

Jap Held in Curfew Case

PORTLAND, April 23.—Minoru Yasui, Hood River American-born Japanese, was held today under federal indictment for violation of the alien curfew order. Yasui, attorney, who violated the curfew for a test case, was indicted yesterday. A fine of $5,000 and a year in prison are possible under the act.
