

OCTOBER ADDS NEW COLOR TO GEORGIAN ROOM

Many Parties Are Announced At Club Victor

Tonight will be very gay and crowded at Club Victor, judging by the many parties arranged by Anna Clise Guild members for their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vance will have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Jessup, Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Edmondson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. William Forler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Badgley, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Foran, Mr. Julian Matthews and Mrs. Albert Lindsey, who is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Foran.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Shaw will entertain the following: Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Easterbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hinton.

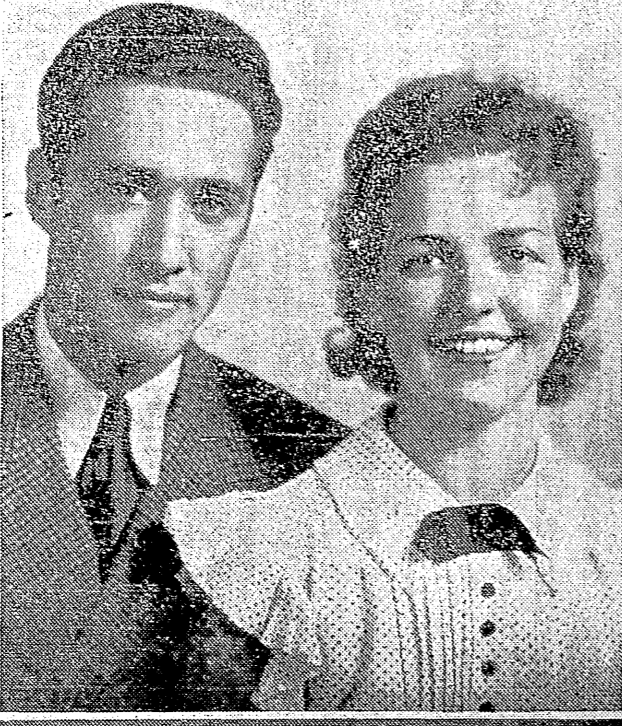

Dr. and Mrs. Roderick Janson will go to the dance with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Conway, after dinner at the Janson home.

Also going together will be Dr. and Mrs. Carl Helwig, Mr. and Mrs. Dell McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Norquist, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGoldrick, Dr. and Mrs. Purdon Dorman, Mr. and Mrs. Winchester King and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Helly.

The Claude Wakefields have made reservations as have the M. C. Wrights.

In India, after the wedding ceremony, the bride and the bridegroom are tied together by the corners of their garments to signify that they are united for life.

TO LIVE IN HOLLYWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron H. Sten, whose marriage took place this summer, are pictured here. The bride is the former Miss Marion Helen Kuppler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Kuppler, and was a student at Cornish. Mr. Sten was a member of the Seattle Symphony Orchestra. The couple are now making their home in Hollywood.

FLAVOR SECRET

No IMITATOR has ever found a way to make Corn Flakes like Kellogg's—as rich in flavor—as crisp and oven-fresh. The big value in ready-to-eat cereals.

Nothing takes the place of

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

I SEE A DARK, HUNGRY MAN COMING INTO YOUR LIFE! YOU HAD BETTER GO TO THE COOKING SCHOOL OR YOU'LL LOSE HIM!

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wills of Newport News, Va., left Friday after a visit with Mr. Wills' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Wills. They went to Monrovia, Calif., to visit Mr. Wills' mother, Mrs. William Wills, before returning East.

An exhibit of Louise Gilbert's paintings will open tomorrow at the Washington Athletic Club, under auspices of the Women Painters of Washington, of which she is a member.

Each month this group of women hangs the work of one of their members in the ladies' lounge on the second floor of the club.

Mrs. Gilbert, who is Mrs. Jack N. Gilbert in private life, studied under Ziegler, Elshin, Derbyshire and at the University of Washington. She has exhibited in San Francisco, Oakland, Portland, Or., and Washington, D. C. Mrs. Gilbert is a member of the National League of American Pen Women, and of the Pacific Coast Art Association.

To welcome home Mrs. Darrah Corbet, who has been abroad all summer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher will be at home to a group of Mr. and Mrs. Corbet's friends next Sunday afternoon.

