OLYMPIA, Tuesday, Dec. 23. (A)-Scrap metal from the collapsed Narrows Bridge at Tacoma has been put up for sale. Material to be sold includes

More than 2,000,000 pounds o plate girders; 17,600 lineal feet of steel suspension cables; 12,000 pounds of shock absorbers; 17,000 pounds of cable sockets and 350,0

'All Purchases Made Up to 6 P. M. Wednesday, Dec. 24, Will Be Delivered in Time for CHRISTMAS!

STORE HOURS 9 to 6 p. m. Daily

iruntaums

THIRD AND UNION BRANCH IN BALLARD

Praise of Teacher's Scotch has been expressed in many ways, but three words say it all:

GIFTS FROM $1 UP-IN OUR

CHRISTMAS GIFT SECTION!

Credit at No Extra Cost!

· Wide Selection Elgin, Hamilton, Waltham, Bulova Watches.

Famous Names in Silver, including 1847 Rogers, Community Plate, Holmes & Edwards, International Sterling!

steps out of the High Rent District

1,300 SEATTLE JAPANESE PLEDGE LOYALTY

So massed that they overflowed into an adjoining gymnasium to the American flag last night, and vowed to fight for American

Few Residences In ew Residences In Everett Unoccupied

esidences in Everett are occupied and only slightly more than 2 per cent of the vacant residences are rentable, according to a survey made by the Work Projects Administration division of research, was announced today by George Stuntz, state administrator.

OVER 49 YEARS IN SEATTLE

It's the flavour'

SCOTCH WHISKY

SUPREMELY DELICIOUS

CALIFORNIA

Learn for yourself the outstanding excellence of Italian Swiss Colony California

Sauterne by taking home a bottle tonight.

Chill it, and serve it with dinner. Note its fragrant bouquet as you lift your glass.

Then sip it slowly, so that you may enjoy fully its delicate, captivating flavor.

There is a world of difference in wines.

You'll prove this to yourself when you first taste this California Sauterne from world-famous Asti.

LIAN SWISS COLONY

MUAN SWISS COLON

Sauterne/

Street, arterial to West Seattle, also vas jammed.

A double crew of traffic officers was unable to keep the long lines of cars moving at more than 10 of cars moving at more than 10 miles an hour.

Capt. Harold E. Davis, head of the police traffic division, said the rerouting of southbound traffic over Airport Way to keep East Marginal Way clear for Boeing workers caused much of the delay.

Captain Holmes To

dealer, today was appointed volunteer morale officer of the civilian protection division of the Seattle Municipal Defense Commission by William O. McKay, civilian protection director.

Captain Holmes, a former intelligence officer in the Army, served Speakers.

Gray Heads, Too

But there were hundreds of gray heads, too—fathers and mothers and mothers hundreds of you, but you still look Oriental. Perhaps you feel, now, that your country has repudiated you. That is not true. I think we are the most tolerant become in many minds in the auditorium as he said:

"You were born in the United States, hundreds of you, but you still look Oriental. Perhaps you feel, now, that your country has repudiated you. That is not true. I think we are the most tolerant become in many minds in the auditorium as he said:

"You were born in the United States, hundreds of you, but you still look Oriental. Perhaps you feel, now, that your country has repudiated you. That is not true. I think we are the most tolerant become in many minds in the auditorium as he said:

"You were born in the United States, hundreds of you, but you still look Oriental. Perhaps you feel, now, that your country has repudiated you. That is not true. I think we are the most tolerant people in the auditorium as he said:

"You were born in the United States, hundreds of you, but you still look Oriental. Perhaps you feel, now, that your country has repudiated you. That is not true. I think we are the most tolerant people in the auditorium as he said:

"You were born in the United States, hundreds of you, but you still look Oriental. Perhaps you feel, now, that you country has repudiated you. That is not true. I think we are the most tolerant people in the auditorium as he said:

"You were born in the auditorium as he said:

"You were born in the June States, hundreds of you, but you states, hundreds of you, but you states, hundreds of you, but you said:

"You were born in the auditorium as he said:

"You were born in the June States, hundreds of you, but you said.

ordinance Passed resenting the Red Gross—did not have come here to five among us mince words. The mayor, commenting on the absence of violence between whites and Japanese in Seattle, warned Japan." $70,000 Yesler Way sections of the street was passed by the City Council yesterday afternoon and signed by Mayor Earl Millikin.

