

TROUSERS TRIMMED FOR TRIUMPH

A. P. Wirephotos

SISTER SUSIE'S SNIPPERS

WOOL GATHERING The First World War produced the song: "Sister Susie's Sewing Shirts for Soldiers." Current war—as yet unnamed—is producing trouser trim-

'THE KID, JR.'

IN HOLLYWOOD Mrs. Jackie Coogan, the former Flower Parry, holds their month-old son, John Anthony, while giving him his bottle in his first appearance before a camera yesterday. "The Kid" of the silent "movies," now a soldier, announced last week he and his wife had separated.—A. P. wirephoto.

TOO HOT TO HANDLE

'AMERICAN MOTHER' GATHERS SOME OF FAMILY

IN GREENSBORO, N. C. Mrs. William N. Berry, who was chosen last night as the Golden Rule Foundation's "American Mother of 1942," smiled as she gathered 7 of her 13 children for a recent family dinner at home. Left to right are Steven, 9 year old; Teresa, 17; Ann, 19; Francis, 25; Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Berry, John, John's wife; Benedict, 16, and Tom, 13. One other son is at Annapolis, another in the Army, one will be ordained as a priest next month, and two daughters are nurses. (Mrs. Nona Hungate of Cheney was named Associate Mother for the State of Washington.)—A. P. wirephoto.

'FOR THE DURATION'

IN BALBOA, C. Z. With full equipment, including a pair of boxing gloves and a guitar, this alien was removed from a detention camp in the Canal Zone this week and put aboard a train for transfer to the United States and Internment for the duration of the war. Army authorities called him "Otto" and described him as unofficial mayor of the German faction held in the detention camp.—A. P. wireless.

YOUNG EVACUEE

IN SAN FRANCISCO YESTERDAY Perched on baggage, with a soldier standing by, this small Japanese evacuee awaited the return of his parents. They were among 660 Japanese evacuated from San Francisco and sent to Santa Anita Race Track near Los Angeles, assembly center for Japanese aliens and American-born Japanese.—A. P. wirephoto.

Mrs. Nona Hungate, of Cheney, wife of Dr. Joseph W. Hungate, professor of biology at the Eastern Washington College of Education, following selection by the American mothers' committee of The Golden Rule Foundation. Mother of five sons, Mrs. Hungate is the

WHERE JAPANESE FOUND THEIR MARKS

WAR IN NEW GUINEA A Guinea Airways hangar at Salamaua, New Guinea, burns fiercely after it was struck by Japanese bombers in one of a series of raids that paved the way for the capture of the port by landing parties. Lower—Charred skeleton of Australian plane (left) smolders after Japanese attack on airbase at Salamaua. Japanese air raiders riddled this De Havilland plane (right) with machine gun fire as it stood on a runway.—A. P. wirephotos.

CANTON GIRLS AID WAR WOUNDED

STRETCHER BEARERS Preparing to go to the aid of wounded after a Japanese bombardment, these Chinese girl students from Canton, part of a hospital stretcher unit, line up for final instructions.—A. P. wirephoto.