NAVY MEN TELL OF HAVOC LEFT IN JAP ISLES

SHIPS, SUPPLIES PLANES RUINED

Islands with a devastating fivehour surprise bombardment that ships, including a modern cruiser, and more than 38 enemy airplanes. anti-aircraft guns. Japanese divebre to eight other ships were bombers mistakenly bombed and damaged.

"We sure raised hell among those birds," one sailor said in summing up the February 1 attack on the Japanese Pacific islands, where the Navy exacted the first installment of revenge for Pearl Harbor. The Score of Battle up the results as follows:

Thirty-eight Japanese planes, in-cluding 28 bombers, known destroyed.

Fifteen to 17 Japanese vessels known sunk or destroyed, including a modern cruiser, a 17,000-ton liner their magnificent resistance to of the Yawata class and three big Japanese invasion.

"In behalf of his troops General in their magnificent resistance to of the Yawata class and three big Japanese invasion.

airfields damaged.

ability to strike even as far away as Japan.

Here is the way the officers and later sent their bombers out as we were leaving, one pilot, whose plane was damaged, made a suicide dive with his engines afire, in an effort to crash on the deck of an airplane carrier.

"He hit the deck outboard and went over the side into the sea, causing only superficial damage.

"As the Fleet steamed in for the Imperial Japanese Forces." "2. There is nothing to repor initial blanket aerial and bombard-ment attack on all objectives at 6:58 a. m., we spotted the dull green tops of coconut palms on the horizon—then the white lines of the coral bar and the surf.

red.

"The range was so close that all attacks are now available.

twice.

American Planes Superior American carrier-based planes proved superior to the Japanese land-based craft in both speed and

The American planes had taken off from the carrier several hours before the attack. They bombed Wotje (in the Marshall group) and inaccurate anti-aircraft fire.

The pilots snickered at the enemy's wide misses as they approached their targets. The Japanese planes took the air and the flight leader and his wing man scored a brilliant downing four of 12 llanes which engaged planes one witness said.

blond youngster from Milwaukee "Luck was riding with me that day.'

His comrades, however, said he had shown great skill, as did one of his wing men. After recovering from a first dive, they returned at low altitude to machine-gun and found themselves facing a dozen enemy fighters. The wingmen enemy fighters. The wingmen liew, well-equipped airfield was and destructions, also carried out in the downed one and collided with an-itacked. Two hangars, all fuel other which crashed, while the tanks and industrial buildings were flight leader got two. Both returned safely with their planes to the carrier although the flight plus five fighters and six bombers in the ground were also destroyed. Seven fighter planes to the carrier although the flight plus five fighters and six bombers on the ground were also destroyed. Seven fighter planes to the carrier although the flight command communique said to find anything of use to him.

"No further reports have been received from other theatres of war in The Netherlands Indies archipelago.

"East and south of El Mechili, war in The Netherlands Indies archipelago.

"Along the Via Balbo and around Bardia, our aircraft bombed enemy "Themw air activity was mainly archipelago." one rudder control was gone and the other was frayed. He was

A volcanic lake which hoils at one end and freezes at the other has been found on Unimak Island,

Communiques

-FAR EASTERN FRONT-UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, Friday, Feb. 13. PEARL HARBOR. Hawaii, Friday, Feb. 13.—Warships and planes issued at 9:30 a. m. Eastern War of the United States Navy bat-Time (6:30 a. m. Seattle time) said tered the Marshall and Gilbert today:

"1. Philippine theatre:
"Aggressive enemy patrol action hour surprise bombardment that characterized sporadic fighting in destroyed 15 to 17 Japanese naval Bataan during the past 24 hours. "Enemy dive-bombers were ac-machine-gunned their own infantry, with heavy casualties. The victims of the erroneous attack were elements of the 122nd Japanese Regiment of Gen. Akira Nara's 65th Division. "2. There is nothing to report from other areas.

The Score of Battle
The War Department's comOfficial statistics tersely summed munique No. 104, issued yesterday afternoon, said:

"1. Philippine theatre:
"General MacArthur is in receipt

"In behalf of his troops, General Five to eight others beached, MacArthur has sent his appreciaeity damaged or possibly sunk. heavily damaged or possibly sunk. tive acknowledgment to the Five hangars destroyed and four speaker of the Puerto Rican House of Representatives.