Miss Audrey Wurdemann (Mrs. Joseph Auslander), who left last evening for New York, after a visit with her father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. Harry V. Wurdemann, will return to Seattle in about two weeks. Miss Wurdemann, who has attained national fame as a poet, is leaving New York soon on a lecture tour that will bring her to this city.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Wightman have as their house guests Major and Mrs. H. R. Mustard of Vancouver, B. C. Major Mustard is Mrs. Wightman's brother.

Returning yesterday from Bullman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Orton of Simmer, were enthusiastic over the W. S. C. Stanford game, played Saturday on the State College field. Mr. Orton, who is president of the Board of Regents of

(Continued on Page 13, Column 4.)

Plans Complete For Concert By Miss Ellen Reep

Plans are complete for the concert by Ellen Reep, Norwegian-American contralto, who will return to New York immediately after her appearance at Plymouth Congregational Church Thursday evening.

Arville Belstad will be accompanist for Miss Reep, who will bring a program of Russian, German, Scandinavian and American songs.

The concert is sponsored by the Women's Association of Plymouth Church, Mrs. Anthony Cales, president. Patrons and patronesses for the concert are:

Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Fifield, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pritchard, Dean and Mrs. Edward H. Lauer, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Vaupell, Mr. and Mrs. August Werner, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Giles, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hermans, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Wade, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Cales, Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Lund, Mrs. C. E. Horton, Miss Persis Horton, Consul Einar Bever, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eckart, Mr. and Mrs. John Sten, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Marriotti, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Halvorsen, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Yule, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sargent, Miss Carrie Raser, Mrs. Thomas Kolderup, Mrs. Louise Van Ogle, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Pellegrini, Mr. and Mrs. George McKay, Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey, Prof. and Mrs. Carl Paige Wood, Prof. and Mrs. William Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. Worth McClure, Mr. and Mrs. George De Vhllis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dickerman, Mr. and Mrs. Silvio Risegari, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Floe, Mr. and Mrs. Louis de Vries, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reseberg, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bogle, Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Henry, the Misses Nellie Cornish, Ethel Henson and Frances Dickey, Mrs. H. C. Clevin, the Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Stub, the Rev. and Mrs. George Lane, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Gowen.

Miss Ebersole Engaged

Mrs. Esther Ebersole announces the engagement of her daughter, Alice, to Mr. Richard P. Collins, son of Mrs. Johanna Collins. The wedding will take place at the Bethany Presbyterian Church, October 24.

Feted at Luncheon Given By Mrs. John B. Agen

Young Mrs. Agen was feted at a luncheon given by her mother-in-law, Mrs. John B. Agen. Mrs. Agen's guests were:

Mrs. Harry Fargo Ostrander, Mrs. Emery Bayley, the former Dorothy Dunn, a bride of the summer—she was wearing a good looking brown wool outfit with small brown sailor hat; Mrs. Paul Jackson, Mrs. Lewis Langdon, Mrs. Rosale Flair, Mrs. Cebert, Bailey, Mrs. Clarence A. Black and Mrs. Lowell Mickelwait, the former Alice Semmes, a bride of late summer—she looked very attractive in an all-brown outfit.

Mrs. Charles P. Burnett, Jr., was another hostess in the Georgian room, entertaining for Mrs. I. F. Boiseau of Los Altos, Calif. Her guests were Mrs. Boiseau, Mrs. Frederic Struve, Mrs. Lawrence Bogle, Mrs. Harry Whitney Treat, Mrs. Paul M. Henry, who is so busy these days with ProAmerica work, and Miss Alice Masuy, who wore a good-looking suit in one of the new red shades.

At another table I saw Mrs. Dow Huntington Tinker, a recent bride, the former Betty Her. She was wearing a very modish brown ensemble, the coat of her suit being made tunjic style. Others at this luncheon were Mrs. Ferguson Harper, Mrs. George Varnell, Miss Virginia Varnell and Miss Jean Garvin of St. Paul, who is a house guest of the Varnells.

Another attractive bride in the Georgian room was Mrs. Loren Grinstead, Jr., who, with her husband, just arrived here from Georgia last week. The couple is spending a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Grinstead Sr., in Broadmoor, before they leave for San Diego, where young Mr. Grinstead will be on duty at the naval training station. Mrs. Grinstead is the former

Virginia Boren

Lunching at The Olympic October... the month which is my own secret New Year! I often wonder how many other people mutter "Happy New Year" under their breath as they greet soft, caressing October.

