

JAPS REGISTER WHILE WORKING

Working in their truck garden while waiting for evacuation orders, these two Puyallup Valley Japanese women are shown as they were registered yesterday by William Hosokawa of the Japanese-American Citizens' League. The league is registering alien and American-born Japanese so that they can keep in touch with friends and relatives when they are moved inland.