Numerous enemy bases and facilities bombed, including three gasmitted to the War Department the oline dumps, a barracks area, six text of a proclamation issued by the buildings, two munitions dumps, radio stations, and a number of in the Philippines forbidding the The United States forces lost 11 planes and suffered superficial damage to two ships.

Naval officials and suffered superficial periodicals without permission of the Japanese.

damage to two ships.

Naval officials said the power and the surprise of the American attack were emphasized by destruction of approximately 85 per cent of the large Japanese bomber of the large Japanese bomber of the large Japanese bomber of and 80 per cent of the shipping sighted.

Taken by Surprise

the Japanese.

"The proclamation follows:

"Anyone who wants to print and publish newspaper, magazine or pamphlet, etc., should apply and obtain the permit from the author ers, two submarines, five cargo vessels, and three smaller ships, were destroyed.

Administration of the Imperial Japanese Forces, stating clearly the following items: (1) object of publishing the proclamation follows:

"Anyone who wants to print and destroyer, three large fleet tankers, two submarines, five cargo vessels, and three smaller ships, were destroyed. Witnesses of the attack on the eight Japanese-mandated islands, in an area of about 140,000 square number of copies to be printed, shore establishments was as folan area of about 140,000 square number of copies to be printed, shore establishments was as folmiles, said the three weeks the fleet spent at sea had indicated its to be used, (5) the expected date of "At Roi—Two hangars, ammunity of the paper lows:

"'At the time of issuance of building. men who did the fighting described newspaper, magazine or pamphlet, the action:

"At Wotje—Entire shore instalted action: "The Japanese didn't have the faintest idea the attack was coming.
"We caught them wide open and they soon found out. When they

They should undergo censor-lations—two hangars, oil and gas storage and storehouses, two anti-aircraft batteries and five intermediate coastal guns.

"At Taroa—Two hangars, all

"The issuance or distribution of fuel tanks and industrial buildings.

"The raid of our forces on the the printed matters already printed shall be prohibited for the time

The Navy Department, in communique No. 39, said last night:

"Central Pacific: On February 1, 1942, the Navy Department an-"Our warships raced through the nounced that units of the United creamy water. There was a sudden States Pacific Fleet had made surroar of guns. Then salvo after price attacks on Japanese naval salvo from the biggest rifles were and air bases in the Marshall and the damage could be observed.

There was only a pitiful response from the Japanese shore batteries. Our guns fired again. The shore batteries were soon out of commissions, raided the Japanese stroyers, raided the Japanese of guis inter again. The state and description of commission.

"Then our planes came. They finished the job."

The attack was a simultaneous air and naval blow at eight islands in an area 400 miles long and 350 miles wide, lasting from 6:58 a. m. juntil 11:15 a m.

"Roi Island—In this i land of the was located with twelve each island. I ghter planes and several bombers.

Two hangars, an ammunition acting under orders of Admiral talina also was attacked.
The description of talina also was attacked.
The enemy continued the planes are the planes and the planes are the planes.
The started are the planes are the planes are the planes are the planes.
The enemy continued the planes are the planes are the planes are the planes.
The planes are the storage and warehouses, a radio the attacks against the islands of building and three fighter planes Jaluit and Makin.

"Vice Admiral Halsey has been the storage of the control of the storage of the st Wotje (in the Marshall group) while the Fleet crept close under cover of darkness with all guns manned and all precautions taken against an enemy attack. Taro also was attacked.

"But the onslaught was a complete surprise and the attackers met air opposition only at Taroa, where at first there was desultory and invested in the seal attacked.

"Kwajalein Island—At 'his anch-tacks on Japanese strongholds and for driving them home with great tacks on Japanese strongholds and for driving them home with great skill and determination.

Comdr. Miles R. Browning. chief of staff to Admiral Halsey, has been recommended for promotion to captain.

"Appropriate rewards to other officers and men may be expected later when all recommendations of staff."

BERLIN—(From German broad-casts), Friday, Feb. 13.—(P)—The High Command issued this communique today.

tacks were four scout bombers.

"Wotje Atoll-No planes were found on the Wotje Atoll. There were present, however, nine ves-sels of various categories in the sels of various categories in the harbor. Four cargo vessels of about 5.000 tons each were destroyed in addition to the stroyed in addition to the said: The flight leader was a tall, stroyed in addition to three smaller ships. The entire shore installation consisting of two hangars, oil announcement regarding a Japation consisting of two hangars, oil and gasoline storage, shops and storehouses, two anti-aircraft batteries and five coastal guns, was and teries and five coastal guns, was and the correct.