The work will be done between Third and Seventh Avenues and between 11th and 32nd Avenues. BOLE U. S. AGENTS: Schieffelin & Co., NEW YORK CITY • IMPORTERS SINCE 1794

Young, Old Japanese Grim In Denouncing Treachery

rush of last-minute Christmasshop-pers and South End traffic rerout-ing gave Seattle one of its worst ing gave Seattle one of its worst traffic jams of the year late yester-day afternoon.

From 5:20 to 6 o'clock, cars clogged streets throughout the central business district. Spokane Street article les St

States. The crowd-almost a quarter of the city's total Japanese popula-tion—rose and applauded grimly as the Japanese chairman of the meeting read a resolution con-demning the treachery of Japan at Pearl Harbor.

League, were American - born. selves by reporting any un-Ameri-There were men in business suits, can activity to the proper authoriyouths in slacks and sweaters, girls ties. Captain Holmes To

Head Morale Group

Captain Holmes To

Head Morale Group

Captain Holmes To

Head Morale Group

Captain Holmes To

Swith Bracks and sweaters, gill described smacked of the light campus. Outside, their American eign for blocks, and their conversation as they entered was interspersed with white the state of the properties of the propert

A combination of heavy rain, a rush of last-minute Christmasshop-torium of their newly dedicated good relations may depend not a rush of last-minute Christmasshop-torium of their newly dedicated good relations may depend not a rush of the rush of last-minute christmasshop-torium of their newly dedicated good relations may depend not a rush of the rush meeting, and James Y. Sakamoto, editor of The Japanese-American Courier and leading spirit of the Japanese - American Citizen's League, told the crowd that it should plan to "repudiate" any members of the colony who were

'Own Intelligence Service' "We have organized an intelligence service of our own," Saka-A majority of those who at-moto said. "Its members are not tended the meeting, called by the Japanese - American Citizens' to protect the country and ourcan activity to the proper authori-

Judge Allen, who spoke of for eign-born soldiers who had fought for the United States in wars of

There was an indefinable air of tenseness a bout the meeting gence officer in the Army, served Speakers—members of the Japanese organization, Mayor Early Millikin, Superior Judge Clay Allen, and Mrs. Leah McKay, rephase that war, even among Americans of long ancestry here, is over. You who must remember that the time for argument about this war, even among Americans of long ancestry here, is over. You who mince words.

Assuring rehabilitation of Yesler Way, an ordinance appropriating $70,000 to remove street-car tracks and blacktop two large Life to Lighted-Tree Contest

What with the war and the weather, the Seattle Times Out-acoor Lighted Christmas Tree con-test showed only faint signs of life in the contest because he is a test showed only faint signs of life up to yesterday.

If Santa Claus had been starting his rounds, even as late as last night, he undoubtedly would have noticed the scarcity of lighted trees as far north as Ballard and undoubtedly would have thrown trees as far north as Ballard and undoubtedly would have thrown Dunder, Blitzen and the rest of reindeer into reverse.

"Heck, fellas, let's go back to the North Pole where things are cheerful," he would have said. "This is no place for us. No civilian morale. No Christmas spirit. No Seattle spirit—say, what WAS the Seattle spirit?—no nothin. Of all the dead towns . . " and Santa would have traipsed right home, where things are cheerful-like.

Then-the Change But yesterday, at the eleventh hour, all that began to change. All over town, people began saying, "Well! Almost Christmas! Maybe "Well Almost Christmas: Maybe we'd better light the tree after all. The old chins-up and we-aren't-afraid-of-anybody idea. Where's that entry blank?"

So, today, there was a flurry of activity at headquarters of the Christmas Tree Contest. Mailmen Christmas Tree Contest. Maintend arrived, typewriters rattled like machine guns and one extra office boy was assigned to tell people that no, the contest hadn't closed: yes, there still was time to enter it, but

Just One Day Left

Just a day, in fact. Entries must reach The Times by tomorrow night, and trees must be lighted from 6 to 10 o'clock nightly, be-ginning tomorrow night and ending New Year's Eve. Why tomorrow night? Because it's Christmas Eve
...had you forgotten?
Lyman Day Morgan, illuminating

engineer who annually offers free advice to prospective entrants, said he had a number of calls yesterday from citizens who had graduated from the Quartermasters decided almost at the last minute to light trees at their homes. Mor-

W. Swift, Mrs. Arthur Hussey, Miss Camille Moore, Mrs. Carl Ballard, Mrs. Thomas Balmer, Mrs. Frederic Hansen, Mrs. Alexander Hepler, Mrs. Eunice Curtis. J. Lister Holmes, Arthur Loveless, Richard Anderson, Noble Hoggson, O. E. Holmdahl, Hector Escobosa, Ray Guasti, Thomas Gleed and Morgan.

