

PANAMA CANAL RIOTERS JAILED

CRISTOBAL Canal Zone, Friday, July 25.—(P)—Police reserves were called out today to quell a ninety-minute riot between Latin-American workers and others imported from the British West Indies for special defense projects in the Canal area of the Canal Zone.

Boeings' Use Strategy Of U. S. Air Corps

WASHINGTON, Friday, July 25.—(P)—The high-altitude bombing attack at Brest, France, by American-made bombers was an initial wartime demonstration of a type for which the United States Army air forces have been preparing for years.

Strolling Around the Town

A slightly intoxicated manThe Stroller he "would like to get boarded a bus during the rush hour touch with some pen pals."

Under a letterhead depicting a pany B. 3rd Engineers, is stationed grass-skirted lude dancer, Maurice Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. He Storck, who identifies himself as a concluded his plea with "I promise 20-year-old soldier, has informed to answer all letters."

Weather Bureau Report

Table with columns: Station, Temperature, Wind, Precipitation. Lists data for various Pacific Northwest cities like Boise, Bismarck, and Seattle.

WHEELER RAIS 'SMEAR' EFFORT

WASHINGTON, Friday, July 25.—(P)—Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, contended today that President Roosevelt and Secretary Stimson were seeking to conduct "a smear campaign" against him and Charles A. Lindbergh because of their opposition to administration foreign policies.

JAPANESE SHIPS, DUE HERE, SILENT

Two Seattle-bound Japanese ships, the passenger liner Heian Maru and the freighter Kozui Maru, were somewhere off the North Pacific Coast today, but no information as to their positions could be obtained, an apprehension was felt by Japan over President Roosevelt's announcement that he would have a statement to make tomorrow on the future attitude of the United States toward the Nippon empire.

Ships In and Out Of Seattle

Table listing ship arrivals and departures from Seattle, including ship names, companies, and destinations.

RESULT OF PIER PARLEY AWAITED

Port of Seattle officials today were awaiting the results of a conference in Washington, D. C., which may determine whether the Reconstruction Finance Corporation will grant a loan of between five and six million dollars for construction of two piers on Elliott Bay between Connecticut and Charles Streets.

Alaska Survey Ship Arrives; Will Join Navy

After a tour of duty along the Alaska Peninsula, the Coast and Geodetic Survey ship Discoverer arrived in Seattle today and went to a berth in Lake Union. The vessel will be delivered to the Navy and assigned to defense service.

U. S. Will File Libel Against Nippon Ship

Gerald Shucklin, chief assistant United States attorney, announced today a libel would be filed today in Tacoma against operators of the Japanese motorship Yamasiro Maru for discharging oil into Puget Sound Bay, Tacoma yesterday.

Alaska Vessels

Table listing Alaska vessels, including ship names, companies, and destinations.

GRADY ISSUES PLEA FOR SHIPS

PALO ALTO, Calif., Friday, July 25.—(P)—A plea for continuation of shipbuilding during past-war years and steady expansion of the United States merchant marine was expressed in a speech prepared for delivery at the Stanford Business conference today by Dr. Henry B. Grady.

Young Men To Be Taught Seamanship

A class of 100 men, 18 to 23 years old, will begin a seven-month course in seamanship August 23 at the new Maritime Training Station, Point Heuneme, Calif., in preparation for service in the Merchant Marine. Chief Boatwain H. O. Nielsen, Coast Guard recruiting officer in Seattle, announced today.

Fishermen's Union Hits Aid to Japan

The International Fishermen and Allied Workers of America, affiliated with the Congress of Industrial Organizations, opposes "sending of war materials to Japan" and favors aid to Great Britain, Soviet Russia and China, J. F. Jurich, president, said today.

Manhole Covers 'Pop' in Pasadena

PASADENA, Calif., Friday, July 25.—(P)—Manhole covers popped around Pasadena streets like tiny dynamite. One tore off the front of Melvin B. Grant's automobile. It ricocheted into a bus. Elks' Club members didn't know whether to duck for shelter or yield to curiosity and investigate the clanking outside their quarters. Pedestrians hurried for cover.

till 9 p. m. tonight! you may phone your Want-Ad for the Sunday Times. Courteous ad-takers will help you write an ad... which will bring quick results.

F. R. Agrees With Criticism Of Sen. Wheeler

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Friday, July 25.—(P)—President Roosevelt, who agrees with the captions on two morning newspaper editorials which read "On Dangerous Ground" and "Mr. Wheeler Goes Too Far."

Shipyard Sets New Record On Two Destroyers

KEARNEY, N. J., Friday, July 25.—(P)—A new record for modern fighting craft construction was set today when the two destroyers in a double ceremony by the Federal Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Company.

Japanese Indicted Under Export Act

TACOMA, Friday, July 25.—(P)—Tusaka Nishida, former quartermaster of the Japanese freighter Koi Maru, was indicted by a federal grand jury yesterday on the charge of conspiring to violate the Export Administration Act by attempting to export mercury to Japan.

Astoria Tuna Price Rises to $150 a Ton

ASTORIA, Or., Friday, July 25.—(P)—The price for tunas climbed to $150 a ton today along the Oregon coast, an advance of $10 over the price offered at the season's opening. It is the highest price in the history of North Pacific tuna fishing.

Cruiser to Take Water Tomorrow

QUINCY, Mass., Friday, July 25.—(P)—The new light cruiser San Diego, expected to be one of the fastest of her class in the United States Navy, will be launched tomorrow morning at the Fore River yard of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Warehouse Sale of Damaged and Used Appliances

Many fine buys still remain. Damaged new, and used ranges, refrigerators, washers, and ironers. All famous makes. Easy terms. Sale time: 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Active Vessels in Port Today

Table listing active vessels in port today, including ship names and companies.

Disengaged Vessels in Port

Table listing disengaged vessels in port, including ship names and companies.

SUNBURN Ad: COOLING, soothing application... Menthohatum gives COMFORT Daily.

"MORE productive hours" Ad: YOUR OFFICE ON THE RAILS. Northern Pacific Railway.

Call MAIn 0300

GOLDEN AGE BEER Ad: Always Right! Golden Age Breweries, Inc.

LOOSE LEAF BOOKS Ad: Stationery, Blank Books, Lowman & Hanford Co.

WAREHOUSE SALE OF DAMAGED AND USED APPLIANCES Ad: THE BON MARCHE.

NORTHERN PACIFIC Railway Ad: Ship North Coast Limited Railway.