"Recent reports show that last fighters shot down two analysis of the course of German plane aerial common that course of German plane aerial common two attacks on airdromes and naval were lost. "On the fighters shot down two analysis of the course of German plane aerial common transported in the course of German plane aerial common transported in the course of German plane aerial common transported in the course of German plane aerial common transported in the course of German plane aerial common transported in the course of German plane aerial common transported in the course of German plane aerial common transported in the course of German plane attacks on airdromes and naval were lost. completely destroyed.

to our attacking forces.

"Taroa Island—On this island a new, well-equipped airfield was at-destructions, also carried out in "Our only loss in this attack was one scout homber. In addition, a United States cruiser sustained a hit from one small bomb

"Recapitulation — Enemy losses from Admiral Halsey's combined attacks included one

SKI

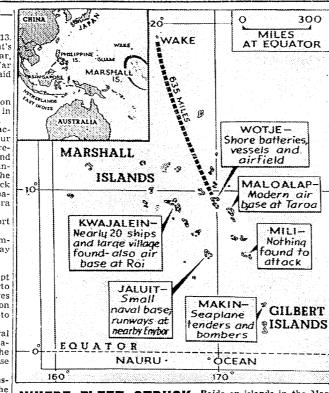

3.95

17,000-ton aircraft carrier of the

SKATES 10.95

Bataan Fighting More Intense; Nazi Warships Escape British

WHERE FLEET STRUCK Raids on islands in the Marshall and Gilbert groups by the United States Navy February 1 resulted in the sinking of five Japanese warships and 11 auxiliary ships, the destruction of 41 Japanese planes and the smashing of shore installations. Map shows islands attacked.—Map prepared by the Associated Press and transmitted by wirephoto.

LUZON

MINDORO MASBATE SAMAR

PANAT CEBU NEGROS SETU

"In North Africa there was patrol activity on both sides. German

"In the course of German plane

ITALIAN

ROME—(From Italian broad-casts), Friday, Feb. 13.—(A)—The

"In aerial combat over Malta and the Central Mediterranean, German fighters shot down three British planes.

"The Germans also bombed mil-

Seven natives were wounded

"Last night and the night before enemy aircraft dropped high-

-WESTERN FRONT-

fuel dumps afire.

and dive-bombers

ombers

PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

P & C 1 7 1 C OCEAR

issuance, (6) the name of printing tion dumps, fuel storage, all store firm.

other areas."

The Navy's communique No. 40, issued this morning, sid:

"Enemy losses in the naval raid of January 31. 1942, conducted by ships and planes of the United States Pacific Fleet against Japanese bases in the Marshall and Gilbert Islands totaled 16 ships and 41 planes.

States.—Jlap prepared by the Associated Press and transmitted by wirephoto.

Wirephoto.

Were shot down and several other enemy bombers and fighters separately damaged.

bombers, which failed to return, four from the islands of Roi and Kwajalein, one from the island of Taroa, and six from the islands of The enemy aircraft dived through the clouds and was lost to view Jaluit and Makin.

"In carrying out the raids on the several islands, Vice Adm. William F. Halsey, Jr., divided his surface."

"On Wednesday, Jr., divided his surface." Jaluit and Makin. inished the job."

The attack was a simultaneous ir and naval blow at eight islands on an area 400 miles long and 350 niles wide, lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting from 6:58 a. m. of the islands were attacked lasting grounds at Martuba, but the force at its destination perfectly, he observed.

"The results of these zepar islands, Vice Adm. William of the Marshall group and Making is completely destroyed.

"On Wednesday night, February 11-12, our bombers attacked land ing grounds at Martuba, but the feftets of the bombing could not be observed.

"On the same night the harbor attacked land ing grounds at Martuba, but the feftets of the bombing could not be observed.

"On the same night the harbor attacked land a large of the bombing could not be observed.

"On the same attacked land a large of the bombing could not be observed.

"On the same attacked land a large of the bombing could not be observed.

"On the same attacked land a large of the bombing could not be observed.

"On the same attacked land a large of the bombing could not be observed.