The five final judges, who will view preliminary winners and select all-city winners of the four contest divisions Saturday night, are Dr. Walter Moore, Dr. John T. Hanley, Mrs. McMillan Pringle, Mrs. Henry C. Field and Mrs. Frank

101 Persons Win U. S. Citizenship

One hundred and one persons, were granted citizenship papers yesterday by United States District Judge Lloyd L. Black.

Mrs. O'Hara, who was born in Canada, came to Seattle 11 years ago. She served as acting French consul from June, 1940, until the next October, when the office was

2 Seattleites Graduated

Capt. O. H. Richardson and First ieut. Ralph A. Morgan, both of Seattle, were among 125 officers

Wounds Cost Life Of Everett Sailor Is 7th Italian General Missing in action

LONDON, Tuesday, Dec. 23.—(P) EVERETT, Tuesday, Dec. 23.— -The Vichy radio today broadcast (A)-Daniel L. Guisinger, Jr., son a Rome dispatch saying that Gen. of former State Representative and Guilio Borsarelli di Refreddo had Mrs. Dan L. Guisinger of Everett, died at Naples from wounds re- is missing after action, the Navy and false reports of purported ceived in Libya. He was commander Department yesterday informed his blackouts will be subject to arrest of the Trento division and was the parents here. Guisinger, a seaman seventh Italian general to lose his first class, had been in the Navy life in the war, the broadcast said. 14 months. and will face "a serious charge robably a gross misdemeanor, Indersheriff Louis J. Forbes warned

Forbes said that Sheriff William Severyns' office is receiving imerous calls from rural residents nouiring about supposed blackouts information they obtain from unofficial sources.

"These blackout rumors must and will be stopped," Forbes declared.

"Anyone giving out false and un-authorized reports of blackouts, directly or indirectly, is subject to arrest and may be charged with a

Forbes said the Interceptor Com-mand will give official orders on blackouts and that those spreading

Proposed for City

An ordinance creating the posi-tion of traffic analyst to aid in wartime traffic problems was introduced in the City Council yesterday afternoon. The job was suggested by Maxwell Halsey, Yale traffic specialist who completed a traffic specialist who completed a survey here recently.

The job will pay $185 a month.

false rumors should be reported.

Traffic Analyst

erious offense."

DON'T HESITATE TO BORROW

WHEN YOU'RE SHORT OF CASH

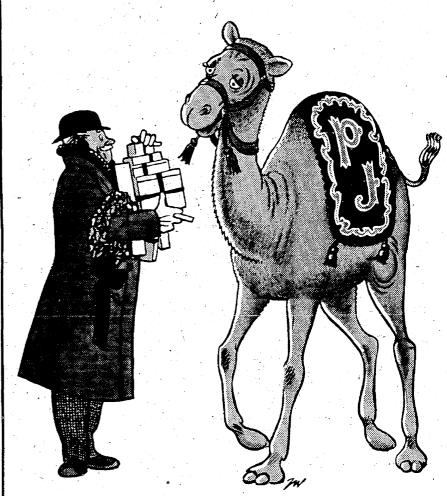

YOU'LL LIKE OUR Simplified Loan Method AND ITS MANY FINE FEATURES

Loans $10 to $300

WESTLAKE AVE. AT OLIVE WAY Old Times Building, Seattle • Tel. Main 5440

"The best Christmas BUY is the whiskey that's DRY!"

MAN: Why do you say Dry, my knock-kneed Oriental go-cart? CAMEL: Assuredly, O Giver of Gifts, for dryness (lack of sweetness) permits you to enjoy the full flavor of whiskey. For yourself, therefore. O Honoured of Men, and for your gifts, choose dry Paul Jones. Its superb flavor will bring honour to your name and its modest price will be gentle to your budget. For these reasons, O Prince, I say-the best Christmas buy is the whiskey that's Dry!

