

2 Japanese Held in Railway Bridge Fires

SAN DIEGO, Calif., March 31.—(AP)—Federal Bureau of Investigation agents reported today two Japanese had been detailed for questioning in connection with the burning of two Southern Pacific Railway trestles near Niland Sunday.

Harold Nathan, Federal Bureau of Investigation chief here, said no definite information linking the Japanese with the fires had been obtained, but they were detailed because they were living near the bridges.