"On the same attacked land a large of the bombing could n and six scout bombers in the air, in addition to one bomber on the warded the Distinguished Service Medal for planning and conducting "Kwajalein Island—At this anchorage ten surface ships, five sub-large seaplanes. Other enemy vessels weer badly damaged.

"Our losses in the two above attacks were four sout hombers."
"There is nothing to report from other areas.'

DUTCH

BATAVIA, Friday, Feb. 13.-(A)

"Telegraphic reports from Ma-British airdromes in Marmarica.

"Recent reports show that last bases at Malta, German escort vening the harbor district of Magraph assar was still on fire as a result planes." ompletely destroyed. evening the harbor district of Ma-"There was no damage or loss cassar was still on fire as a result

"Enemy air activity was mainly confined to reconnaissance over the outer provinces.'

—AFRICAN FRONT— BRITISH

CAIRO, Friday, Feb. 13.—(A)— The British Middle East Headquar-The British Middle East Headquaritary objectives on the Island of ers issued this communique today: Malta. Direct hits were scored by "There is no change to report in heavy bombs on the fuel depots of the general situation. Valletta.

"Our patrols again were active "Seven buildings were damaged in the area south of Tmimi and to-at Tripoli in an enemy air raid. ward El Mechili. Royal Air Force communique said today: "An attempt to raid Tobruk harbor by a large formation of enemy bombers, escorted by fighters, lage." prevented by our fighters yesterday, February 12.

"Our aircraft engaged the enemy before they reached their target. In the ensuing combat, three JU-88s and one Macchi C-200 joint communique today said "At about 11 a, m. yesterday (Thursday) R. A. F. aircraft reported an enemy squadron consisting of the Scharnhorst, the Gneisenau and the Prinz Eugen, accompanied by destroyers, torpedo boats, E-boats and minesweepers.

"The enemy squadron also was from the west.

craft of the Dover naval com-enemy fighters.

"Reports indicate the Swordfish perts are bound to start rechecking scored at least one hit or one of the heated arguments as to the enemy heavy ships and one of the motor torpedo-boats also doom of the surface warship. claimed a possible hit, but owing Went Through 100 Bomb-Raids to the intense barrage and the heavy smoke screen put up by the enemy it was impossible to see the results of the attack.

which was replied to by enemy were specifically directed a these each of the main enemy units was hit by bombs.

"The attacks were pressed home with the greatest determination in the face of heavy anti-aircraft fire and strong fighter opposition which resulted in the loss of 20 of our bombers (including five aircraft his ships weren't any good to him of the Coastal Command) and 16 "Fifteen enemy fighters were destroyed by our fighter escort and at least three more by the bombers themselves.

HOLD WIDENED Extending their sighted the enemy. "At 3:34 p. m. our destroyers sighted the enemy and went into the attack in the face of very heavy shall be prohibited for the time being.

"Anyone who violates any of the above mentioned provisions shell be severely punished in accordance with the military laws.

"The commander in chief the Imperial Japanese Forces."

"2. There is nothing to report from other areas."

siand of Jaluit was conducted in a heavy rainstorm. Our aircraft at attacked two enemy auxiliary vessels, badly damaging one of them.

"At Makin Island, these forces destroyed we enemy patrol planes was destroyed two enemy patrol planes was destroyed at sea.

"There is nothing to report from other areas."

ter of a communications network linked by radio to the United States.—Map prepared by the Aspossible to be certain of the result of the attack, but there is reason to believe that at least one torpedo hit was obtained.

"Casualties in our destroyers ese bases in the Marshall and Gilert Islands totaled 16 ships and 41 lanes.

"Two of our fighters were lost of our losses totaled 11 scout ombers, which failed to return,"

"In the Matruh area, a Heinberg were before the enemy bombers and fighters sewere not heavy.

"When last sighted the enemy had become separated and were making for ports in the Helgoland Bight.

"Further reports from our forces are awaited.

at Tripoli was raided and a large fire started. An airdrome at Catalina also was attacked.