October, the month of new endeavors! Clubs announce their lecture courses. Impresarios and concert managers give out thrilling lists for winter series. The names Tibbett, Eddy, and many others, adding luster to winter months. New club presidents take up the gavel for the first time and make addresses brimming with enthusiasm.

October in the home... every homemaker takes an inventory with the result of new drapes in the boudoir, a cozy new deep chair in the library and a new playroom for the children.

October and personal adornment... somehow I always think that women look their best in October. Soft flattering velvets with a dazzle of rhinestones for belt buckles... a rich dressy suit with gloves, bag and hat all matching and shiny new... the creamy tans of summer fading into ivory... luxurious furs that always give a woman glamour, coming into their own in October.

October... and you scuff through wooded paths kicking up autumn leaves and also new creative thoughts in your mind... plans for winter and you're going to read a whole certain shelf of books or take painting lessons or start your singing lessons again... young things, all hoping to be Eleanor Powells, and not-so-young things yearning to keep the waistline down, rush out and buy tap dancing shoes... riding classes resume, bridge lessons seem almost a necessity and life revolves around crackling pianos and gleaming silver with slanting paths of warm autumn sun lighting up the whole world.

Every Woman Has Her New Fall Ensemble

Thus the first week of October, the first Monday in October, found an unusually festive crowd in the Georgian room, The Olympic. Every woman seemed to be wearing a new fall ensemble, everyone seemed to have a winter destination and winter work to do whether it was serving on a committee at the Art Museum or taking up dancing lessons with Sally. Lip was at flood tide in the Georgian room yesterday and I never saw so many happy looking women in my life. I guess they parked their worries and responsibilities along with their galoshes and umbrella in the back hall.

Clothes! Every table held a note worth considering. Black, gray, red and dull green seemed to be the favored colors. Persian lamb was seen by the yards. Tall hats cast their skyscraper-like shadows. High-necked blouses and frocks spoke of the demureness that has crept into fashion this season.

I noticed Mrs. James Ryan Agen, the former Miss Mary Ellen Field, of Chicago, who is here with her young son visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Field, in Windemere. She wore a high-necked dress of gray and black with a spray of lilies of the valley on her dark topcoat and a tall spiral-like turban with a perky long green feather in it.

Feted at Luncheon Given By Mrs. John B. Agen

Young Mrs. Agen was feted at a luncheon given by her mother-in-law, Mrs. John B. Agen. Mrs. Agen's guests were:

Mrs. Harry Fargo Ostrander, Mrs. Emery Bayley, the former Dorothy Dunn, a bride of the summer—she was wearing a good looking brown wool outfit with small brown sailor hat; Mrs. Paul Jackson, Mrs. Lewis Langdon, Mrs. Rosale Flair, Mrs. Cebert, Bailey, Mrs. Clarence A. Black and Mrs. Lowell Mickelwait, the former Alice Semmes, a bride of late summer—she looked very attractive in an all-brown outfit.

Mrs. Charles P. Burnett, Jr., was another hostess in the Georgian room, entertaining for Mrs. I. F. Boiseau of Los Altos, Calif. Her guests were Mrs. Boiseau, Mrs. Frederic Struve, Mrs. Lawrence Bogle, Mrs. Harry Whitney Treat, Mrs. Paul M. Henry, who is so busy these days with ProAmerica work, and Miss Alice Masuy, who wore a good-looking suit in one of the new red shades.

At another table I saw Mrs. Dow Huntington Tinker, a recent bride, the former Betty Her. She was wearing a very modish brown ensemble, the coat of her suit being made tunjic style. Others at this luncheon were Mrs. Ferguson Harper, Mrs. George Varnell, Miss Virginia Varnell and Miss Jean Garvin of St. Paul, who is a house guest of the Varnells.

Another attractive bride in the Georgian room was Mrs. Loren Grinstead, Jr., who, with her husband, just arrived here from Georgia last week. The couple is spending a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Grinstead Sr., in Broadmoor, before they leave for San Diego, where young Mr. Grinstead will be on duty at the naval training station. Mrs. Grinstead is the former

Mrs. Kluckhohn Honors Two From Minneapolis

Mrs. E. B. Kluckhohn was another luncheon hostess in the Georgian room, her party honoring Mrs. Edward L. Kavil and Mrs. Herbert J. Hallbeck of Minneapolis, who came west for the Minnesota-Washington game and have been the house guests of Mrs. Morley Curtis. Mrs. Kluckhohn's guests were Mrs. Kavil, Mrs. Hallbeck, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. M. A. Hueston and Mrs. Milton Cooledge. Mrs. Kluckhohn wore a navy blue tulleur with small, flat, navy blue sailor.

