

Japanese Jailed As Curfew Violators

Two Japanese were held today in the county jail on charges of violating curfew regulations. They are George Tatsumi and Yasutatsu Niimi, both 21 years old. They were bound over to the federal grand jury by United States Commissioner Harry M. Westfall.