"Units under the command of Wice Admiral Ciliax, consisting of Malta during the night of February 11-12 and also on the fol-Gneiseuan and the cruiser Prinz

"The operations of our naval forces were supported by strong Luftwaffe formations under su preme command of Field Marshal General Sperrie. "Enemy air forces' losses condent and the sent by President Rosevelt to the Senate today Fort Louden. His mother lives in tacked important military objectives in the port of Tobruk and of 43 planes, of which the major-ity were shot down in aerial combat by German fighters, and the Second Division of Alaska, with remainder by anti-aircraft artillery headquarters at Nome. Mozee is Michigan Governor of the auxiliary forces. "In the course of the fierce aerial combat, seven of our planes "On the British south coast, Ger man bombers carried out low-level attacks on harbor installations and airdromes and dropped bombs of

-EASTERN FRONT-

Bardia, our aircraft bombed enemy motorized concentrations and set ued his attacks on numerous secheavy caliber.'

"On the Donets sector, our at of stubborn enemy resistance. "In waters east of the Crimea, the course of these, heavy bloody

RUSSIAN -The Soviet Information Bureau roadcast this communique today: fire on a retreating enemy trans-"During the night of February port column and destroyed six 12-13 our troops carried out of-fensive operations against the Ger-provisions and a staff car.

man Fascist troops. -WESTERN FRONT—BRITISH

LONDON, Friday, Feb. 13.—(P)

An Admiralty and Air Ministry tured a large quantity of arms and man officers and men."

One of our cavary units operating in one occupied atting in occupied

FUEHRER AGAIN

By DEWITT MacKENZIE

Wide World Service War Analyst Again Herr Hitler has demon strated, through the astonishing escape of his battleships from was approaching the Dover Straits Brest, that it's supreme daring which does it

This sensational coup exemplifies heavily escorted by fighter airthe cardinal principle underlying "Visibility at this time varied from three to five miles, with low greatly. True, the Germans are clouds and the cream of the control of the clouds, and the enemy ships were meticulous in their preparations never visible from the English coast. ordinarily, but once they are set On receipt of the report, coastal for action they don't hesitate to mand immediately were sent out to attack, together with Swordfish aircraft of the Fleet Air Arm, strongly escorted by P. A. F. fight-ers. try to draw conclusions at this "Attacks by both Swordfish and stage from the naval demonstra-coastal aircraft were pressed close tion, before it is sure that the to home in the face of intense fire Nazi fleet has reached the protecfrom all vessels and opposition by tion of the big German naval base at Helgoland safely. Still, naval ex-

There certainly is food for thought in the manner in which nemy it was impossible to see the the Nazi fleet stood up under the sults of the attack.

"Six Swordfish aircraft are miss- of this battle. And there is even ing but some of the crews have more reflection in the fact that been saved. There were no casualties in the coastal craft.

more reflection in the fact that while the two German battleships were anchored at Brest they went "During this time the Dover de-enses opened fire at extreme range bombing raids, some 66 of which accorded by fighters.

Ine results were difficult to see cwing to low clouds, but according to preliminary reports Coastal Command Beauforts claimed three protected against aerial torpedoes its.

"The Bomber Coastal Command Beauforts claimed three protected against aerial torpedoes in the harbor, but "The Bomber Coastal Command Beauforts claimed three protected against aerial torpedoes in the harbor, but "The Bomber Coastal Co

What is Hitler up to? Well, if we knew that we could go places. However, we do know that he is preparing feverishly for his spring offensive and the indications are that this will involve an all-out attack on Allied shipping and Anglo-

He'll Have Tidy Fleet

If he has been able to get the In Oregon Round-Up Gneisenau and Scharnhorst safely to cover, with their escort, he will 13—(A)—Sweeping raids on enemy themselves.

"Destroyers under the command of Capt. C. T. M. Pizey, R. N., in the consessor of a very tidy little navy. He is supposed to have five battleships (with two others either to intercept and attack the enemy. "At 3:34 p. m. our destroyers sighted the enemy and went into the attack in the face of very heavy bombing by enemy aircraft and also heavy gunfire from all the enemy's surface ships.

To cover, with their escort, he will 13.—(P)—Sweeping raids on enemy alien homes near the Tongue Point Naval Air Station, Fort Stevens, Astoria. Hammond and Warrentown brought arrest to two Japanese, one German and one Italian late yesterday.

J. Douglas Swenson, Portland Federal Bureau of Investigation agent, said eight guns, ammunismined to obtain possession of the little seems determined to obtain possessor of a very tidy little navy. He is supposed to have five battleships (with two others either Astoria. Hammond and Warrentown brought arrest to two Japanese, one German and one Italian late yesterday.

