

WELCOME, GENERAL

ALLIED OFFICERS GREET M'ARTHUR

IN MELBOURNE YESTERDAY Gen. Douglas MacArthur (right, light uniform), was greeted by officers representing United Nations forces as he arrived in Melbourne from Adelaide, Australia. This picture was radioed from Melbourne to London and from London to New York yesterday.—Wirephoto.

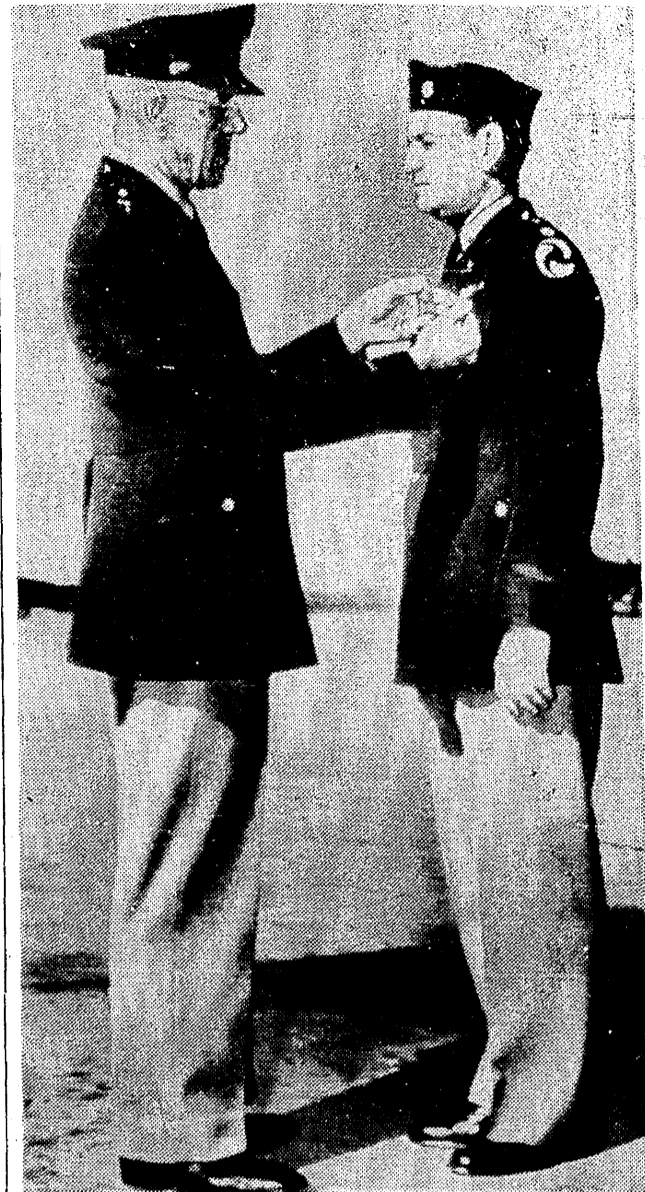

BRETT MEETS M'ARTHUR

IN MELBOURNE As Gen. Douglas M'Arthur (center), arrived in Melbourne from Adelaide, Australia, yesterday he left the railroad station with his deputy supreme commander, Lieut. Gen. George H. Brett (right). General Brett, expert on aerial warfare, will assist General MacArthur in mapping his airplane drives against the Japs. This picture was radioed from Melbourne to London and from London to New York.—Wirephoto.

