Chamberlain first identifies the forces of upheaval and then gives an economic analysis of the present state.

"Long Road," by James Boyd—The author of "Drums" writes a romantic tale of Carolina and the trek westward in the days of 1890. "Devil Drum," by Clements Ripley—A perpetual motion adventure story about Scott, who was looking for excitement in Mongolia but hardly expected it to be quite so breathless.

"The Road to Wildcat," by Eleanor Risley—The author, her husband, and the dog, John, set off for the Southwest Appalachians, pushing before them a Chinese wheelbarrow which they named Sisyphus and which contained their worldly goods. Their adventures make delightful reading.

"A Fighting Parson, the Autobiography of Alexander Irvine"—The lively record of a poor Irish boy who became one of the foremost orators in England and America. "Alexander Pope," by Edith Sitwell—A new evaluation of this eighteenth century poet.

"Let's Go," by E. J. Rath—The story of an ex-blue-jacket and his speedboat. "The Days of Her Life," by Wallace Irwin—The life story of Emma Beecher in gay San Francisco of the '60s and '90s, told in fourteen dramatic episodes.

"Adam; a Dramatic History," by Ludwig Lewishon—In the seven widely diversified scenes of this play, Lewishon depicts a colorful and a bitterly unhappy man—Adam Ellar. He has transported the wandering Jew of legend into modern times.

War Veteran, Bride In Suicide Pact

CLENOCE, Ill., Saturday, May 24.—A Canadian war veteran and his bride of a few days last night in an automobile overlooking Lake Michigan, clasped hands and then consumed what police believe to have been a suicide pact.

Each had been shot once in the right temple. A pistol was in the car when the bodies were found.

Papers in his pockets identified the man as William Cochrane Hurry, 30 years old, of 38 Avenue Road, Toronto. The bride was a young woman, whose name was not given.

The couple returned last night, and the officer observed the man and woman chatting and laughing.

Senators Favor Filipino Vote On Independence

WASHINGTON, Saturday, May 23.—The House-Cutting bill to grant the Philippines a plebiscite on independence in five years was approved yesterday by the Senate territories committee.

The vote was 8 to 4, with two senators not voting. Those favoring the bill were Senators Nye, North Dakota; Cutting, New Mexico; Republican, and Pittman, Nevada; Harrison, Mississippi; Broussard, Louisiana; Hayden, Arizona; Tydings, Maryland; and Hawes, Missouri, Democrat.

Those voting against were Chairman Bingham of the committee; Robinson, Indiana; Metcalf, Rhode Island; and Goff, West Virginia, all Republicans.

Senators Johnson, California, and Vandenberg, Michigan, did not vote. The bill provides for calling a convention of the Philippines to draft a constitution and for a gradual increase of tariff duties of Philippines export to the United States for five years, at the end of which time the products coming into the United States would pay the same duties as those of other countries.

Wife May Take Ferguson's Place On Texas Ballot

AUSTIN, Tex., Saturday, May 24.—Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, first woman governor of Texas, today was named as the Democratic candidate for the office of governor in the primary election.

The State Supreme Court yesterday denied him a writ of mandamus to compel the state Democratic executive committee to place his name on the party primary ballots, holding that his impeachment by the Texas Senate in 1917 and its judgment that he be disqualified from holding any office of honor, trust or profit, was irrevocable under the constitution.

Soon after the court handed down its decision yesterday he announced he would make a motion picture, to be released immediately and if that were overruled Mrs. Ferguson again would replace him as a candidate.

Mrs. McCormick Has Opponent in Toledo

TOLEDO, Saturday, May 24.—A Toledo Republican woman was urged today by a local woman leader not to attend the meeting here June 12 when Ruth Hanna McCormick will be the speaker.

A petition for a writ of habeas corpus freeing the girl, Grace M. Kentling, now 19 years old, was granted yesterday by Judge Joseph B. David, who said in his release order: "This young woman was not at the bottom of the letter."

If Shaw Desires Money He Merely Needs to Swear

By United Press.
LONDON, Saturday, May 24.—The short but expressive word "damn" may not be worth money to the countless thousands who use it each day in giving vent to their feelings, but when George Bernard Shaw uses it it is worth at least $250—he thinks.

Shaw recently received a letter from a woman asking for a free copy of his book, "An Intelligent Woman's Guide to Socialism," for a society she had just formed. "Damn it, no!" Shaw wrote across the bottom of the letter.

He returned the letter and a fortnight later received a short note from the woman saying she had taken the letter to a bookseller who in return for it had given her a copy of Shaw's book.

Thou's he had gone to court a year ago to ask that William Guest be refused the divorce he sought from her, Mrs. Louise Guest, 231 Boren Ave., went back yesterday and asked that one be granted. Her husband's mother went with her to help her.

Wife Wins Plea For Divorce As Mind Is Changed

The court, in the first action, took in young couple into its chambers and attempted to reconcile them a year ago. Their baby boy, Dick, was a few weeks old.

But he wouldn't come to me or let me go to him. He refused to look at little Dick. He always has, "I won't look at the baby."

Guest started the action, his mother testified, after he had induced his young wife to go to Birmingham to see his parents. Yesterday Judge Batchelor granted Mrs. Guest an interlocutory decree and ordered that Guest pay $4 a week to little Dick's support, besides attorney's fees and costs.