J. Douglas Swenson, Portland Federal Bureau of Investigation agent, said eight guns, ammunismined to obtain possessor of the little seems determined to obtain possessor of a very tidy little navy. He is supposed to have five later Tongue Point Naval Air Station, Fort Stevens, Astoria. Hammond and Warrentown brought arrest to two Japanese, one German and one Italian late yesterday.

J. Douglas Swenson, Portland Federal Bureau of Investigation agent, said eight guns, ammunismined to obtain possession of the little seems determined to have a very later to two Japanese.

bate (in circle). Nearby Cebu, now threatened, has been the center of a communications network library for the first than the communication in the com solini between them would have a Japs Remain Home formidable navy.

There is no doubt that Hitler is preparing to cooperate as fully as possible with his Japanese allies and that in the back of his head is the thought that their flagships may be able to exchange salutes on the Indian Ocean. If they get that far they likely will be ex-changing shots as well, to see who will get India as a prize. But that's another story.

Japs Doing Their Part

GERMAN

Meanwhile the Japs are continuing to do their part to make this casts), Friday. Feb. 13.—(P)—The High Command said in a communique today:

Meanwhile the Japs are continuing to do their part to make this casts), Friday. Feb. 13.—(P)—The held out, but while Hitler's conunderstood "only one or two" of them were American citizens.

completely nullified as an Allied naval and air base, and this greatly facilitates the Nipponese preparaanese was held in Somerset county tions for the assault on Java and jail today after he was halted

All of which rather gloomy discussion seems to fit in well with and set another ablaze, according able to intercept, and was shot down into the enemy aircraft problestroyed.

British air force were repulsed with leavy losses.

"Only one German torpedo boat of the properties of the "Only one German torpedo boat Jap bases in the Pacific. And the "Only one German torpedo boat Jap bases in the Facilic. And the wait for Fort Louden, Pa., where was slightly damaged by bombs. Russians are getting ahead with wait for Fort Louden, Pa., where the job so well that they finally he had been promised a job. He sunk after it had shot down an attacking plane.

Russia. That's something to get lovestigation. along with.

F. R. Renominates Mozee WASHINGTON, Friday, Feb. 13. (P)-Nominations sent by Presiincluded Benjamin B. Mozee to Japan. be United States marshal for the the incumbent.

ammunition, including machine guns and automatic rifles. "On another sector of the front

"On another sector of the front, Kuznetsov's unit repulsed a counter-attack by an enemy regiment and destroyed a German heavy tank. More than 200 enemy officiank. More than 200 enemy officials. Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner, Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner, "and were left dead on the content of the tors of the front and suffered, in more than 1,000 officers and men islature for the change. killed.

"Our units operating on various sectors of the Leningrad sector durtack made further progress in spite ing one day annihilated 1,200 Ger-of stubborn enemy resistance.

"Sviridov's units attacked Gerthe Luftwaffe heavily damaged a man positions and destroyed 26 large transport with bombs." five mortars, 18 guns and 26 ma-MOSCOW, Friday, Feb. 13.—(#) quantity of other material. "A Soviet mine-thrower opened an Fascist troops.

"A detachment of guerrillas operating in one occupied district in

LOG OF ATTACK

PEARL HARBOR, T. H., Friday, Fleet on Japanese bases in the Sombat ships.

Military airbases destroyed:
Taroa, Wotje, Roi and Enybor.
Military villages Jestroyed:
Kwajale and Roi.

Military villages Jestroyed:
Kwajale and Roi.

Jestroyed:
Jr., has been awarded the Distin-

Japs, Who 'Wouldn't Aid U.S.' Arrested

SAN FRANCISCO, Friday, Feb. 13.—(P)—Three Japanese who assertedly "wouldn't do anything to help the United States," were sailed by Federal Bureau of Invesligation agents today and held "en oute to immigration.

Among them were two Japanese army reserve officers. All three, former employes of the Yokohama Specie Bank here, were arrested in an apartment in San Francisco's George LaFray, chairman of the an apartment in San Francisco's George LaFray, chairman of the Japanese quarter.