DISTINGUISHED

PIONEER OF SEA ROUTE

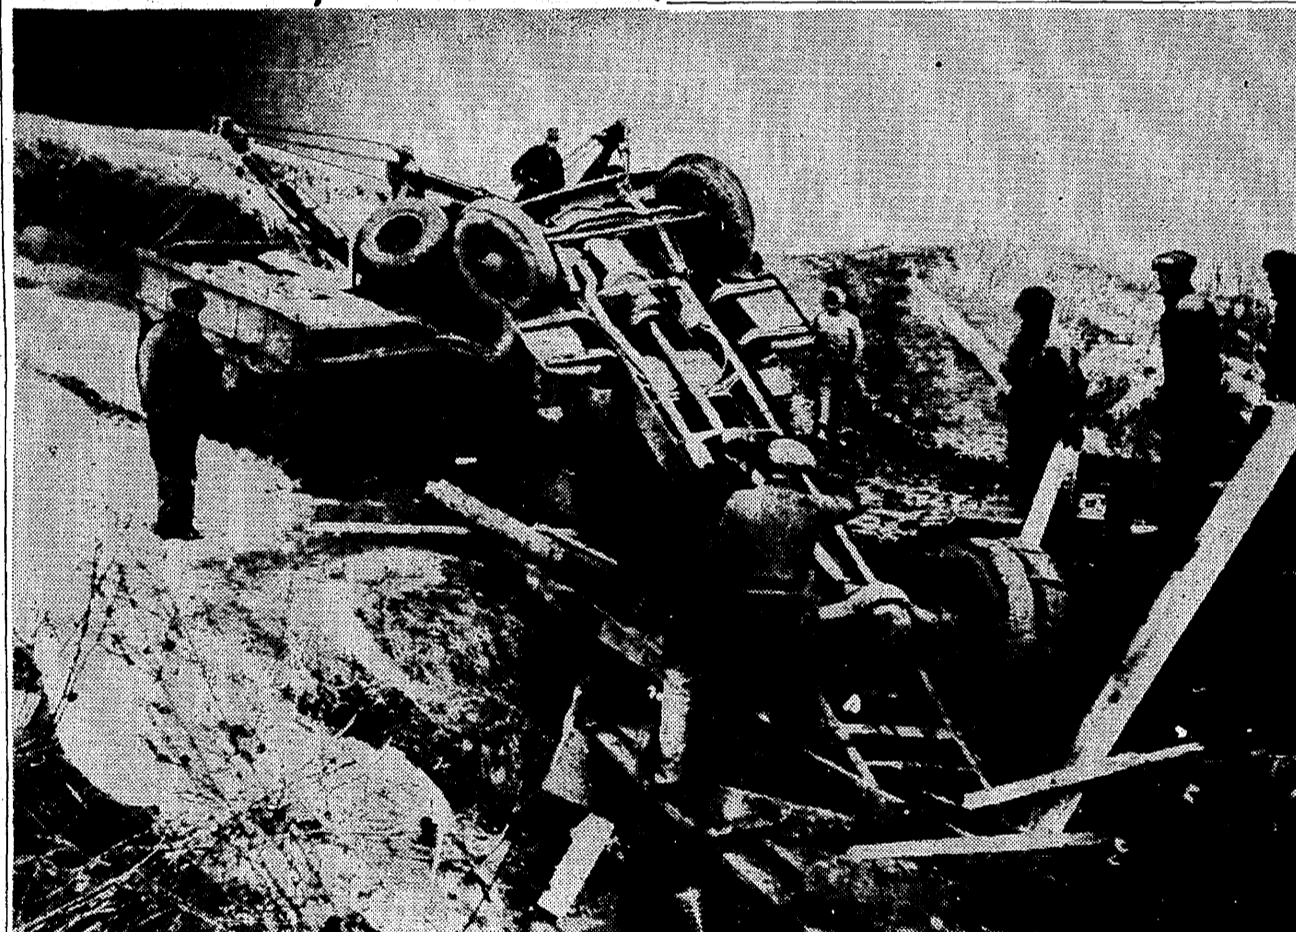

IN PENDLETON, OR. Lieut. Col. Curtis E. LeMay, Columbus, Ohio (left), received the Distinguished Flying Cross from Maj. Gen. Frederick L. Martin for his pioneer survey flight on the South Atlantic supply route. This is an official Air Corps photograph.—Wirephoto.

EXODUS OF L. A. JAPANESE BEGINS

IN LOS ANGELES YESTERDAY Beginning the nation's greatest forced migration, these Japanese boarded busses which transported them to Owens Valley, 235 miles north of Los Angeles, where the government's first alien reception center is under construction. The nearly one hundred Japanese who left yesterday were skilled workers who will help prepare the camp for thousands of others to arrive later.—Wirephoto.

ON ALASKA ROAD

SOMEWHERE IN BRITISH COLUMBIA A United States Army wrecker pulled this Canadian civilian truck from a ditch after the vehicle overturned while hauling supplies for the new Alaska Highway project from Fort St. John to Fort Nelson. Supplies are being rushed before the spring break-up.

'BEST-DRESSED' WOMEN IN U. S. SELECTED

RAIL STRIKERS CHEER F. R.'S VERDICT

IN PEORIA, ILL., YESTERDAY Pickets in front of a shanty near the main entrance to the railroad yards cheered the verdict of President Roosevelt ordering the government to take over the T. F. & W. Railroad. The up-side-down sign was an indication the strike was over and the "V" of two-by-fours was a "V" for victory.—Wirephoto.