At a no-host table were Mrs. Wallace Rucker, Mrs. Ralph Schoenfeld, Mrs. Richard E. Lang, Mr. Morton Schwabacher and Mrs. Berman Schoenfeld, Jr., who was wearing one of the stylish new costume suits which is a dress with a matching jacket. Her frock was of gray wool trimmed with gray Persian lamb, her coat of the same material with gray Persian lamb trim and her small hat also of the same soft gray wool trimmed with gray Persian lamb.

Sunset Club Luncheon Set For Musicale

Sunset Club members and their friends will gather at the club tomorrow at luncheon before the first musical program of the fall season which will be a performance by the Woodwind Trio of the Seattle Symphony Orchestra.

In recognition of the ability of each of these musicians, the music department of the University of Washington has made them members of the faculty. Mr. Tustin started his musical career as a violinist, but later turned to the oboe and studied with Henri De Buscher of Los Angeles. Mr. Horsfall has the distinction of playing in the Symphony longer than any present member, and Ronald Phillips, celebrated for his concert work, recently completed a Pacific Coast tour as solo clarinetist with Martha Graham, dancer.

Entertaining at luncheon tomorrow will be Mrs. Walter Phelps and her daughter, Mrs. Phelps Primrose, who will honor Mrs. Craven, wife of Rear Admiral Thomas T. Craven.

Mrs. Edward Harrah will entertain at luncheon in honor of Mrs. Peter Ottosen (Esther Redfield), who has just returned to make her home in Seattle. Mrs. Alfred Scheweppe and Mrs. Frank Burns are having guests at luncheon and at tea. Mrs. Caspar Clarke, president of the club, will include The Woodwind Trio and Mrs. Gladys Bezaux Phillips, accompanist for the trio, in the guests she is entertaining.

Mrs. Paul R. Smith is Chairman of the Music Committee This Year

Mrs. Paul R. Smith is chairman of the music committee this year. Mrs. I. Okamoto, wife of the Japanese consul, has been named general chairman of a reception which Japanese patrons of the Seattle Symphony Orchestra will give in the interests of the Artist Series next Tuesday at the D. A. R. Chapterhouse at 8:30 o'clock.

Organizing an active committee to work for the symphony for the first time in the history of the orchestra, Japanese residents of Seattle are entering the season ticket campaign with enthusiasm.

Meeting yesterday afternoon at Mrs. Okamoto's home were the following committee members: Mrs. E. Sawada, Mrs. M. Ikoma, Mrs. E. Wakadaya, Mrs. S. Fukuda and Mrs. M. Mishida. Also represented were the junior group, composed of Aeolian Society members, who are assisting with the reception. They include Miss Sachiko Ochi, chairman of the Artist Series drive; Miss Hannah Kosaka, assistant chairman; Miss Hisa Kurosaka, Miss Teru Watanabe, Miss Waka Mochizuki, Miss Masako Hotta, Miss Suyeiko Ochi and Miss Michiko Morita.

Dr. Basil Cameron, conductor of the symphony, will be on the program for the reception, Mrs. Okamoto said.

Mrs. Dora Sanford and her daughter, Izetta, will leave Sunday for New York by way of California. Miss Izetta Sanford, whose engagement to Mr. Leslie L. Plotted was announced in March, will be married in December in New York. The couple will make their home in Montreal.

(Continued on Page 15, Column 1.)

Arctic Club Announces October Dates

The listing of important October dates at the Arctic Club gives one an idea of what an unusually gay and social season is planned this winter. The first meeting of the "Arctic Circle" at 12:15 o'clock Thursday, will be brightened by a program planned by Messrs. Tom Shields, R. C. Jenner, Frederick Baker, George S. Rich, Cliff Dightman and A. L. McNealy.

The first bridge party, under the chairmanship of Mr. Arthur M. Hare, is scheduled for Friday, while on Saturday, the first of a series of informal dinner dances, with dinner served from 6:30 to 8:30 o'clock, will take place.