Nat Pieper, agent in charge of the F. B. I. office here, identified the three as Ikeda Uma; 35 years old, Japanese army reserve officer who said he would gladly "fight for Japan against the United States"; Haruo Oaki, 34, reserve officer who served eight years of drive home the true significance of ordive home the true significance of officer who served eight years drive home the true significance of with the Japanese army and would the occasion."

This is the 23rd year the post Japan," and Yasuyuki Doi, 35, who "wouldn't do anything to help the United States."

Four Aliens Taken

After Strike Threat

PORTLAND, Or., Friday, Feb. 13.—(UP)—A threatened walkout of Congress of Industrial Organizations unionists at the Clark & Wilson Lumber Company here was averted today when Japanese la-borers remained at home, St. John's police officers reported

The unionists had refused to work if the 12 Japanese remained on the job, said Patrolman J. F Hilton.

SOMERSET, Pa. Friday Feb. 13. —(UP)—An American-born Jap-Sumatra, which won't be long de-layed now.

by state police at the Allegheny Tunnel on the Pennsylvania Turn-All of which rather gloomy dis- pike because he had 1941 California

Kurimoto was born in Seattle, and worked as a lumber-grader n Washington before he went to Los Angeles. He has two sisters one living in Seattle and another in Los Angeles, and a brother at Blocks Time Shift volume.

DETROIT, Friday, Feb. 13.—(A) Michigan isn't going to turn its clocks back at 2 a. m. Monday as phone best suited to your needs.

confronted by what he termed " spontaneous flood" of protest

NAVY REWARDS

WASHINGTON, Friday, Feb. 13. -(A)-The Navy announced today Marshall and Gilbert Islands.

Time of the assault: 6:58 a. m., February 1.

Island objectives: Marshall and Gilbert groups.

Attacking force: All types of combat ships.

Kwajale and Roi.
Ships destroyed: At least 16.
Ships damaged: At least 16.
Ships damaged: At least eight, plus smaller vessels.
Total tonnage sunk: In excess of 100,000 tons.
Total tonnage dam.ged: Estimated 50,000 tons.
Aircraft destroyed: 38 plus unit mated 50,000 tons.

Aircraft destroyed: 38 plus undetermined number on the ground.
Radio stations leveled: Four major stations.

Major objective of the attack:
To smash the Japanese mid-Pacific Marshalton. Joya whose home To smash the Japanese mid-Pacific Marshalltown, Iowa, whose home

Maryland. No reward to Fletcher was mentioned in the communique, but the general praise of further recogniion was held out by the Navy "when all recommendations have been received and acted upon."

Legion May Skip Fireworks on '4th'

arily sponsored by Seattle Post No. 1 of the American Legion on Independence Day probably will not be pendence Day observance. 112 British Dead,

Missing in Raids LONDON, Friday, Feb. 13.—(A)-

SEE THIS Vacuum Tube

HEARING AID

Users say:

"It's the Best Yet! THERE'S a surprise in store for you when you try the new Ortho-tronic Audiphone. It repro-duces speech and music with a vibrant, living quality that is almost unbelievable. It is the finest hearing aid ever created by Bell Telephone Laboratories and Western

Consider these features

 Brings to the hard of hearing the advantages of Stabilized Feed-back — a Bell Telephone Laboratories development which gave new fidelity to the art of speech transmission. 2. Has a Tone Discriminator enabling the user to understand more under noisy conditions. 3. Has Overload Limitation, venting unpleasant blasts from loud sounds. 4. Includes a Scaled Crystal Microphone, stabilized against the changes in temperature and humidity. 5. Provides for easy regulation of Hear for yourself! An audiometric test enables your phone best suited to your needs. Go to him—experience for the first time the remarkable tonal clarity of the Ortho-tronic Hearing is Believing!

See the Western Electric Hearing Aids NO FEDERAL TAX ON HEARING AIDS Audiphone Co. 4th and Pike Bldg. OPP. GREEN BLDG.

Tests during 10 years' research showed

LISTERINE USERS had FEWER COLDS!

Fight the menace of colds intelli- fewer colds, milder colds, and colds gently! Remember that in tests of shorter duration than those conducted during ten years of who did not use it. So be on guard! research, those who gargled Lis- Gargle full strength Listerine terine Antiseptic twice a day had Antiseptic . . . at least twice a day.

BE WISE...AT THE FIRST SIGN OF A COLD SEE YOUR DOCTOR

Skis, Bindings, Poles, Boots, Pants and Jacket