HALTED IN BURMA

RANGOON, Burma, Monday, Feb 9.— (UP) — Non-essential civilians were leaving Burma's capital today because of heavy Japanese air raids. The evacuation was urged by Gov. Hugh Dorman Smith, who said Rangoon was vulnerable to bombings "despite the magnificent de-fense put up by the A. V. G. (American Volunteer Group), the R. A. F. and our anti-aircraft gunners."

RANGOON, Burma, Monday, Feb. 9.—(A)—Crack Chinese fighters and fresh Indian troops bolstered the British today on the Salween River sector, where Japan's drive toward Rangoon and China's last gateway to the sea was stalled in Northern Burma and, possibly, broken.