Other dates this month are as follows: October 12, Mr. E. M. Phelps presenting plans for the "fall round-up" of new members at a meeting of the membership committee at noon in the president's room; October 15, meeting of the "Arctic Circle," 12:15 o'clock; October 17, another dinner dance with no-host tables a feature; October 19, noon meeting of the program committee in the president's room; October 22, meeting of the "Arctic Circle," 12:15 o'clock; October 24, first fall dancing party in charge of Mr. David J. Williams; October 26, membership luncheon, president's room; October 30, father and son dinner; October 31, "dancette" in the Dome dining room, with dinner preceding.

Mrs. Valentine To Review Novel By Aldous Huxley

At the meeting tomorrow of the morning book review class at the Women's University Club, Mrs. Albert Valentine will review Aldous Huxley's novel, "Without a Pity." The world's trend class, meeting the same day at 12 o'clock, will listen to a member recently returned from Spain talk on the political and economic situation.

Dr. Belle H. Baldwin will hold the Bible literature class Friday. Her subject will be "The Capture of Jericho and Ai." The painting class scheduled for today has been changed to Friday morning. Mrs. Ralph Nicholson is the leader and Miss Lucy Wells the instructor.

Cuba has announced that it has no intention of changing existing sugar legislation.

Mrs. Agnew Married To Harry Wills

Society in both Seattle and Everett will be interested to learn that at a small service yesterday afternoon in the latter city, Mrs. Edward R. Agnew (Katherine Smith) and Mr. Harry R. Wills were married by the Rev. Edgar M. Rogers. The service was read at 2 o'clock at Trinity Episcopal Church.

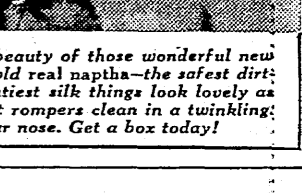

The bride, who is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith of Seattle, wore a black tulleur collared in silver fox with orchids. Mrs. Edgar M. Rogers and Mr. Henry W. Grant were the attendants.

Mr. Wills, the son of Mrs. William Wills of Monrovia, Calif., is a business man in Everett and the brother of Mr. Charles S. Wills of Seattle.

Mrs. Wills is the sister of Mrs. Harvey Salmon and Mr. Prescott K. Smith of Seattle of Mrs. Geoffrey Winslow, formerly of Seattle and now of San Francisco, Calif., and Mr. Charles H. Smith of Short Hills, N. J., and New York City.

After a motor trip, Mr. and Mrs. Wills will be at home in Everett.

Inside an eight-foot mystery fish caught recently off Port Patrick, Scotland, was an ink fish about two and one-half feet long.

REGENT SQUAIR 6.75

in its severe simplicity lives its smartness—for excepting the very flattering squared toe and heel and the Eton bow there is no decoration... wear it in black suede or in black patent leather.

Baxter's
1512 Fifth Avenue

MAIL ORDERS FILLED PROMPTLY

USE POWDER

DR. LYON'S TOOTH POWDER

100% Cleansing Properties
Twice that of tooth paste
Contains No Grit or Pumice
Cannot possibly scratch the softest enamel
Outlasts Tooth Paste 2 to 1

Do as your dentist does—when he cleans your teeth

THERE is nothing known that will clean and polish teeth so quickly and leave them so gleaming white—as POWDER.

That is why your dentist, when cleaning your teeth, as you know—always uses powder.

As it is only the powder part of any dentifrice that cleans, a dentifrice that is ALL POWDER just naturally cleans best.

Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder is ALL POWDER—100% cleansing properties. This is more than twice the cleansing properties of tooth pastes.

Dentists everywhere recommend Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder, because—teeth simply cannot remain dull and film coated when it is used. Dr. Lyon's cleans off all stains and polishes the teeth in a harmless and practical way that leaves them sparkling—many shades whiter.

Free from all grit or pumice, Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder cannot possibly scratch, or injure the softest enamel.

Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder keeps your teeth REALLY CLEAN and clean teeth mean—firm, healthy gums and the least possible tooth decay.

Powder leaves your teeth feeling so much cleaner, your mouth so refreshed, and your breath so sweet and pure. Once you use powder you will never go back to tooth paste. People by the thousands are changing daily.

Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder is not only doubly efficient, but it costs only half as much to use. Even a small package lasts twice as long as a tube of tooth paste.